Foreign Office, March 29, 1886.

THE Earl of Rosebery has received a Despatch from Lord Lyons, Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, forwarding an extract from the French Journal Officiel of the 20th of March, relating to claims arising out of the recent military operations in Madagascar, of which the following is a translation:—

Journal Officiel, March 20, 1886.

"NOTICE

"TO persons who may have claims to advance on account of losses sustained in Madagascar during the recent conflict between the French and Hova Governments.

"According to the terms of Article 8 of the Treaty concluded on the 17th of December, 1885, between the French Republic and the Government of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, the Government of the Queen has agreed to pay ten million francs, applicable both to the settlement of French claims liquidated before the conflict which took place between the two parties, and to compensation for all damages caused to private persons of all nationalities by the fact of that conflict. The examination and settlement of these indemnities have devolved upon the French Government.

"Persons having claims to advance on account of the above-mentioned damages are warned that they must address their applications, accompanied by documentary proofs, either to the Foreign Office in Paris before the 15th of May, or to the French Resident at Tamatave before the 15th of July next.

"Paris, March 18th, 1886."

(SWINE-FEVER.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of March, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following Area (namely),—in the county of Edinburgh comprised within the following boundaries, that is to say, on the south the road from Slateford to Edinburgh, on the west a small brook running towards Gorgie, and on the north and east the fields of Gorgie Park,—which was declared by Order of Council dated the nineteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to be an Area infected with swine-fever, is hereby declared to be free from swine-fever, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.
