PORT OF HULL.—TRANSHIPMENT.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 31st day of March, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:
Lord President.
Mr. Heneage.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 and 1884, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Notwithstanding anything in The Foreign Animals Order of 1885—

(a.) Animals brought from the United States of America to the Port of Hull may be trans-shipped in the River Humber or in the Albert Dock or in the Alexandra Dock in the port of Hull; and (b.) Sheep, goats, and swine brought from the ports of Bremen or Hamburg in the German Empire to the port of Hull may be transhipped in the River Humber or in any Dock in the port of Hull approved by the Privy Council; from the vessel in which they are brought to another vessel for conveyance to the Foreign Animals Wharf at the Citadel Estate in the port of Hull, subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel (in this Order called the landing-vessel) into which the animals are transhipped be specially fitted and appropriated for the purpose of conveying such animals.

Second. That the owner, agent, or charterer of the landing-vessel has received the special permission of the Commissioners of Customs so to employ the landing-vessel under this Order.

2. Those animals shall be transhipped in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs, and an Officer of Customs shall remain in charge of the animals on board the landing-vessel until its arrival at the Foreign Animals Wharf.

3. The landing-vessel shall proceed direct to that Wharf, and the animals shall be landed there in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs.

4. The landing-vessel shall not be used for any other purpose during the time of its being so appropriated, and shall immediately after each occasion of use, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided respecting vessels by Article 43 of The Foreign Animals Order of 1885.

5. Animals so transhipped shall continue to be deemed foreign animals.

6. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, the owner or consignee of the animals, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the landing-vessel, and the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull, and the Hull, Barnsley and West Riding Junction Railway and Dock Company, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts or omissions shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

7. Terms in this Order have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order of 1885.
