WHEREAS by the Slave Trade Act 1873 section 29 it is enacted that where any Treaty in relation to the Slave Trade is made after the passing of this Act, by or on behalf of Her Majesty, with any foreign state, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that as from such date, not being earlier than the date of the Treaty, as may be specified in the Order, such Treaty shall be deemed, and thereupon (as from the said date, or if no date is specified as from the date of such Order) such Treaty shall be deemed to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of this Act, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply and be construed accordingly; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order referring to the same Treaty, render the application of this Act subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that every such Order shall recite or embody the terms of the Treaty so far as they relate to the Slave Trade, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within six weeks after it is made, or, if Parliament be not then sitting, within six weeks after the then next meeting of Parliament, and shall also be published in the London Gazette:—

And whereas on the fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven a Treaty or Convention for the suppression of the Slave Trade was concluded between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of His Highness the Khedive of Egypt.

“THE Government of His Majesty the King of Italy being desirous of acceding to the Convention for the suppression of the traffic in slaves, concluded between the Governments of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, on the fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the Government of Her Britannic Majesty and of His Highness the Khedive of Egypt having agreed to accept such accession, the undersigned, in the name of their respective Governments, by whom they have been duly authorized for that purpose, declare as follows:—

9. The Captain of the Port or any Constable appointed under this Order shall have power to enter at all times, as well by night as by day, into and upon any hulk or boat, as defined by this Order, and every part thereof (provided such hulk or boat be not then actually employed in Her Majesty's service), lying or being in the port or harbour of Gibraltar, to inspect the same and to ascertain whether any alien person or persons who may have been removed from Gibraltar, or who may have been refused admittance therein under the provisions of the Aliens Order in Council, Gibraltar, 1885, is or are on board of such hulk or boat; and also for the purpose of taking all such measures as may be necessary for providing against fire and other accidents, and for preserving peace and good order on board of any such hulk or boat; and for the effectual prevention, in all cases, of any felonies and misdemeanours being committed, and for the effectual detection of any felonies or misdemeanours which may have been committed, or which such Captain of the Port or any such Constable as aforesaid may have reasonable cause to suspect to have been committed or to be about to be committed on board any such hulk or boat.

It shall be lawful for any such Constable as aforesaid to apprehend any suspected person found on board any hulk or boat and to convey such person before the Captain of the Port, and if it shall appear upon the oath of one or more creditable witness or witnesses, that such person is a person of evil fame; and if such person shall not be able to give a satisfactory account of himself and of his way of living; and if it shall also appear to the satisfaction of the Captain of the Port that there is just ground to believe that such person was in or on board any such hulk or boat with intent to commit any felony or misdemeanour, such person shall be deemed a rogue and a vagabond within the meaning of "The Ordinance to enable certain Offences to be tried in a Summary Manner, Gibraltar, 1885," and shall be liable upon conviction before the Captain of the Port to the like punishment as if he had been convicted under that Ordinance.

11. It shall be lawful for any such Constable as aforesaid, at any time between the first morning and the first evening gunfire, to enter any ship, hulk, or boat being within the port and anchorage ground of Gibraltar and to search the same for any gunpowder, arms, or ammunition that may be there secreted or deposited for any unlawful purpose or suspected so to be, and such gunpowder, arms, or ammunition to seize and remove to any such place as shall for that purpose be appointed by the Governor; and such gunpowder, arms and ammunition shall be forfeited to Her Majesty; and the owner of any such ship, hulk or boat, as the case may be, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 2,500 pesetas.

13. All such regulations shall be subject to the approval of the Governor and when so approved shall be in force from the date at which they are promulgated as if they had been herein enacted. All such regulations shall be published in the Gibraltar Chronicle and shall be exhibited in one or more conspicuous positions at the Port Office.

14. Any person contravening any rule or regulation for the time being in force under this Order shall be liable to such fine or penalty as may be fixed by any rule or regulation made under the provisions of this Order.

15. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Order, or by any rule or regulation made by this Order, shall be recovered in a summary manner and subject to the provisions contained in "The Ordinance to improve the Administration of the Law by Justices out of Sessions, Gibraltar, 1867," which said Ordinance hereby is and shall be deemed and taken to all intents and purposes to be incorporated with and shall be read as part of this Order.

16. The Governor may, if he shall so think fit, remit any fine imposed under any of the provisions of this Order, or any portion thereof. The Governor may also, upon the recommendation of the Captain of the Port, sanction the payment to an informer of a moiety or any less part of any fine imposed under this Order.

17. All fines and penalties recovered under this Order, save and except such portion thereof as may have been paid to any informer under the authority of the last preceding section, shall be paid into the Colonial Treasury for the use of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors.

Hulks.

18. No hulk as defined by this Order shall be permitted to remain within the port, harbour or anchorage ground of Gibraltar except by the license of the Governor, and any person desiring to obtain a license for any hulk to remain in the

19. There shall be paid for every such license as aforesaid the fee mentioned in the Schedule marked "A" to the Revenue Order in Council, Gibraltar, 1834, attached.

20. If any hulk shall remain within the port, harbour or anchorage ground of Gibraltar without a license for that purpose first had and obtained from the Governor, or shall remain therein after the expiration, resumption or forfeiture of any license, or while any license is not actually in force, then, and in any or either of the cases aforesaid, the owner or master of such hulk shall, on conviction, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding 500 pesetas for every day during which the same shall so remain in the said port, harbour or anchorage ground.

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint

THE following Statute, made by the Governing Body of King's College, Cambridge, on the 20th day of February, 1886, and sealed with the Common Seal of the College, on 4th March, 1886, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

A Statute to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 20th day of February 1886 and passed at such meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute C. Chapter I. made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge it is enacted as follows :

1. The Annual Officers of the College shall be the Vice-Provost, the Dean or Deans, the Bursars, the Librarian, and the holders of any other annual offices which may from time to time be created by the Annual Congregation.

2. The Vice-Provost shall be elected every year from among the Fellows who are members of the Governing Body. His duty shall be to attend, under the Provost, to the good government of the College according to the Statutes thereof, to act as the Provost's deputy in his absence, and to perform all such other acts as are prescribed by these Statutes or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. During term he shall reside in College and shall not be absent therefrom at the same time with the Provost except for grave cause. In case of his absence at any time, or in case of a vacancy in the office, the Senior Fellow in residence who is a member of the Council, shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of Vice-Provost.

3. Either one or two Deans, as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, shall be elected every year from among the Fellows who are members of the Governing Body. The duty of a Dean shall be to provide for the solemn and decorous performance of Divine worship in the College Chapel, in conformity with such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Governing Body, to maintain discipline and good order among such members of the College as are in statu pupillari, and to perform such other acts as are prescribed by these Statutes or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. The Dean or Deans shall reside in College during term, and at such other times as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time prescribe.

4. Either two or three Bursars, as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, shall be elected every year. They shall superintend the buildings, offices, courts, and gardens of the College, and provide, under the orders of the Governing Body, for their maintenance and repair. The several departments of these duties shall be distributed among the Bursars according to such regulations as shall from time to time be made by the Annual Congregation. The moneys of the College which shall be received by the Bursars, and shall not be required for immediate College purposes, shall be kept by them in some bank or banks or otherwise invested according to the orders of the Governing Body and no loan or temporary or other investment shall be made by them unless in conformity with such orders. The Bursar who has the sole or principal charge of the internal arrangements of the College shall reside in College during term.

5. Any change in the number of Deans or Bursars shall be made only after due notice (as defined in Statute D. II. 6) of the intention to propose such change.

7. The Annual Congregation may from time to time create any new annual offices which they may think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the College, or for the better enforcement of its discipline; provided that such offices may be abolished by the same authority, and that the duties of them may from time to time be varied by the Governing Body.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter so much of the said Statute C. Chapter I. as relates to the Deans in manner hereinafter appearing. During term he shall reside in College and shall not be absent therefrom at the same time with the Provost except for grave cause. In case of his absence at any time, or in case of a vacancy in the office, the Senior Fellow in residence who is a member of the Council, shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of Vice-Provost.

3. Either one or two Deans, as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine, shall be elected every year from among the Fellows who are members of the Governing Body. The duty of a Dean shall be to provide for the solemn and decorous performance of Divine worship in the College Chapel, in conformity with such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Governing Body, to maintain discipline and good order among such members of the College as are in statu pupillari, and to perform such other acts as are prescribed by these statutes, or as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. at least of the Deans shall reside in College during term, and at such other times as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time prescribe.

7. The Annual Congregation may from time to time create any new annual offices which they may think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the College, or for the better enforcement of its discipline; provided that such offices may be abolished by the same authority, and that the duties of them may from time to time be varied by the Governing Body.
