

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, Edward Grimwade, of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and Edward William Grimwade, of Mildmay-chambers, Union-court, Broad-street, in the city of London, carrying on business as Wholesale Chemists and Druggists and Commission Agents, at Mildmay-chambers aforesaid, under the style or firm of Grimwade, Ridley, and Co., has become determined by effluxion of time, and the said Edward Grimwade retires from the firm. All debts due to or owing by the said late firm will be received and paid respectively by the said Edward William Grimwade.—As witness our hands this 1st day of April, 1886.

Edward Grimwade.
Edward William Grimwade.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Indenture of Lease, dated the 18th day of February, 1886, made between Joseph Dugdale, of the one part, and Henry Higson and George Higson, of the other part:—All that cotton mill or weaving-shed, engine-house, boiler-house, warehouse, and other erections and buildings, known by the name of Canton Mill, situate on the southerly side of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, in Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, together with the steam engine, steam boiler, shafting, and mill gearing; and also the power looms and other machinery, articles, utensils, and things now in and about the said cotton mill or weaving shed, buildings, and premises, and particularized in the schedule to the said lease (a copy of which schedule may be seen at our offices), were demised and leased by the said Joseph Dugdale to the said Henry Higson and George Higson for the term and subject to the rent and covenants in the said lease mentioned, reserved, and contained. And notice is hereby further given, that the said Henry Higson and George Higson have no interest in the said engine, boiler, shafting, mill, gearing, looms, machinery, articles, utensils, and things other than as such tenants or lessees thereof, together with the said cotton mill or weaving shed, buildings, and premises as aforesaid.—Dated this 2nd day of April, 1886.
