

to the said William Rylance Melville; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints Matlock Bank, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Matlock in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell, wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Tansley, upon the north-east by the parish of Ashover upon the north-west by the parish of Darley, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south partly by the new parish of South Darley in the same county and diocese, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of South Darley from the parish of Matlock aforesaid at a point in the middle of the River Derwent distant six chains or thereabouts to the north-west of the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Midland Railway over the same river, at which point the said boundary diverges from the said river in a southerly direction, and extending thence that is from the said point, south-eastward along the middle of the said river for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts thereby passing under the railway bridge aforesaid, to the centre of Matlock Bridge which carries the high road from Snitterton to Chesterfield over the same river and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned bridge first north-eastward, then eastward and then again north-eastward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of forty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction on the northern side of Yew Tree House with the road and footpath which leads past the northern side of Chesterfield House and past the northern side of Hurst Farm House, into the lane which leads from the said farm house towards the Duke of Wellington Inn, and extending thence that is from the said high road along the middle of the said road and footpath for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the same road and footpath with the last-described lane, which boundary divides the said parish of Matlock from the new parish of Tansley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Hugh Culling Eardley Childers, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis," and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

CHECKLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Checkley, in the county of Stafford; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.:—widows and widowers as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-ninth day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-ninth day of May.

C. L. Peel.

(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 19th day of April, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of
