

Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of and advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Slapton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Slapton is vested in the Venerable Alfred Earle, of West Alvington in the county of Devon Canon of Exeter and Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Totnes in the said diocese of Exeter, and his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas the said Alfred Earle is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Slapton now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Exeter.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Henry, now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas a certain sum of money has been paid over to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as an augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Slapton but upon condition that the patronage of the said benefice of Slapton shall be so transferred as aforesaid.

“And whereas under these circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Slapton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Slapton.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Earle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Slapton now vested in him the said Alfred Earle as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and from his heirs and assigns to the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be fully and freely exercised by the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
