Whitehall, June 1, 1886.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Right Honourable Thomas John, Lord Thurlow, to the Right Honourable Hugh Culling Eardley Childers, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland now met in General Assembly, acknowledge with all gratitude and respect Your Majesty's most gracious letter assuring us of the continuance of Your affectionate regard for the Church of our Fathers. We have already had many touching proofs of that regard; but none has touched us more than the warm and affectionate tribute Your Majesty has paid to the memory and worth of the distinguished patriot and leader whose loss we now mourn.

We return our cordial thanks to Your Majesty for the unreserved confidence You repose in our zeal, prudence, and moderation, and we heartily unite in Your Majesty's prayer, that by the blessing of Almighty God we may be guided into all truth and directed in all our duty. It shall be our constant endeavour that our deliberations may be conducted in such a spirit of brotherly kindness and charity as may tend to promote the cause of true religion and the best interests of Your faithful and loving subjects in this Your ancient Kingdom.

We accept with much thankfulness Your Majesty's annual gift of two thousand pounds for the diffusion of religious knowledge in the Highlands and Islands; and we shall endeavour to dispense Your Majesty's bounty with the utmost care and fidelity.

We welcome the appointment of Lord Thurlow as Your Majesty's representative at the meeting of the General Assembly, recognizing in him the descendant of one who rendered valuable service to our Church, and in his noble lady the descendant of one of its most honoured and faithful Ministers.

That Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, may be pleased to grant to Your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, and to bless Your Majesty, Your children, and Your children's children, with

His choicest blessings both in this life and in the life to come, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly.

(No. 127.)—AUSTRALIA—EAST COAST.

KEPPEL BAY—FITZROY RIVER ENTRANCE.

Light-vessel near Timandra Buoy; Discontinuance of North Light, Little Sea Hill; and Alteration in Lights at Pilot Station and Little Sea Hill.

THE Government of Queensland has given notice, that on 15th April, 1886, a light-vessel, painted red, would be moored in 7 fathoms at low water, 3 cables N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. from the position (as now charted) of Timandra Bank Buoy, Fitzroy River Entrance:—

The light is a fixed white light, visible in clear weather from a distance of 11 miles.

During flood tide, a red flag is shown by day and a white light at night, from a staff on the lantern gallery of the light-vessel.

Also, that on the same date, the Northern (low) Light at Little Sea Hill, and the two leading lights at the Pilot Station, would be discontinued; but a fixed white light is shown from the Pilot Station, visible between the bearings of S.W. by S. and

S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., or from the northern extreme of Keppel Rocks to Cottier Bank Buoy.

Also, that on the same date, the high light at Little Sea Hill would show red when bearing northward of N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E.

NOTE.—Timandra Bank Buoy will be moved from its former position into a depth of 3 fathoms, off the north-west extreme of Timandra Bank.

Directions by night :—Vessels entering Keppel Bay from the eastward, with Cape Capricorn leading lights in line, when abreast Cottiers Bank Buoy (which will be indicated by opening Pilot Station light on a S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. bearing) should steer for the light-vessel, being careful not to bring her westward of a W. by S. bearing.

When abreast Keppel Rocks, Pilot Station Light will become obscured. Continue a westerly course for about $3\frac{1}{4}$ cables past the light-vessel, when Balaclava Island Lights will be brought in line, and the usual directions may then be followed.

Approaching vessels requiring pilots—whether or not they have made the usual signal (by day, Union Jack at the fore; at night, blue light, gun, or rocket), when off Cape Capricorn—should, if not already boarded by a pilot, make the signal for one on nearing the light-vessel, which will be answered as follows :—

By a white flare up, when the pilot will put on board from the light-vessel.

By two white lights placed vertically, when the pilot is coming off from the Pilot station, and the boat is to be looked out for.

By a white light over a red light, when vessels are to proceed, keeping Balaclava Island lights in line, and to look out for the pilot on the line of lights.

By a red light over a white light, when a pilot will be obtained at Little Sea Hill.

By two red lights placed vertically, when there is no pilot available, and the vessel is to anchor, or to proceed with Balaclava Island lights in line, for better shelter.

By day—The foregoing signals will be made by flags of similar colours.

Pilots may be put on board the light-vessel, by outward-bound vessels not further requiring their services.

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the arcs of visibility of lights are given from seaward. Variation $8\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ Easterly in 1886.]

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Bognor, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint John.

And whereas the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, and the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, the patron in right of his Sec of the said parish of Bognor, and the Reverend Robert Biscoe Tritton, the Vicar or Incumbent of the same parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Bognor that the said new church of Saint John, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint John) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, and of the said Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said Robert Biscoe Tritton, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint John, situate within the said parish of Bognor, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Bognor in lieu of the said old parish church of the same, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint John, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid) of the said parish of Bognor, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint John (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Bognor) and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.
