

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Militia Act, 1882," it is amongst other things enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with :

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the 3rd (Militia) Battalion, Oxfordshire Light Infantry, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the 3rd Battalion, Oxfordshire Light Infantry, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and that this Order be published in the London Gazette.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, June 26, 1886.

THE following Statute, passed on the 22nd day of May, 1886, by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

Stat. II., cl. 21a.—THE President and Fellows may, if they think fit, by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting at a meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat, or at a stated general meeting, and either with or without public notice or examination, elect to a Fellowship—

(a.) Any Lecturer, Bursar, or other officer of the College, or any person previously a Fellow of the College, whom it shall be judged expedient to retain or re-elect as a Fellow.

(b.) Any person who holds the office of Professor or Reader in the University.

(c.) Any person who has attained distinction in one of the liberal professions, or in literature, science, or art.

Fellows elected under this clause shall be called extraordinary Fellows, and the whole number of such Fellows shall not exceed four at any one time. They shall be elected for such period not exceeding five years, as the President and Fellows may determine in each case, or for any period not exceeding five years, during which they may be the holders of any particular office in the College or in the University, and shall be entitled to be admitted actual Fellows immediately after their election and shall thereupon be entitled to vote, and in all other respects (subject to the provisions of this clause) shall have the rights and powers of ordinary actual Fellows of the College.

The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, attach to any Fellowship under this clause such stipend not exceeding £50 per annum, inclusive of all allowances and privileges as may be determined at the time of election ; but the payment of any such stipend shall be conditional on the attendance of the Fellow at the stated meetings of the College, if not prevented by reasonable cause,

Save as aforesaid, no emolument shall be attached to extraordinary Fellowships except the like privileges with other Fellows as to table allowances and rooms.

Such Fellows shall be eligible for re-election from time to time, and their Fellowships shall be tenable notwithstanding marriage.

The preceding clauses of this Statute other than clauses 16, 17, and 21, shall not apply to extraordinary Fellowships, and such Fellowships shall not be included in the number of Fellowships provided for under clause 1 of this Statute.

Privy Council Office, June 26, 1886.

THE following Statute, passed on the 25th day of May, 1886, by the Governing Body of Oriel College, Oxford, and sealed on the 31st day of May, 1886, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

A STATUTE to amend a Statute, made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), and approved by the Queen in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, in relation to Oriel College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at a General Meeting of the Provost and Fellows of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 25th day of May, 1886, and passed at such meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

Whereas by Statute V, 5, made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and approved by the Queen in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, in relation to Oriel College, in the University of Oxford, it was enacted as follows :—

"5. The Treasurer, except as hereinafter provided, shall be appointed annually by the Provost and Fellows from among the Fellows of the College. A Fellow so appointed who shall become possessed of any benefice, property, pension, or office, which would in ordinary cases disqualify him for continuing a Fellow, or who shall have held his Fellowship for seven years from the time of his election, may nevertheless be retained in his Fellowship by the Provost and Fellows: provided that this power shall be exercised, if at all, at some stated General Meeting previous to the day on which the Fellowship would otherwise be vacated.

"The Provost and Fellows may, if they think fit, appoint a Treasurer, whether a Fellow of the College or not, for any period not exceeding five years; and may, if they think fit, at any stated General Meeting, elect such Treasurer, if not already a Fellow, to be a Fellow of the College, and may assign to him as the stipend of his office the emolument of an Ordinary Fellowship, together with such additional fixed sum as they shall from time to time determine.

"Any Treasurer elected to or retained in a Fellowship under this clause shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship so long as he shall continue to hold the office of Treasurer, and no longer."
