

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1886.

Whitehall, July 1, 1886.

THE following Address was presented to the Queen on the occasion of the opening by Her Majesty of Royal Holloway College for Women at Egham, on the 30th June, 1886:—

May it please Your Majesty,

I HAVE the honour to express to Your Majesty, on behalf of the Governors and Trustees of this College, their deep sense of gratitude for the gracious proof of Your Majesty's interest in their important and responsible work, as evinced by your august presence on this occasion.

I will not venture to intrude upon Your Majesty at this moment with any lengthy description of the history and objects of the College, which was founded and planned by my relative, the late Thomas Holloway, upon the most generous and philanthropic lines for the advancement of women's education, morally and intellectually.

For many years his mind was dominated by the idea that if a higher form of culture could ennoble women, the sons of such mothers would be nobler men, and to this idea, which had already successfully passed the stage of experiment, he devoted his fortune and his energies.

As a College for these women students he has given this magnificent edifice which Your Majesty so graciously honours to-day, and it remains for the administration, under God's blessing, to realize and develop the Founder's wishes and desires; so that whilst Holloway College shall by its curriculum advance the intellectual standard of women's education, it shall ever remain an orderly Christian household, where every student may above all things feel her individual responsibility to God.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for the loyal Address which you have presented to Me on behalf of the Governors and Trustees of this College.

"In opening this spacious and noble building, it gives Me pleasure to acknowledge the generous spirit which has been manifested in the completion, by voluntary effort, of a work promising so much public usefulness.

"I gladly give the assurance of My goodwill to the administration to which the College is about to be entrusted, and I earnestly hope that their efforts to promote the objects for which it has been founded and planned by your relative may be rewarded by a career of abiding success."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, viz:—

"Whereas we consider that the present system of granting an uniform rate of money allowance from the funds of Greenwich Hospital to the wives and families of Naval Pensioners admitted into Naval Hospitals or Infirmaries under the regulations defining their claims to the benefits of Greenwich Hospital does not meet the requirements of the more deserving cases of pensioners with long service.

"We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to authorize the substitution of the following scale for that laid down in the Regulations and Instructions for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service sanctioned by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, the provisions whereof were extended by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six to the wives and families of pensioners eligible for the benefits of Greenwich Hospital, when inmates of Lunatic Asylums supported at the public expense.

Rate of Man's Pension.	Allowance to Wives or to Persons having Charge of the Children, per Week.
From 6d. to 1s. a day	3s. per week
From 1s. to 1s. 6d. a day	4s. per week
From 1s. 6d. to 2s. a day	5s. per week