In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Mary, Ewshott, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a sum of four hundred and twenty-one pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, which has been transferred into our name in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Mary, Ewshott, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of seven hundred and seventy-eight pounds and five pence cash, which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, and in respect of which lastly-mentioned sum we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Ewshott, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-five pounds eighteen shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Ewshott, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-eight pounds eleven shillings and ten pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty-five pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Metropolitan Railway Company, which has been transferred into our name for the benefit of the vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Heatherlands, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John the Evangelist, Heatherlands, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of eight hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of All Saints, Leyton, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising one thousand six hundred and fifty square yards, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the said benefice as a site for a parsonage-house, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of All Saints, Leyton, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of All Saints, Leyton, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Leyton: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Prestatyn, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, one capital sum of eighty-four pounds sixteen shillings and nine pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage of Prestatyn, which was effected by a deed bearing date the thirty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, in the county of Carmarthen, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us (subject to certain covenants and stipulations respecting a water tank, drains, and pipes) under and by virtue of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and made between David Edward Gwynne Vaughan, of Pantyrhedyn, in the parish of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn aforesaid, Esquire, of the first part, the Reverend Thomas Thomas, of Bank House, Llandovery, in the said county of Carmarthen, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the second part, Thomas Evans Williams, of Crossway House, in the parish of Peterchurch, in the county of Hereford, Gentleman, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Saint David's, together with this instrument, after the publication of the latter in the London Gazette: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances (subject as aforesaid) to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the said eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing one acre, or thereabouts, being part of a close called Cae Seybor, and of a farm called Bronfelm, situate in the parish of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, in the county of Carmarthen, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on or towards the north and east by other land belonging to David Edward Gwynne Vaughan, of Pantyrhedyn, in the said parish of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, Esquire, on or towards the south by the churchyard attached to the church of Saint Mary, Llanfair-ar-y-bryn, and on or towards the west by the high road leading from Llanwityd to Llandovery, and is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

BINSTEED and PRIOR, 106, High-street, Portsmouth, Solicitors.

To Harry Mills, of Temple-chambers, 9, Broad-street-corner, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick.

TAKE notice, that on the 22nd April, 1886, a writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in an action of Wright v. Mills, 1886, W., 1366, claiming:—1. An account of the moneys due to the plaintiff for principal moneys, interest, and mortgagee's costs on a deposit of deeds and under an agreement, dated the 26th day of October, 1880, and expressed to be made between you, of the one part, and the plaintiff, of the other part, and that the mortgage might be enforced by foreclosure or sale; 2. A Receiver. And take notice, that by an Order of the Vice-Chancellor Sir James Bacon, dated the 1st day of June, 1886, it was ordered that the affixing copies of the said writ and of the said Order on the house and premises at Stretton-upon-Dunsmore, in the county of Warwick, formerly belonging to George Pell, deceased, and now in the occupation of Mary Ann Pell, and the publication by advertisement of the said writ and Order once in the London Gazette, once in the Times, twice in the Daily Telegraph, and three times in the Birmingham Daily Gazette and Birmingham Daily Post newspapers should be deemed good service of the said writ upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, in the Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiff may proceed in the action, and Judgment may be given in your absence.
