THE FOREIGN ANIMALS AMENDMENT No. 2 ORDER OF 1886.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of July, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Sir Ughtred Kay-Shuttleworth.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 and 1884, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886, dated the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, is hereby, from and after the commencement of this Order, revoked.

2. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 28 of The Foreign Animals Order of 1885, and shall be deemed to be Article 28 of that Order (namely):

Conditions of Landing.

28.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the second condition of this Article) in Denmark or in Sweden.

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

Third. That the vessel has not within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the United States of America.

Fourth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the fifth condition of this Article) in Denmark or in Sweden.

Fifth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel been in contact with any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place unless and until—

(a.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions; and

(b.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

3. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886 hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886 hereby revoked.

4. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order of 1885.

5. This Order may be cited as THE FOREIGN ANIMALS AMENDMENT No. 2 ORDER OF 1886.

6. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

THE SHETLAND (SARCOPTIC MANGE)
ORDER OF 1886.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of July, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.

Sir Ughtred Kay-Shuttleworth.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Short Title.

1. This Order may be cited as The Shetland (Sarcoptic Mange) Order of 1886.

Extent.

2. This Order extends to the county of Shetland only.

Commencement.

3. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Interpretation.

4. In this Order—

The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878 :

Fodder means hay or other substance commonly used for food of horses, asses, or mules :

Litter means straw or other substance commonly used for bedding or otherwise for or about horses, asses, or mules :

Master includes a person having the charge or command of a vessel :

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1878.

Extension of Act of 1878.

5. Sarcoptic Mange of horses, asses, and mules (in this Order called Sarcoptic Mange) shall be a disease for the purposes of the following Sections of the Act of 1878 (namely) :

Section thirty-one (notice of disease).

Section thirty-two (Orders of Council).

Section fifty (powers of police).

Section fifty-one (powers of inspectors).

and of all other Sections of the Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those Sections, including such Sections as provide for offences and procedure.

Duty of Police on Notice of Disease.

6. The constable to whom notice of the fact of a horse, ass, or mule being affected with sarcoptic mange, or with disease supposed to be sarcoptic mange, is given, under Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878, as extended by the last preceding Article, shall forthwith give information thereof to an Inspector of the Local Authority, who shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority.

Optional Notice of Disease or Illness.

7. Any person having in his possession or under his charge a horse, ass, or mule affected with sarcoptic mange, or with any illness, or suspected of being so affected, besides giving such notice to a constable as he is required by Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878, as extended by Article five of this Order, to give, may, if he thinks fit, give notice of the fact of the horse, ass, or mule being so affected, or suspected, to the Inspector of the Local Authority.

Duty of Inspector to act immediately.

8. An Inspector of the Local Authority on receiving in any manner whatsoever information of the supposed existence of sarcoptic mange, or having reasonable ground to suspect the existence of sarcoptic mange, shall proceed with all practicable speed to the place where such sarcoptic mange, according to the information received by him, exists, or is suspected to exist, and shall there and elsewhere put in force and discharge the powers and duties by or under the Act of 1878, and any Order of Council, conferred and imposed on him as Inspector.

Public Warning as to Existence of Disease.

9.—(1.) The Local Authority may, if they think fit, from time to time, give public warning by placards, advertisement, or otherwise, of the existence of sarcoptic mange in any stable, building, field, or other place, with or without any particular description thereof, as they think fit, and may continue to do so during the existence of the disease, and in case of a stable, building, or other like place, until the same has been cleansed and disinfected.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person (without authority or excuse) to remove or deface any such placard.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement.

10. The Local Authority may, from time to time, make Regulations for the following purposes, or any of them :

(a.) For prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of horses, asses, or mules in the whole of their District or in such part or parts thereof as may be specified by the Local Authority :

(b.) For prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of horses, asses, or mules out of the whole of their District or out of such part or parts thereof as may be specified by the Local Authority :

(c.) For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of any stable, building, field, or other place of a horse, ass, or mule affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange :

(d.) For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of any stable, building, field, or other place in which sarcoptic mange exists or is suspected to exist of a horse, ass, or mule that has been in contact with or in the same stable, building, field, or other place with a horse, ass, or mule affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange :

(e.) For regulating the taking out of any stable, building, field, or other place of any fodder, litter, or other thing that has been in contact with or used for or about a horse, ass, or mule affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange ;

but nothing in any such Regulation shall authorize movement in contravention of Article 84 or Article 87 or other provision of The Animals Order of 1884, or in contravention of any general Order of Council for the time being in force ; and a Regulation under paragraph (4.) of this Article shall operate so long only as sarcoptic mange exists in the judgment of the Local Authority in any stable, building, field, or other place to which the Regulation refers, and in case of a stable, building, or other like place, until the same has been cleansed and disinfected.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Treatment.

11. The Local Authority may, from time to time, make Regulations for the purpose of causing any person having in his possession or under his charge a horse, ass, or mule affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange to treat that horse, ass, or mule, or cause it to be treated, with some dressing or other remedy for sarcoptic mange.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Cleansing and Disinfection.

12.—(1.) The Local Authority may, from time to time, make Regulations for the following purposes, or any of them :

(a.) For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of places used by horses, asses, or mules affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange :

(b.) For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of walls, hurdles, fences, rubbing-posts, or other things with which horses, asses, or mules affected with or suspected of sarcoptic mange have come in contact :

(c.) For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of vans or other vehicles, or of vessels, used for the carrying or moving by land or by water of horses, asses, or mules :

(d.) For prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection are to be effected :

(e.) For providing that such places, walls, hurdles, fences, rubbing-posts, things, vans, vehicles, or vessels should be cleansed and disinfected at the expense of the Local Authority, or of the owner, lessee, or occupier thereof.

(2.) If any person fails to cleanse and disinfect any place, or any wall, hurdle, fence, rubbing-post, or other thing, or any van or other vehicle, or any vessel, in accordance with any such Regulation, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of such Regulation, to cause such place, or such wall, hurdle, fence, rubbing-post, or other thing, or such van or other vehicle, or such vessel, to be cleansed and disinfected and to recover the expenses of such cleansing and disinfection from such person in any court of competent jurisdiction.

General Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

13.—(1.) The Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Privy Council a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2.) If the Privy Council are satisfied on inquiry with respect to any Regulation made by the Local Authority under this Order that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

14.—(1.) Every person in charge of horses, asses, or mules being moved, where, under any Regulation of the Local Authority under this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a Constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or Constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Offences.

15.—(1.) If a horse, ass, or mule is moved in contravention of a Regulation of the Local Authority made under the authority of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the horse, ass, or mule, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by clipping, or washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark clipped, painted, or stamped on a horse, ass, or mule, as required by a Regulation made by the Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(3.) If anything is omitted to be done as regards treatment of a horse, ass, or mule in contravention of a Regulation of the Local Authority made under the authority of this Order, the owner of the horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(4.) If anything is omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of a Regulation of the Local Authority made under the authority of this Order, the owner and the lessee and the occupier of any place or thing in or in respect of which,—and the person using the van or other vehicle in which,—and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which,—(as the case may be,) the same is omitted, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(5.) If a person in charge of horses, asses, or mules being moved, where, under a Regulation made by the Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of July, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The limits of the following Place at the farm of Keirton, in the parish of Inverarity, in the county of Forfar, occupied by James M'Gilchrist, farmer there, which is declared by order of the Local Authority of the county of Forfar, dated the seventh day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, to be a Place infected with pleuro-pneumonia (namely),—the three fields (one growing grain and two grass) situated on the north side of and betwixt the farm steading of Keirton and Gateside, and adjoining the west side of the Dundee and Forfar public-road, together with a shed on the north side of the said farm steading, and the farm-road leading to the said shed,—are hereby extended so as to include the Place described in the Schedule to this Order, and the Place described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby declared to be a Place infected with pleuro-pneumonia.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

A Place at the farm of Keirton, in the parish of Inverarity, in the county of Forfar, occupied by James M'Gilchrist, farmer there, comprising the three fields (one growing grain and two grass) situated on the north side of and betwixt the farm steading of Keirton and Gateside, and adjoining the west side of the Dundee and Forfar public-road, together with the whole farm steading, a grass field on the south side thereof, and the farm-road leading between the said grass field and steading.

*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,
Downing Street, July 23, 1886.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointments to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George:

To be an Ordinary Member of the Second Class, or Knights Commanders of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Samuel Walker Griffith, Esq., Vice-President of the Executive Council, Colonial Secretary and Premier of the Colony of Queensland.

To be Ordinary Members of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Richard Chaffey Baker, Esq., Member of the Legislative Council of the Colony of South Australia;

Frederick Richard Saunders, Esq., Government Agent of the Western Province of the Island of Ceylon, and Member of the Legislative Council of the Island; and Frank Athelstare Swettenham, Esq., British Resident at Selangore, Straits Settlements.

Foreign Office, May 20, 1886.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint James Joseph Enslie, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Consul for the Consular District of Nagasaki.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint John James Quin, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Consul for the Consular District of Hakodate and Neegata.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint Joseph Henry Longford, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Vice-Consul at Tokio.

Foreign Office, July 22, 1886.

THE Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. Giuseppe del Grande as Consul at Lagos, Guinea, with jurisdiction over the coast of Africa from Cape Formosa to Cape Tres Puntas, for His Majesty the King of Italy; of Mr. Leslie Whyte as Consul at Adelaide, with jurisdiction over South Australia, for His Majesty the King of the Belgians; and of Mr. Louis D. Beylard as Consul at Kingston, Jamaica, for the United States of America.

Whitehall, June 19, 1886.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration, that upon the decease of Robert Dundas, Viscount Melville, without issue, on the eighteenth day of February last, the dignity of Viscount Melville devolved upon Henry, now Viscount Melville, as the eldest son and heir of Charles Dundas, Clerk, commonly called the Honourable and Reverend Charles Dundas, who whilst living was next and only surviving brother of the said Robert, Viscount Melville, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sisters of the said Henry, Viscount Melville, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their late father survived his elder brother, the said Robert, Viscount Melville, and succeeded to the title and dignity of Viscount Melville. Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to order and declare that Charles Saunders Dundas, Esquire, Her Majesty's Consul-General at Hamburg, William Walter Dundas, Esquire, late Lieutenant, 5th Dragoon Guards, Edith Anne, wife of John Reeve, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel, late Grenadier Guards, Fanny Emma, wife of Ellis Philip Fox Reeve, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel, late Coldstream Guards, Gertrude Susan Dundas, Spinster, Louisa Montague Dundas, Spinster, Laura Mary Dundas, Spinster, Blanche Cecil Jane Dundas, Spinster, and Alice Caroline, the wife of Joshua Gladwyn Jebb, Esquire, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their father, the said Charles Dundas, had survived his brother, the said Robert, Viscount Melville, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Viscount Melville:

And to command that the said order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 164.)—ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.

(1.) Beachy Head to Portland—Intended Adoption of Uniform System of Buoyage.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, dated 30th June, 1886, that during the autumn of 1886, it is intended to re-arrange the buoyage from Beachy Head to Portland, including Looe Stream, Needles Channel, Solent, &c., in conformity with the uniform system of buoyage, viz:—

Conical buoys on starboard hand entering port, or with the main stream of flood tide.

Can buoys on port hand entering port, or with the main stream of flood tide.

Spherical buoys at the ends of middle grounds.

Further notice will be given when the above alterations have been effected.

LIVERPOOL BAY—MERSEY RIVER ENTRANCE.

(2.) Bar Light-Vessel—Delay in Intended Alterations in Light and Fog Signal.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 87, of 16th April, 1886, on intended alterations in the light and fog signal on board Bar Light-vessel, Mersey River Entrance:—

The Mersey Docks and Harbour Board has given further notice, dated 1st July, 1886, that the following alterations, which were to have been made on 13th July, 1886, have been unavoidably postponed:—

The light will be an experimental electric light, showing two successive flashes in a period of five seconds, followed by an eclipse of twenty-five seconds' duration, every half-minute. It should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 10 miles.

During thick or foggy weather, a siren will sound successively a high note and a low note. These notes will together be of about five seconds' duration, followed by twenty-five seconds of silence, every half-minute.

Further notice will be given when the proposed alterations are to be carried out.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
13th July, 1886.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—English Channel, Nos. 1598, 2675*c*, 6 (1); Owers to Dungeness No. 2451 (1); Portland to Owers, No. 2450 (1); Owers to Christchurch, No. 2045 (1); Spithead, No. 2060 (1); The Solent, No. 2040 (1); Needles Channel with Christchurch Bay, No. 2219 (1); Ireland, No. 1824*a* (2); Irish Channel, No. 1825*b* (2); Holyhead to Liverpool, No. 1170*b* (2); Liverpool Bay, No. 1951 (2). CANANEA BAY.

(1.) Flashing Light on Bom Abrigo Islet.

THE Brazilian Government has given notice, that during the month of June, or in the beginning of July, 1886, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse erected on the southern part of Bom Abrigo Islet, south side of Cananea Bay:—

The light is a flashing light, showing alternately two white flashes and one red flash, with intervals of fifteen seconds between each flash. It is elevated 504 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 14 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the sixth order.

The lighthouse, 40 feet high, consists of a square tower and keeper's dwelling, white in colour.

Position, lat. 25° 6' 40" S., long. 47° 51' 50" W.

SANTA CATHARINA STRAIT.

(2.) Alterations in Anhatomirim Islet Light.

Also, that on 1st June, 1886, the following alterations would be made in the light on Anhatomirim Islet, west side of northern entrance to Santa Catharina Strait.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 125 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 12 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the sixth order.

The lighthouse, 27 feet high, is of iron framework, and coloured white.

Cork Harbour Entrance—Position of Harbour Rock Eastern Buoy.

WITH reference to the Note contained in Notice to Mariners, No. 73, of 30th March, 1886, that vessels should pass well eastward of Harbour Rock Eastern Buoy, Cork Harbour Entrance, as dangerous wreckage was lying near it:—

Notice is given, that consequent on the said wreck of the "Cartvale" on Harbour Rock, this buoy has been moved 20 fathoms south-eastward of its former position, to a depth of 6 fathoms, and can now be passed at the usual distance.

As the channel between the buoy and Chicago Knoll is thus narrowed, mariners are cautioned accordingly.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

(No. 167.)—NORTH SEA.

Heligoland Lighthouse—Danger Signals.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, dated 7th July, 1886, that the light keepers at Heligoland have been instructed to fire a single sound rocket, whenever a vessel off the island is observed by them to be standing into danger, and to repeat the signal at short intervals until the warning is noticed from the vessel.

Mariners are, however, cautioned not to rely implicitly upon this aid to navigation, as the ordinary duties of the light keepers may in some instances prevent them from seeing a vessel in the position described.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 168.)—NORWAY—SOUTH AND SOUTH-WEST COASTS.—LAURVIK FIORD ENTRANCE.

(1.) Svenöer Island Lighthouse—Sector of Red Light.

THE Norwegian Government has given notice, that on 15th July, 1886, a sector of red light would be exhibited from Svenöer Island Lighthouse, eastern side of entrance to Laurvik Fiord:—

This sector of red light is shown over the outer part of Rakkeboerne Shoals, between the bearings of N. $79\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. (leading one cable southward of South Skalberghausen) and S. $87\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. (leading two cables southward of Herregaardsboen, one of the northern patches).

NOTE.—Vessels keeping southward of the sector of red light will pass southward of Rakkeboerne Shoals, with the exception of E. Skalberghausen, which has a depth of twelve fathoms; keeping within the sector of red light, the best depths will be carried over Rakkeboerne Shoals, but these can only be crossed by small vessels, and with smooth water.

(2.) Staværnsö Light—Re-exhibited, with Alteration in Character.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 24 (1), of 28th January, 1886, on the intended temporary discontinuance, and alteration in character of Staværnsö Light, western side of entrance to Laurvik Fiord:—

Further notice has been given, that on 15th July, 1886, the light would be re-exhibited; and is visible between the bearings of N. $56\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ E. (leading four cables eastward of Tvesteen), through north and west, and S. $5\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ W. (leading one cable eastward of Agnes Rock in Laurvik Fiord). It should be seen in clear weather from a distance of eleven miles.

In the fairways the light shows fixed white, in other directions it shows either a flashing light or a fixed red light, in the following manner:—

1. A flashing white light over Rakkeboerne Shoals, from N. 56° E. to N. $2\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ E. (leading one cable eastward of East Skalberghausen).

2. A fixed white light in the channel between Rakkeboerne Shoals and Svenöer, from N. $2\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ E. to N. $31\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W.

3. A fixed red light over Svenöer and Rauör with surrounding shoals, from N. $31\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W. (leading $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables westward of Dybe Svenörskaten) to N. $80\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W. (leading a quarter of a cable northward of Seiboen, and three cables northward of the South-eastern Shoal).

4. A fixed white light in Svenöer Channel, from N. $80\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W. to N. $83\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W.

5. A flashing white light from N. $83\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W. (leading one cable southward of Blyrøva Shoal) to S. $43\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ W. (leading half a cable northward of Sundskjærene in Viks Fiord).

6. A fixed white light from S. $43\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ W. to S. $5\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ W.

EKERSUND ENTRANCE.

(3.) Vibberodden Light—Re-exhibited, with Sector of Flashing Light.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 24 (2), of 28th January, 1886, and previous Notice, on the intended temporary discontinuance, and exhibition of an additional sector of flashing light from Vibberodden Lighthouse, west side of southern entrance to Ekersund:—

Further notice has been given, that on 15th July, 1886, the light would be re-exhibited showing a flashing white light between the bearings of N. $27\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. (nearly over the centre of Skarv Island), and N. $11\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. (leading one cable eastward of Mørra Shoal); and a fixed white light from N. $11\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E., through west, to S. $10\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ W. The light should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 11 miles.

[The bearings are magnetic, and are given from seaward. Variation (1, 2,) $13\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$; (3,) $15\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1886.]

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Foiberby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ninety-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of seven hundred and twenty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Mary, Far Cotton, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising two roods, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the said vicarage as a site for a parsonage or house of residence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Far Cotton, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of seven pounds and four shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Far Cotton, one capital sum of one thousand and eighty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Far Cotton: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of seven pounds and four shillings, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the united benefice of Saint Peter-at-Arches with Saint Benedict, in the city of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same united benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fourteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that from and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fourteen pounds, expressed to be hereby granted, shall be reduced to a yearly sum or stipend of ninety-five pounds: And provided also, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of ninety-five pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said united benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine: And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said united benefice of Saint Peter-at-Arches with Saint Benedict, one capital sum of eighty-five pounds fifteen shillings and eleven pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy under a subsisting mortgage of the said united benefice, which was effected by a deed bearing date the seventeenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for the purpose of enlarging and altering the stables and outbuildings in connection with the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said united benefice of Saint Peter-at-Arches with Saint Benedict.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Martin, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ninety-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our common fund, to the said vicarage of Martin, one capital sum of forty pounds eight shillings and four-pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage of Martin, which was effected by a deed bearing date the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, for the purpose of altering and enlarging the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of ninety-four pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Osbournby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to eighty-two pounds five shillings and sixpence, arising within the township of Foxton-cum-Shotton, in the parish of Sedgfield, in the county and diocese of Durham, and lately forming part of the revenues of the rectory of the said parish of Sedgfield, which said tithe commutation rent-charges have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Stillington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of July, in the same year, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Stillington, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds and fifteen shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising nine hundred and twenty-two square yards, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Christ Church, Wharton, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Christ Church, Wharton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of five pounds and eight shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of West Itchenor, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, one capital sum of three hundred and five pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said rectory of West Itchenor, which was effected by a deed bearing date the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, for the purpose of altering and enlarging the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said rectory.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the city of London, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices; Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the city aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Guildhall-buildings, in that city, on Wednesday, the 28th day of July, 1886, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax for the city of London aforesaid.

Chas. Keith-Falconer.

Thames Conservancy.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames having taken into consideration the objections and representations which have been made to them respecting the proposed Bye-laws for the regulation of the River Thames and the navigation thereof, and lands appertaining thereto between the town of Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, and Teddington Lock, in the county of Middlesex, and persons using the same, which said proposed Bye-laws were published in the London Gazette of the 19th day of March, 1886, and in the Times newspaper of the 20th and the 27th days of March, 1886, have made alterations in, and additions to, the said Bye-laws, and as so altered and added to the said Bye-laws will now stand as follows:—

BYE-LAWS for the Regulation of the River Thames and the Navigation thereof, and Lands appertaining thereto, between the town of Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, and Teddington Lock, in the county of Middlesex, and Persons using the same.

The Conservators of the River Thames, in exercise of the powers and authorities vested in them by the "Thames Acts, 1857 to 1883," and the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," and of every other power and authority them thereunto in anywise enabling, do order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. These Bye-laws may be cited as "The Thames Bye-laws, 1886."

2. These Bye-laws shall come into operation the day after the same are allowed by Her Majesty in Council.

3. These Bye-laws shall extend and apply to any and every part of the River Thames between the town of Cricklade and Teddington Lock, and to all towing-paths, piers, landing-places, locks, and banks thereof, and to all land acquired by the Conservators under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

4. (1.) In these Bye-laws, unless there is something inconsistent in the context, the words and expressions hereinafter mentioned, shall have respectively the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to say:—

"Person" shall include any body of persons, whether corporate or not.

"Vessel" shall mean any ship, lighter, barge, launch, house-boat, boat, sailing boat, punt, wherry, randan, skiff, dingey, shallop, canoe, raft, or craft.

"Pleasure vessel" shall mean any vessel used for pleasure navigation upon the River Thames, whether private or for hire.

"Pleasure navigation" shall mean navigation for any purpose or object other than the mere conveyance of goods, wares, and merchandize.

"Pleasure vessel for hire" shall mean any pleasure vessel let for hire or used, or intended to be used, for any purpose of profit; except such pleasure vessels as are let for hire for a period of not less than four weeks continuously to one and the same person.

"Private pleasure vessel" shall mean any pleasure vessel other than a vessel for hire, and including such as are let for a period of not less than four weeks continuously to one and the same person.

"The River Thames," or "the River," or "the said River," or "the Thames" shall mean and include all and every part of the River Thames through which Thames water flows between the town of Cricklade and Teddington Lock, including all such backwaters, creeks, side-channels, bays, and inlets connected therewith, as form parts of the said River within the limits aforesaid, but excepting the cuts, inlets, and channels specified in section 2 of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

"Conservators" shall mean the Conservators of the River Thames.

"Secretary" shall mean the person for the time being acting as Secretary to the Conservators.

"Due notice" shall mean a notice in writing given by the Conservators, or by any person duly authorized in writing by them to act in their behalf.

"Consent" or "Consent of the Conservators" shall mean consent in writing signed by the Secretary.

"Certificate" shall mean certificate in writing signed by the Secretary.

"License" shall mean license in writing under a dated stamp used by the Conservators, or a license plate issued by the Conservators.

"Officer" shall mean any officer of the Conservators, or any person employed by them, and authorized by writing, under their Common Seal, to carry out the provisions of these Bye-laws, or of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

"Writing" shall include print; and where any document or instrument is referred to as being, or is required to be, in writing, the same may be either in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print.

"The Register" shall mean the general register kept by the Conservators in pursuance of section 7 of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

(2.) In these Bye-laws, unless there is something inconsistent in the context, words importing the masculine gender only shall include females, and words importing the singular only shall include the plural.

5. (1.) Every pleasure vessel used, or intended to be used, upon the River Thames, shall be registered and marked as in these Bye-laws provided.

(2.) No person shall knowingly use, or assist, or be concerned in using, or cause or suffer to be used, upon the River Thames any vessel for pleasure navigation, unless such vessel shall be registered and marked as in these Bye-laws provided.

(3.) No person shall knowingly hire or let for hire, or hold out or offer for hiring, or suffer or permit to be let for hire, for pleasure navigation, any vessel to be used upon the River Thames, or ply for hire with any vessel for pleasure navigation upon the River Thames, unless the same shall be registered and marked as in these Bye-laws provided.

(4.) This Bye-law shall not apply to steam launches required to be registered under or by virtue of the "Thames Act, 1883," nor to any vessel required to be registered under or by virtue of the "Thames Fishery Bye-laws, 1883."

House-Boats.

6. (1.) Every person applying to the Conservators for registration of a house-boat shall furnish to the Conservators in writing, upon a form to be obtained at the office of the Conservators, 41, Trinity-square, Tower Hill, London, or from such of the officers or servants of the Conservators as may be from time to time supplied with such forms, correct information as to the particulars following, that is to say:—

(a.) The length from head to stern of such house-boat.

(b.) The true name and usual residence of the owner thereof.

(2.) At the time of making such application for registration, the applicant shall pay to the Conservators the sums following, that is to say:—

(a.) For every house-boat not exceeding 30 feet in length the sum of five pounds.

(b.) For every house-boat exceeding 30 feet in length the sum of five pounds, and in addition thereto the further sum of two shillings for every complete six inches of length by which such house-boat shall exceed 30 feet in length.

(c.) House-boats kept stationary throughout the year and used only for purposes in connection with boating, such as for dressing places or store rooms for boats' gear, shall pay one pound one shilling annually in lieu of the payments fixed by articles (a), (b), such reduced payments to be at the discretion of the Conservators.

(d.) House-boats kept by boat owners and boat builders to be let for hire shall be exempt from payment of registration fees, if neither let nor used during the year.

3. The Secretary may, if he shall think fit, before accepting any such application for registration of any house-boat, require such house-boat to be measured by such person in the employment of the Conservators as he shall think fit.

(4.) Upon registration a number shall be appropriated by the Conservators to each house-boat, and such number, together with the length of such house-boat, and the full name and address of the owner thereof, and the date of registration, shall be entered in the Register.

(5.) Upon registration of any house-boat there shall be furnished to the person registering the same a license containing the name in full and the residence of the owner, the register number, and the date of such registration, and such other particulars as the Conservators shall think fit.

(6.) The registration of and license for every house-boat shall become void immediately upon the expiration of twelve calendar months from the date of registration, but may be renewed in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(7.) Every house-boat registered under these Bye-laws shall have painted upon each bow and upon each quarter thereof either the register number or the name thereof, subject to such conditions as the Conservators may require.

Private Pleasure Vessels other than House-Boats and Steam Launches.

7. (1.) Every person applying to the Conservators for registration of any private pleasure vessel other than a house-boat or steam launch, shall furnish to the Conservators in writing, upon a form to be obtained as in the first sub-section of the last preceding Bye-law mentioned, correct information as to the particulars following, that is to say:—

(a.) The true name and usual residence of the owner thereof.

(b.) The number of such private pleasure vessels belonging to such owner.

(c.) The class to which each of such private pleasure vessels belongs, as, for example, skiff or sculling boat, pair-oar, four-oar, eight-oar, canoe, or punt, or otherwise, as the case may be.

(2.) At the time of making such application for registration the applicant shall pay to the Conservators the sum of two shillings and sixpence for every such vessel.

(3.) Upon registration there shall be appropriated by the Conservators to the owner of every such vessel a number, to be called the owner's number, and such number shall be entered in the Register, together with the date of registration, and shall be appropriated to such person in respect of every such vessel which shall be registered in his name.

(4.) Upon registration of every such vessel there shall be furnished to the person registering the same a certificate, containing the name in full and residence of the registered owner, and the owner's number and the date of such registration, and such other particulars as the Conservators shall think fit.

(5.) The registration of and certificate for every such vessel shall become void immediately upon the expiration of thirty-six calendar months from the date of registration, but may be renewed in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(6.) Every such vessel shall have fixed, in a conspicuous place inside such vessel, a plate with the registered number of the owner, such plate to be made in accordance with a pattern approved by the Conservators.

On registration, numbered plates may be obtained at the Conservators' office, at the cost price of one shilling and four pence for each plate.

Pleasure Vessels for Hire other than House-Boats and Steam Launches.

8. (1.) Every person applying to the Conservators for registration of any pleasure vessel for hire, other than a house-boat or steam launch, shall furnish to the Conservators in writing, upon a form to be obtained as in the first sub-section of Bye-law 7 mentioned, correct information as to the particulars following, that is to say:—

(a.) The true name and usual residence of the owner thereof.

(b.) The number of such pleasure vessels for hire belonging to such owner.

(c.) The class to which each of such vessels belongs, as, for example, skiff or sculling boat, pair-oar, four-oar, eight-oar, canoe or punt, or otherwise, as the case may be.

(2.) At the time of making such application for registration, the applicant shall pay to the Conservators the sum of two shillings and six pence for every such vessel.

(3.) Upon registration there shall be appropriated by the Conservators to the owner of every such vessel a number, to be called the owner's number, and such number shall be entered in the Register, together with the date of registration, and shall be appropriated to such person in respect of every such vessel which shall be registered in his name.

(4.) There shall also at such time be appropriated by the Conservators to every such vessel a number, to be called the vessel's number, and a separate number shall be appropriated to every such vessel, and shall be entered in the Register.

(5.) Upon registration of any such vessel there shall be furnished to the person registering the same, a license containing the name in full and the residence of the owner, the owner's number, the vessel's number, and the date of such registration, and such other particulars as the Conservators shall think fit.

(6.) The registration of and license for every such vessel for hire, shall become void immediately upon the expiration of thirty-six calendar months from the date of registration, but may be renewed in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(7.) Every such vessel shall be marked in one of the modes following, viz:—

(a.) By having painted or placed on the outside of each bow the owner's and vessel's numbers, such numbers to be in black figures, two-and-a-half inches long, and proportionately thick, or

(b.) By having fixed upon the outside of each bow a license-plate of an oval shape not less than four inches by three inches;

Such plates will be furnished by the Conservators on payment of the sum of one shilling and four pence for each plate.

Rowing Boats and Canoes belonging to Rowing Clubs and Canoe Clubs.

9. (1.) The members of any rowing club or canoe club may apply to the Conservators to register the club colours, badge, or mark, as the distinctive mark of rowing boats or canoes belonging to such club, and by these Bye-laws required to be registered.

(2.) Every such application shall be in writing and signed by the secretary of such club, or other authorized person, and shall specify particularly:—

(a.) The name and head-quarters of such club.

(b.) The name and description of every rowing boat or canoe used upon the Thames, and at the time of such application owned by such club.

(c.) The colours, badge, or mark used by such club, and where proposed to be painted or placed on the rowing boats or canoes, or on the oars or paddles thereof.

(3.) The Conservators may, if they shall think fit, and subject to such conditions (if any) as they shall think fit, register such club, colour, badge, or mark.

(4.) The Conservators may, in their absolute discretion, refuse any such application, whether in respect of any particular club, colour, badge, or mark, or in respect of any club generally.

(5.) The Conservators may at any time, if they shall think fit to do so, cancel any such registration.

(6.) Every such registration shall become void immediately upon the expiration of thirty-six calendar months from the date of registration, but may be renewed in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(7.) Every such rowing boat or canoe shall be marked in such manner as the Conservators may from time to time determine, by notice in writing by their Secretary.

Sailing Boats belonging to Members of Sailing Clubs.

10. (1.) The members of any sailing club may apply to the Conservators to register a burgee as the distinctive mark of sailing boats belonging to members of such club, and by these Bye-laws required to be registered.

(2.) Every such application shall be in writing and signed by the secretary of such club, or other person authorised in that behalf, and shall specify particularly:—

(a.) The name and address of every member of such club.

(b.) The name and description of every sailing boat used upon the Thames owned by every such member.

(3.) The Conservators may, if they shall think fit, and subject to such conditions (if any) as they shall think fit, register such burgee.

(4.) The Conservators may, in their absolute discretion, refuse any such application, whether in respect of any particular burgee, or in respect of any club generally.

(5.) The Conservators may at any time, if they shall think fit to do so, cancel any such registration.

(6.) Every such registration shall become void immediately upon the expiration of thirty-six calendar months from the date of registration, but may be renewed in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(7.) The owner of every such sailing boat shall also cause such sailing boat to be registered under these Bye-laws as a private pleasure vessel, but such sailing boat shall not be required to be marked otherwise than as is hereinafter specified, that is to say:—

(8.) Such sailing boat shall be distinguished by flying the registered burgee of the club, and by having her name painted horizontally across the stern thereof in white or gilt letters of a block character, not less than two-and-a-half inches in length and proportionately thick. Provided always, that nothing in this Bye-law contained shall exempt the owner of any sailing boat which shall not be registered and marked in accordance therewith, from having the same registered and marked in accordance with such of the provisions of Bye-laws 7 and 8 as may be applicable thereto.

General.

11. Every person applying to the Conservators for renewal of the registration of or license for any vessel, shall furnish the same information and make the same payments as are hereinbefore prescribed with reference to the first registration or license, and every such renewed registration or license shall have effect for twelve calendar months, or for three years, as the case may be, from the date thereof, and no longer, but may again be renewed in like manner.

12. (1.) Upon every transfer of the ownership of any vessel registered under these Bye-laws, the person becoming the owner thereof shall forthwith give to the Conservators notice in writing of such transfer, and the Conservators shall thereupon, without charge, grant to him a fresh certificate or license, as the case may be, for the period for which the existing certificate or license shall be unexpired, and shall cause his name to be inserted in the Register in the place of that of the former owner, and until such notice shall have been given, the former owner shall for all the purposes of the "Thames Acts, 1857 to 1883," and the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," and of these Bye-laws, and of all other Bye-laws, rules, orders, and regulations of the Conservators for the time being in force, be deemed to be the owner of such vessel.

(2.) Upon every such transfer of ownership the person previously registered as the owner of such vessel shall return to the Conservators at their office, 41, Trinity-square, Tower Hill, London, the certificate or license, as the case may be, for the time being in force in respect of such vessel.

(3.) Immediately upon the granting of a fresh certificate or license, under the provisions of subsection (1) of this Bye-law, the certificate or license previously in force in respect of the same vessel shall become void.

(4.) From and after the granting of such fresh certificate or license, the person to whom the same is granted shall have the vessel, in respect of which the same is granted, marked as if such fresh certificate or license were the first certificate or license in respect of such vessel.

13. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing Bye-laws contained, it shall be lawful for the Conservators if, in the case of any particular vessel, they shall think fit by writing under the hand of their Secretary to require or sanction the marking of any vessel in some manner different from that required under the foregoing Bye-laws, and in such case such vessel shall be marked according to such writing.

(2.) All names, numbers, or other distinctive marks or things by these Bye-laws required to be placed or kept in, upon, or about any vessel, shall be placed in a conspicuous position, and if outside the vessel above the water-line, and shall be kept and maintained by the respective owners of every such vessel in a cleanly and plainly distinguishable condition, and to the satisfaction of the Conservators or their officers.

(3.) No person shall knowingly conceal, or cause or suffer to be concealed, any name, number, or other distinctive mark or thing by these Bye-laws required to be kept in, upon, or about any vessel.

(4.) No person shall display, or cause or suffer to be displayed, upon or about any vessel by these Bye-laws required to be registered, any number other than is required by these Bye-laws.

(5.) Every license or certificate of registration when issued shall be subject to the condition that the owner or other person in charge of the vessel to which the same relates shall, on demand, either produce the license or show the license plate, or owner's or vessel's number, club, colour, burgee, badge, mark or name, as the case may be, to any officer of the Conservators, to any Proctor of the University of Oxford, any Marshall, or officer acting under any such Proctor, any officer or constable of the Metropolitan Police, and to any police officer or constable acting for any of the counties of Surrey, Berkshire, Wiltshire, Gloucester, Oxford, Buckingham, or Middlesex, or the city of Oxford, or any other borough, the police jurisdiction of which extends to any place upon the River Thames within the limits aforesaid.

(6.) The owner or other person in charge of every vessel on the Thames, shall obey and conform to the directions of every officer of the Conservators, and of every person for the time being in the employ of the Conservators, who shall have been sworn in as a police constable under section 25 of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

(7.) No house-boat or steam launch shall lie or loiter in any part of the River Thames from time to time marked off by the Conservators, or defined by notice given by the Conservators, or by notice boards set up by them as being a part of the river in which no house-boat or steam launch shall lie or loiter: Provided always, that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any vessel from remaining during any regatta, boat-race, procession or other special occasion, at such place, and for such a length of time as may be sanctioned by the Conservators, or any of their officers.

14. (1.) No person shall, while using, or while in, upon, or about the River Thames, or the banks or towpaths thereof, or any land acquired by the Conservators, by virtue of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," do, or cause, or incite any other person to do, any of the acts specified in the following sub-sections of this Bye-law.

(2.) Commit any offence against decency, or be otherwise disorderly.

(3.) Use obscene, scandalous, abusive, indecent, or improper language, to the annoyance of any person who shall lawfully be using, or who shall lawfully be in, upon, or about the River Thames, or the banks or towpaths thereof, or any land belonging to or acquired by the Conservators.

(4.) Bathe without proper bathing dress or drawers, unless properly screened from view.

(5.) Bathe or prepare to bathe at any place where or between any hours when bathing is for the time being prohibited by the Conservators.

(6.) Do any act which may cause danger to any person or property, or occasion a nuisance, obstruction, or annoyance to the public or to any person.

(7.) Commit any trespass upon any dwelling-house bordering upon or near to the river, or in anywise coming within the description of a riparian dwelling-house, or upon any curtilage or garden belonging to such dwelling-house.

(8.) Navigate or be concerned in navigating, or be in, upon, or about any of the places specified in sub-section 1 of this Bye-law, whilst in a state of intoxication.

(9.) Cast or throw into, or upon, or place, or cause or suffer to fall or flow into or upon any of the places specified in sub-section 1 of this Bye-law, any sewage, rubbish, or other offensive matter or thing.

(10.) Destroy or injure any flowering or other plant, or any shrub, vegetation, tree, wood, or underwood.

(11.) Light, maintain, throw down, place or leave any fire, or any flaming, smouldering or burning substance, matter or thing, in any place where the same may cause any danger or damage to property of any kind or reasonable annoyance to any person.

(12.) Kill, injure, take, catch or trap, or attempt to kill, injure, take, catch or trap any bird, or the young of any bird or animal: Provided always, that this sub-section shall not extend to prevent any person employed by the Conservators, or acting under the consent of the Conservators, from killing vermin, or shall affect any right of fowling, shooting, hunting, or sporting, existing on the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(13.) Take, destroy, search for, or disturb the nest of any bird.

(14.) Destroy, injure, disturb, or take out of, or remove from the nest, whether permanently or temporarily, the egg of any bird.

(15.) Move, injure, or deface any notice, notice board, work, or thing whatsoever, the property or in charge of the Conservators, or set up by them or with their consent.

(16.) Do any act injuriously affecting the safety or amenity of the river.

15. Any person guilty of any act or default in contravention of any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding, forty shillings, and any person who shall after due notice repeat or continue any such act or default, shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds.

16. Provided always, that nothing in these Bye-laws shall be construed to in anywise prejudice or prejudicially affect any remedy of the Conservators now existing, or shall interfere with or diminish any powers of the Conservators, or shall be construed to deprive any riparian owner of any legal rights in the soil or bed of the river which he may at the time of the passing of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," have possessed, or of any legal remedies which he may then have had for preventing the anchoring, mooring, loitering or delay of any vessel, or to give any riparian owner any right as against the public which he did not possess before the passing of the said Act, to exclude any person from entering upon or navigating any back-water, creek, channel, bay, inlet, or other water, whether deemed to be part of the River Thames, as in the said Act defined or not, or shall be construed to render dispunishable or punishable, in any less manner or degree, any act or default now by law punishable.
