By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council of this day's date We were graciously pleased to annul, from and after the thirtieth day of September next, Our Royal Proclamation of the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, regulating, according to the scheme set forth therein or recognized thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs, and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of pirates and piratical vessels, and of the rewards conferred for the same, as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of Our ships and vessels of war, when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances, and in consequence of certain alterations in the apportionment and classification of the shares being desirable, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared among the officers and crews of Our ships and vessels in the manner of prize money.

We do, therefore, now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Royal will and pleasure is, and We do hereby direct, that ships or vessels being in sight of a prize, as also of the captor, under circumstances to cause intimidation to the prize and encouragement to the captor, shall be alone entitled to share as joint captors, and that the distribution of all such net proceeds of prizes, rewards, allowances, salvage awards, and of all bounties and grants whatsoever distributable to Our Royal Navy in the manner of prize money, shall be made as follows, viz. :—

That the flag officer or officers shall have one thirtieth part of the whole net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy, and from all other captures and seizures, &c., as aforesaid, made by any of the ships or vessels under his or their command, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the following conditions and modifications, save and except as hereinafter provided and directed, that is to say :—

When there is but one flag officer, he shall have the entire one thirtieth part; when two flag officers shall be sharing together, the chief shall have two thirds, and the other flag officer shall have the remaining one third of the one thirtieth part; and when there shall be more than two flag officers, the chief shall have one half of the said one thirtieth part, and the remaining half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers; commodores of the first class and captains of the fleet to share as flag officers; Provided always, that no flag officer, unless actually on board any of Our ships or vessels of war, and at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any ship or ships of war, privateer or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall share in the distribution of any head money or bounty money granted as a reward for the taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any such ship or vessel of the enemy.

That no flag officer, unless actually present at the capture or destruction of any pirates or piratical ship, vessel, or boat shall share in any distribution of the proceeds or bounty in respect of such pirates, or of the crews of such piratical ship, vessel, or boat.

That no flag officer shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded to the crew of any of Our ships or vessels as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided and assisted in the transaction at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in any port in the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of any prize captured from the enemy, or in other captures, seizures, rewards, or any distributive proceeds as aforesaid, made by any ships or vessels which shall sail from or leave such port by order of the Lord High Admiral, or of Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers belonging to separate stations, shall be joint captors, &c., each flag officer shall receive a proportion of the one thirtieth part according to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer; and when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral or from Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, are joint captors, &c., with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, the like regulations as to the apportionment of the flag share to the flag officer or officers are to be observed.

With reference to flag officers it is to be noted:—

That when an inferior flag officer is sent to reinforce a superior officer on any station, the superior flag officer shall not share in any prize taken by the inferior flag officer before he has arrived within the limits of that station, unless the inferior officer shall have received some order directly from, and shall be acting in execution of some order issued by, such superior flag officer.

No chief flag officer quitting any station, except upon some definite urgent service, and with the intention of returning to the station as soon as such service is performed, shall share in any prize taken by Our ships or vessels left behind after he has passed the limits of the station, or after he has surrendered the command to another flag officer appointed by the Admiralty to command in chief upon such station.

An inferior flag officer quitting any station (except when detached by orders from his Commander-in-Chief upon a special service, accompanied with orders to return to such station as soon as the service has been performed), shall have no share in prizes taken by the ships and vessels remaining on the station after he has passed the limits thereof.

In like manner flag officers remaining on such station shall not share in the prizes taken by such inferior officer, or by ships or vessels under his immediate command, after he has quitted the limits of the station, except he has been detached as aforesaid.

A Commander-in-Chief or other flag officer belonging to any station shall not share in any prize or prizes taken out of the limits of that station by any ship or vessel under the command of a flag officer of any other station, or under orders from Our Commissioners of the Admiralty, unless such Commander-in-Chief or flag officer is expressly authorized by Our said Commissioners to take the command of that station in which the prize or prizes is or are taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such command.

Every commodore having a captain under him shall be esteemed a flag officer with respect to the thirtieth part of prizes taken, whether he be commanding-in-chief or serving under command.

Any officer on board any of Our ships of war at the time of capturing any prize or prizes who shall have more commissions than one shall be entitled only to share in such prize or prizes according to the share allotted to him by the above-mentioned distribution in respect to his superior commission or office.

And with reference to these regulations it is to be noted, that a captain, commander, or other commanding officer of a ship or vessel shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag when he shall actually have received some order from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by a flag officer, whether he be or be not within the limits of the station of such flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, which circumstance is always to be carefully noted in the log book; and it shall be considered that he continues under the flag officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by some other flag officer duly authorized, or by the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

Every commodore of the second class shall share as captain.

And We hereby direct, that the captain, commander, lieutenant commanding, staff commander commanding, navigating lieutenant commanding, or any other officer duly commanding any ship or vessel of war, singly making a capture or seizure, or otherwise entitled to the distributive benefit arising from any proceeds, reward, grant, bounty, salvage, or other award as aforesaid, that is to say, the officer actually in command at the time, shall have one tenth of the remainder, or if there is no flag officer to share, one tenth of the entire net proceeds, except that if the single capturing ship be a rated ship having a commander under the captain the commander shall take a portion of the one tenth part according to the proportion hereinafter set forth; and if more than one commanding officer of the same rank of command shall be entitled to share as joint captors, &c., the one tenth shall be equally divided between them; but when captains, commanders, lieutenants, staff commanders, and navigating lieutenants commanding, respectively, Our ships and vessels of war, and commanders under captains in rated ships, shall share together in whatever variety of combination, the one tenth shall be so divided into parts for a graduated apportionment as to provide for each captain receiving six parts; each commander commanding, or commander under the captain in a rated ship, three parts; and each lieutenant commanding, staff commander commanding, or navigating lieutenant commanding, or other officer actually commanding a vessel of war, two parts; which We hereby direct shall be the proportion in which they shall respectively share; colonel of marines (artillery or light infantry), or of land forces serving as marines, doing duty with a battalion or force employed on shore for naval operations to share as captains; lieutenant-colonel of marines (artillery or light infantry) or of land forces serving as marines employed on shore for naval operations, if in actual command of a battalion or force to share as commanders. And We further direct, that after provision shall thus have been made for the flag share (if any), and for the portion of the commanding officer or officers and others as above specified, the remainder of the net proceeds shall be distributed in eleven classes, so that each officer, man, and boy composing the rest of the complements of Our ships and vessels of war, and actually on board or absent on duty in a prize (who it is Our will and pleasure shall be the only absentees entitled to share), at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c., as aforesaid, and every person present and assisting, shall receive shares, or a share, according to his class, as set forth in the following scale:—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Mevagissey, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mevagissey is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Henry Frederick Wilkinson of Lis Escop, Truro, in the county of Cornwall Esquire and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Henry Frederick Wilkinson is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mevagissey now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Truro.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Howard now Bishop of the said diocese of Truro is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said George Howard Bishop of the said diocese of Truro has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a certain sum has been paid over to us in augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Mevagissey but upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas under these circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Mevagissey which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Mevagissey.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Frederick Wilkinson (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said George Howard Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Mevagissey, now vested in him the said Henry Frederick Wilkinson and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to the said George Howard Bishop of the said diocese of Truro, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Howard Bishop of the said diocese of Truro, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty chapter fifty-seven duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eight and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-seven which Acts are known as 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts' have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Cowley in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London out of the revenues of the vicarage of the parish of Hillingdon in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the thirtieth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and published in the London Gazette on the second day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, a certain portion of the said parish of Hillingdon was for ecclesiastical purposes severed from that parish and annexed to the said parish of Cowley.

"And whereas the annual value of the said vicarage of Hillingdon has been improved under and by virtue of a certain lease of brick-earth under a portion of the glebe lands belonging to the said vicarage bearing date the fourteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two which was under the authority of the said Acts granted with the concurrence of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners by the Reverend Richard Croft Clerk in Holy Orders, the then vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage to the lessee named in such lease subject to certain rents and reservations in the same lease specified.

"And whereas certain sums of money have been under the provisions of the said lease received by us on account of the rents and royalties reserved under the same lease.

"And whereas the monies so paid to us as aforesaid have been invested from time to time in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Acts in the purchase of four thousand five hundred and forty-seven pounds nine shillings and ten pence three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities or thereabouts which said Consolidated Bank Annuities are held by us in trust to pay over to the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Hillingdon the annual interest or dividends from time to time arising from the same but subject nevertheless to the provisions contained in the said Acts with respect to making a certain portion of the improved value arising to the vicarage of Hillingdon aforesaid payable to us for the benefit of our common fund or for the purpose of making better provision than now exists for the cure of souls within the original limits of the said parish of Hillingdon.

"And whereas after making payable to or for the benefit of the incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Cowley aforesaid such portion as is hereinafter mentioned of the improved value which has arisen as aforesaid to the said vicarage of Hillingdon from the granting of the said lease the average annual income of the said vicarage of Hillingdon will not be left at a less sum than six hundred pounds.

"And whereas the Reverend John Harries Thomas, Clerk in Holy Orders, is now the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of Hillingdon, and is desirous that we should submit to Your Majesty in Council the recommendation and proposal hereinafter set forth.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme the yearly sum of fifty pounds part of the annual interest or dividends arising from the Consolidated Bank Annuities so held by us as aforesaid shall be payable and paid by us to or for the benefit of the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of the parish of Cowley aforesaid and that no part of the sum of Consolidated Bank Annuities producing the said annual interest or dividends of fifty pounds shall be hereafter so dealt with by us as to prejudice the right or prospective right of the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of the parish of Cowley aforesaid to receive the same annual interest or dividends as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbeforementioned Acts been given to the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Hillingdon and the said Bishop has signified his assent to the said scheme.
