

(SWINE-FEVER.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of August, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The following Area (namely),—the borough of West Bromwich,—which was declared by Order of Council dated the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to be an Area infected with swine-fever, is hereby declared to be free from swine-fever, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of August, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Orders dated respectively the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and the fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, defining parts of the Port of Glasgow as Foreign Animals Wharves: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Orders, or either of them, before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Orders, or either of them.

(PORT OF GLASGOW.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of August, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Glasgow as a Foreign Animals Wharf:

All that space in the port and burgh of Glasgow, being part of the wharf and depôt of the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation, known as the Yorkhill Wharf, one portion of which space is situate on the south-east side of the Ferry-road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-east side of the said Ferry-road where the same is intersected by the water-edge of the said Wharf; thence passing in a south-easterly direction for a distance of three hundred and seventy-seven feet six inches or thereabouts along the coping which forms the water-edge of the said Wharf; thence running north-east along a line at right angles to the said coping for a distance of fifty-four feet nine inches or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence; thence passing in a south-easterly direction along a line at right angles to the last described boundary and parallel with the said coping for a distance of one hundred and thirty-eight feet five inches or thereabouts; thence running north-east along a line at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of one hundred and twenty feet or thereabouts to a point on the south-west side of the Pointhouse-road; thence passing in a north-westerly direction for a distance of four hundred and fifty-one feet two inches or thereabouts along the south-west boundary of the said Pointhouse-road to a point where it meets the south-east boundary of the said Ferry-road; and thence south-west along the south-east boundary of the said Ferry-road for a distance of one hundred and eighty-six feet six inches or thereabouts to the point of departure first described: and the other portion of which space is situate on the south-west side of the said Pointhouse-road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-west side of the said Pointhouse-road distant eight hundred and six feet or thereabouts south-east from the junction of the said Pointhouse-road with the said Ferry-road; thence passing in a south-westerly direction at right angles to the said Pointhouse-road for a distance of one hundred and nineteen feet eleven inches or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence; thence running south-east along a wooden fence at right angles to the last described boundary for a distance of one hundred and thirty-seven feet two inches or thereabouts; thence running south-west along a wooden fence for a distance of fifty-five feet or thereabouts till it intersects the water-edge of the Wharf; thence in a south-easterly direction for a distance of three hundred and eighty-six feet three inches or thereabouts along the coping which forms the water-edge of the said Wharf; thence in a north-easterly direction along a wooden fence at right angles to the last mentioned boundary for a distance of two hundred and three feet ten inches or thereabouts to a point on the south-west side of the said Pointhouse-road; thence passing in a north-westerly direction for a distance of five hundred and twenty-eight feet nine inches or thereabouts along the south-west boundary of the said Pointhouse-road to the point of departure first described, together with an overhead Gangway which connects the two portions of the space herein described, such Gangway being six hundred and seventy feet in length commencing at a point one hundred and eighty-five feet westward from the extreme eastern boundary of the portion of the space first described, and terminating at a point one hundred and thirty feet eastward from the extreme western boundary of the portion of the space secondly described; all which space, consisting of such two portions and connecting Gangway, is coloured pink on the plan thereof deposited for the purposes of this Order at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the burgh of Glasgow.
