FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1886.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of August, 1886.

PRESENT :

Lord President.
Sir Henry Holland, Bart.

WHEREAS it is provided by section eight of the Medical Act 1886 that the election of Members of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom representing the registered medical practitioners resident in the several parts of the United Kingdom (in the said section and in this Order referred to as "direct representatives") shall (subject as in the said section mentioned) be conducted in such manner as may be provided by Regulations to be made by the Privy Council.

And whereas it is further provided by the said section that for the purpose of the first election of direct representatives the Returning Officer shall, in the course of such period of seven days (ending not later than the fifteenth day of November next succeeding the passing of the said Act) as the Privy Council may appoint issue his precept as in the said section mentioned to the Branch Council in each part of the United Kingdom.

Now therefore in pursuance of the said section eight of the Medical Act, 1886, their Lordships have made the Regulations contained in the schedule to this Order, and do hereby order and direct that all elections of direct representatives shall be conducted in accordance with the said Regulations.

And their Lordships do hereby further order and direct that for the purpose of the first election of direct representatives the Returning Officer shall in the course of the period of seven days ending with the thirteenth day of November next, issue his precept to the Branch Council in each part of the United Kingdom as required by the said section.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS for the conduct of Elections under section eight of the Medical Act, 1886.

1. The returning officer shall fix the last day on which nomination papers are to be sent in, and at least fourteen days before the day so fixed shall cause a notice of the election to be published, specifying the number of persons to be elected, the place where the nomination papers are to be sent in, and the last day on which they are to be sent in.

The notice shall be published in two or more newspapers circulating in the part of the United Kingdom in which the election is to be held, and shall be, as nearly as may be, in the form marked A in the appendix to these regulations, or to the like effect.

2. Before the last day fixed for the sending in of nomination papers, the returning officer shall issue his precept to the branch council for that part of the United Kingdom in which the election is to be held requiring the said branch council to cause a representative or representatives to be elected by the registered medical practitioners resident in that part of the United Kingdom within twenty-one days after the receipt of the said precept.

The said precept shall be as nearly as may be in the form marked B in the appendix to these regulations, or to the like effect, and shall be sent, by post or otherwise, to the registrar of the said branch council.

3. Each candidate for election shall be nominated by a separate nomination paper signed by not fewer than twelve registered medical practitioners resident in that part of the United Kingdom in which the election is to be held.

4. Every nomination paper shall state the name, address, and registered qualification or qualifications of the person nominated, and also the addresses and registered qualifications of the persons signing such paper, and shall be, as nearly as may be, in the form marked C in the appendix to these regulations, or to the like effect.

5. Any person entitled to vote at the election may sign the nomination paper of a candidate or of any number of candidates not exceeding the number to be elected.

6. Every nomination paper shall, on or before the last day fixed for the sending in of nomination papers be delivered by post or otherwise at the appointed place, and shall be accompanied by a declaration in writing signed by the person nominated, acknowledging that such person consents to be nominated.

7. If the number of persons so nominated as aforesaid does not exceed the number to be elected, such persons (if duly qualified) shall be deemed to be elected, and shall be so certified in writing by the branch council to the returning officer.

8. If the number so nominated exceeds the number to be elected, the branch council of the part of the United Kingdom in which the election is to be held shall cause voting papers to be prepared, containing the names, addresses, and registered qualifications of all the persons nominated, and stating the last day on which voting papers may be returned, and the place to which they are to be returned.

Voting papers shall be as nearly as may be in the form marked D in the appendix to these regulations, or to the like effect.

9. The branch council shall, seven days at least before the last day fixed for the return of voting papers, cause a voting paper to be forwarded by post to each registered medical practitioner resident in the part of the United Kingdom in which the election is held, at his registered address. Each voter shall be entitled to receive one voting paper and no more; and votes shall not be given except upon the voting papers provided by the branch council.

10. Each voter shall write his initials in the voting paper delivered to him against the name or names of the person or persons (not exceeding the number of persons to be elected) for whom he intends to vote, and shall sign such voting paper, and shall append to his signature his address and registered qualification or qualifications; and such voting paper shall be returned by post or otherwise, to the appointed place, on or before the last day fixed for the return of voting papers. Every voting paper in respect of which any requirement of this regulation has not been complied with, or which is not received at the appointed place on or before the last day fixed for the return of voting papers, shall be invalid.

11. The branch council, immediately after the last day fixed for the return of voting papers, shall cause the validity of the votes to be ascertained by an examination of the medical register and by such other evidence (if any) as they may think necessary, and shall cause such of the votes as are found to be valid, and to have been duly returned, to be counted, and the number of such votes given for each candidate to be ascertained.

12. The candidate, or the candidates to the number to be elected, who being duly qualified has or have received the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed to be elected, and shall be so certified in writing by the branch council to the returning officer.

13. The returning officer shall forthwith give to every person certified by the branch council to be elected notice of his election.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to ninety pounds three shillings and five pence, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Trentham, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Trentham, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, titles, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Bartholomew, within the Parish of Thurstaston, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Chester, and in the Diocese of Chester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Thurstaston, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Bartholomew.

And whereas the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and Messieurs Garnett and Tarbet, of Liverpool, Solicitors, acting as Solicitors for and by direction of Agnes Kennard, wife of Captain Edmund Hegan Kennard, of Number 5, Seamore-place, May Fair, in the county of Middlesex (which said Agnes Kennard is the patron for the next turn only of the rectory of the said parish of Thurstaston, and was then residing beyond seas), and the Reverend Temple Hillyard, Clerk in Holy Orders, Canon and Vice-Dean of the Cathedral Church of Chester, and as such Vice-Dean acting (the Deanery of the Cathedral Church being then vacant) on behalf of the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church, who are the patrons, otherwise than as aforesaid, of the same rectory, and the Reverend Francis Edward Thurland, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of the parish of Thurstaston as aforesaid, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the ninth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Thurstaston that the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Bartholomew) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and of the said Agnes Kennard, and of the Very Reverend John Lionel Darby, now Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, and the Chapter of the same church, and of the said Francis Edward Thurland, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, situate within the said parish of Thurstaston, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Bartholomew as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Thurstaston in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Bartholomew, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Bartholomew as aforesaid) of the said parish of Thurstaston, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Bartholomew (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Thurstaston) and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Agnes Kennard has set her hand and seal, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chester have affixed their common or capitular seal, and the said Francis Edward Thurland has set his hand and seal this eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Easton, Edward ... ..	11, Delahay-street, Westminster ... ..	Engineer ... ..	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	1303 of 1885	Aug. 27, 1886 ...	All the property of the debtor, other than his share in the business of an Engineer, to vest in a Trustee, to be administered, together with the money received by him as hereinafter provided, as nearly as may be according to the law of bankruptcy. All profits made by the debtor, in whatever capacity, to be received by the Trustee, who shall pay to the debtor the sum of £1,000 in each year out of the profits of that year by equal quarterly payments. And, subject to the payments aforesaid, shall administer the money so received as part of the property of the debtor hereby vested in the Trustee. Provided, that when the sum of £10,000, after deducting payments to the debtor, shall under this clause have been received by the Trustee for administration, the Trustee shall cease to receive any further share of profits or to have any claim in respect thereof. Debtor to assist in the realization and administration of his property and do all things required by the Trustee for enabling him to receive the property of the debtor, and his share of the said profits, and shall, if required by the Trustee, from time to time verify by affidavit the amount of the said share of profits, and furnish all particulars necessary for ascertaining and vouching the same. Until £3,000 has been received from the debtor, Mr. J. A. M. Cope is to be at liberty to hold or realize the furniture and effects mentioned in the bill of sale referred to in the statement of affairs, but he shall retain the furniture, or the proceeds thereof, without prejudice to any question that may be raised as to the validity of such bill of sale. When £3,000 has been received, the bill of sale is to be considered as valid. Preferential debts and costs, charges, and expenses to be paid by the Trustee. This scheme to be accepted by the creditors in satisfaction of their debts, and the approval by the Court to operate in the same manner as an Order of Discharge in Bankruptcy. Mr. William Henry Elliott, of 11, Queen Victoria-street, Chartered Accountant, to be the Trustee under this scheme of arrangement, and within fourteen days after approval by the Court, to give security to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, and obtain from the Board a certificate of his appointment. The Trustee is to act under the superintendence of a Committee of Inspection, who are also to determine the amount of his remuneration. The Receiving Order is rescinded.
