INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Bartholomew, within the Parish of Thurstaston, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Chester, and in the Diocese of Chester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Thurstaston, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Bartholomew.

And whereas the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and Messieurs Garnett and Tarbet, of Liverpool, Solicitors, acting as Solicitors for and by direction of Agnes Kennard, wife of Captain Edmund Hegan Kennard, of Number 5, Seamore-place, May Fair, in the county of Middlesex (which said Agnes Kennard is the patron for the next turn only of the rectory of the said parish of Thurstaston, and was then residing beyond seas), and the Reverend Temple Hillyard, Clerk in Holy Orders, Canon and Vice-Dean of the Cathedral Church of Chester, and as such Vice-Dean acting (the Deanery of the Cathedral Church being then vacant) on behalf of the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church, who are the patrons, otherwise than as aforesaid, of the same rectory, and the Reverend Francis Edward Thurland, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of the parish of Thurstaston as aforesaid, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the ninth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Thurstaston that the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Bartholomew) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, and of the said Agnes Kennard, and of the Very Reverend John Lionel Darby, now Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, and the Chapter of the same church, and of the said Francis Edward Thurland, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, situate within the said parish of Thurstaston, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Bartholomew as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Thurstaston in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Bartholomew, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Bartholomew, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Bartholomew as aforesaid) of the said parish of Thurstaston, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Bartholomew (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Thurstaston) and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.
