TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1886.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Saturday, September 25, 1886.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM glad to be able to release you from your arduous duties.

My relations with Foreign Powers continue to be friendly.

The mutiny of a portion of the Bulgarian army has led to the abdication of Prince Alexander. A Regency has been established, which is now administering the affairs of the Principality, and preparations are being made for the election of his successor, in accordance with the provisions of the Treaty of Berlin.

In answer to a communication addressed by the Porte to the Signatory Powers, parties to that Treaty, I have stated that, so far as this country is concerned, there will be no infraction of the conditions guaranteed by Treaties to Bulgaria. Assurances to the same effect have been given by other Powers.

The demarcation of the Afghan frontier has advanced to within a few miles of the Oxus. In view of the approach of winter, my Commission has been withdrawn; but the information which they have obtained will be sufficient for the determination, by direct negotiation between the two Courts, of the portion of frontier which still remains unmarked.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the supplies which you have voted for the requirements of the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have directed the issue of a Commission to inquire into the circumstances which appear to have prevented the anticipated operation of recent Acts dealing with the tenure and purchase of land in Ireland.

I have observed with much satisfaction the interest which in an increasing degree is evinced by the people of this country in the welfare of their Colonial and Indian fellow-subjects; and I am led to the conviction that there is on all sides a growing desire to draw closer in every practicable way the bonds which unite the various portions of the Empire. I have authorized communications to be entered into with the principal Colonial Governments with a view to the fuller consideration of matters of common interest.

I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may be with you.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday, the eleventh day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday, the eleventh day of November next.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Parliament be prorogued from Saturday, the twenty-fifth day of September instant, to Thursday, the eleventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do cause a Commission to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

AT the Court at Balmoral the 24th day of September, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be prorogued from the day to which the same now stand prorogued, to Friday, the twelfth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for proroguing the Convocations accordingly.

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there, and no longer ;

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health burials in any part or parts of the Metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the Metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that, from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the Metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and

And whereas the Right Honourable Hugh Culling Eardley Childers, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving notice to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish of Chelsea of his intention to make the representation, made a representation stating that he was of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-seventh August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, with respect to interments in the Jews' Burial Ground, Fulham-road, in the parish of Chelsea, should be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained, the directions hereinafter set forth:

"With the exception of the portion of the burial-ground distinguished by a pink colour on the plan deposited at the Home Office, burials shall be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Jews' Burial Ground, Fulham-road, Chelsea, except as follows:—

"In such reserved places in the burial-ground as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the
