

Francfort, June 7. The Count de Lippe passed yesterday through this place to Command the Troops of Hesse, which are now in motion, in order to join the Imperial Army near Sinzheim. The Forces of Saxony are on their march towards the Rhine; and the Letters from Dresden still assure us, that his Electoral Highness will Command them in Person. The French Parties have burnt this week several Villages about Mentz: Their Main Army, Commanded by the Marechal de Lorge is retired towards Neustadt and Landau.

Cologne, June 9. The Brandenburg Forces are moving towards their General Rendezvous, where the Elector himself is expected about the 20th of this Month. The French Soldiers desert apace; and we hear from Mentz, That nine came thither on the 5th instant, 6 of them being Horsemen, and three Dragoons, all compleatly armed.

Hamburg, June 9. The Elector of Brandenburg arrived the 4th instant at Clupo in Pomerania, and is expected the 10th at Berlin, where his Electoral Highness's stay will be very short, he intending to make all the haste he can to the Rhin; whither his Forces are in the mean time marching under the Command of Lieutenant General Spaen, who will have all things in a readiness against his Electoral Highness's arrival, for the Armies advancing towards the Moselle. We are told, that the King of Denmark is expected at Rendsburg towards the end of this Month, and that he has ordered a Camp to be marked out near that place for 10000 Men; who are, its said, to work on the new Fortifications that are designed to be made there this Summer.

Brussels, June 11. The Duke of Luxembourg is retired from Deynze towards the French Territories. The Marquis de Boufflers was Encamped the 5th Instant near Marche, between Dinant and St. Vyt, with the Troops he brought from the Alzede, which are said to be about 7000 Men. Prince Waldeck moves towards the Sambre, and the Army he Commands will now in few days be quite formed. We have advice from Mentz, that the Hussars of that Garrison had defeated 1000 French Horse that were come into that Neighbourhood to destroy the Forage, and had cut them all off, bringing back with them a great Booty.

Flugie, June 13. The Army of this State was on the 9th Instant still Encamped at Waveren, but they expected to decamp in a day or two, and to advance towards the Sambre. They write from Brussels, That an Express was arrived there with an account, that the Hussars of the Garrison of Mentz had defeated a Body of French Horse, who were spilling the Country, and that 1000 of the Enemy were left dead upon the place. The Letters from Flanders tell us, That the Duke of Luxembourg was retired from Deynze. The Letters from Milan of the 27th past, by the way of Switzerland, say, the Duke of Savoy persisted in his Resolution, not to deliver up the French the places they demanded.

Falmouth, June 2. On Friday last about 40 Sail of Ships passed by this Harbour to the Westward, being bound for Ireland as we understand by some Fishermen that are come in.

Plsmouth, June 3. Yesterday came into Dartmouth a Hoy, in three days from St. Malo, with 74 English Seamen that have been exchanged; they say, the French work very hard on their Fleet at Brest. A Dutch Capser has sent into this Port, a French Vessel of about 100 Tun, bound with Wine and Brandy for Ireland.

Chester, June 4. This Morning a Dutch Regiment of Horse, with 2 Battalions of the Dutch Foot Guards, marched towards Higblyke; from whence the Count de Schomberg with the Forces that were shipt, are sailed since my last, under the Convoy of several Frigats for Ireland. We have an account this morning, That the Ducer has brought into Higblyke, 3 Gabards, 2 of them laden with Wood, and one with Corn, which she took near Dublin, whither they were bound.

Portsmouth, June 4. On the 2d came from the Westward to Spirhead, several Merchant Ships under Convoy of the Swallow, three of which came from Bilboa, and sailed again yesterday with their Majesties Ship the Rupert, for the Dorins.

Southampton, June 5. By a small Vessel come from Guernsey, we hear, That a Privateer of that Island, carrying one Gun, and 3 or 4 Pedereroes, had taken within a Mile of St. Malo, a Galliot Hoy of 180 Tuns, as she was going in company of 10 Sail more, under the Convoy of a small French Man of War for Roan, who all run into Harbour when they saw this Galliot Hoy taken. The Privateer has brought in his Prize to Guernsey, the lading whereof was valued at 50000 Livres.

Whitehal, June 7. We have an account of the Kings arrival at Litchfield last Thursday in the Evening, where His Majesty was received, as in all other places through which He passed, with a great concourse of the Gentry, and with all possible demonstrations of Duty and Affection from all sorts of People.

Whereas Their Majesties have been Graciously Pleased to Grant Letters Patents to John Lottingh of London, Merchant, for the sole Use and Benefit of an Engine, not heretofore used in Their Majesties Dominions, for the more ready extinguishing of Fires; whereas Their Majesties were pleased to have an Experiment made before them at Kennington-House, on the 19th of May last, where it then received Their Royal Approbation.
