Long, George Edward... ..	The Adam and Eve-yard, High-street, Kensington, 59, Church-street, Kensington, George-yard, Church-street, Kensington, and the Licensed Assembly Rooms, High-street, Kensington, all in Middlesex	Coachbuilder, Jobmaster, Livery Stable Keeper, and Proprietor of Licensed Assembly Rooms	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	977 of 1886	Oct. 28, 1886 ...	The whole of the property of the debtor, which would have become divisible amongst his creditors had he been adjudged bankrupt, to vest in Mr. William Rooke, of 103 and 104, St. Martin's-lane, W.C., Accountant, as Trustee. The Trustee, under the supervision of a Committee of Inspection, to administer the property in the like manner, and with the like powers and duties, and subject to the like conditions in all respects as though the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt, and he had been appointed Trustee in the bankruptcy. The Trustee empowered to sell the whole of the estate so vested in him (with the exceptions hereinafter named) to James Farmer, of Epsom, Surrey, Gentleman, for the sum of £500, to be secured by a deposit of the amount, or such balance thereof as may, with the money in Court, be required to make up such amount with the Official Receiver. The Trustee within fourteen days after approval to give security to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, and obtain from the Board a certificate of his appointment. Before transferring or assigning the estate to the said James Farmer, the Trustee shall disclaim such portions of the estate and property as he may be requested, in writing, by the purchaser to disclaim. The said sum of £500 be applied by the Trustee in the manner following:—In payment of fees, costs, charges, and expenses, preferential debts, and of dividends to the creditors of the debtor who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Trustee debts provable in bankruptcy. From the date of the confirmation of this scheme by the Court, the debtor shall be released and discharged from all debts provable under the Receiving Order to the same extent as if the Order confirming the scheme were an absolute Order of Discharge granted in bankruptcy. The Receiving Order is rescinded
