

tion of the waters of the said Port and Harbour, and have made application for Her Majesty in Council to make certain rules and bye-laws hereinafter set forth concerning the lights and signals to be carried by vessels (river craft) navigating the Port and Harbour of Waterford, viz. :—

All the space commonly called the River Suir, being within the flux and reflux of the tide, within the following limits, that is to say, from Granagh Castle to the Hook Lighthouse, including all the space between the junction of the Ross river with the said River Suir and the said Hook Lighthouse, and from Bilberry Rock to Swiny Head in the county of Waterford, including Saint Katherine's commonly called Saint John's Pill.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to make the rules contained in the schedule hereto concerning the lights and signals to be carried by vessels (river craft), navigating the waters of the port and harbour of Waterford as aforesaid, and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that the said rules shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

RULES concerning the Lights and Signals to be carried by Vessels (river craft) navigating the waters of the Port and Harbour of Waterford, viz. :—All the space commonly called the River Suir, being within the flux and reflux of the tide, within the following limits, that is to say, from Granagh Castle to the Hook Lighthouse, including all the space between the junction of the Ross River with the said River Suir and the said Hook Lighthouse, and from Bilberry Rock to Swiny Head, in the county of Waterford, including Saint Katherine's, commonly called Saint John's Pill.

1. All barges, lighters, and other river craft on the River Suir below Granagh Castle or elsewhere within the limits of the Port and Harbour of Waterford shall, between sunset and sunrise, whether at anchor or under way, exhibit in the bows or on the mast an all round white light of sufficient power to be distinctly visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least one mile.

2. The person in charge of every lighter, barge, or other river craft under way, and showing the white light, shall dip said light repeatedly on the approach of any vessel or steamer in sufficient time to prevent a collision.

3. All steam tugs and steam barges, and all seagoing vessels, shall carry and exhibit between sunset and sunrise within the limits of the Port and Harbour of Waterford the lights required by the regulations for preventing collisions at sea.

4. The owner or person in charge of any barge or lighter failing in any respect to comply with, or in any way infringing the foregoing regulations, shall be liable to a penalty of and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding £5 for each offence, which penalties shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the Waterford Harbour Act, 9 and 10 Victoria, cap. 292.

Privy Council Office, November 10, 1886.

THE following Statute, passed on the 14th day of October, 1886, by the Governing Body of Oriel College, Oxford, and sealed on the 27th day of October, 1886, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

A STATUTE to amend a Statute, made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), and approved by the Queen in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, in relation to Oriel College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at a General Meeting of the Provost and Fellows of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 14th day of October, 1886, and passed at such meeting by the votes of two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, and submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

Whereas by Statute IV, 11, made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and approved by the Queen in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882, in relation to Oriel College, in the University of Oxford, it was enacted as follow :—

“ 11. The Exhibitions on the foundation of Bishop Robinson shall be two in number, and shall be tenable for two years. Each Exhibitioner shall receive annually half the net income of Bishop Robinson's benefaction, together with such a sum from the Corporate Revenues as will make up £100 at least. These Exhibitions shall be open to all Bachelors of Arts of the University who shall not have exceeded the twenty-seventh Term from their matriculation. These Exhibitioners shall be elected by the Provost and Fellows, after an examination in such subjects and conducted in such manner as the electors shall deem best adapted to encourage mature study and research.”

“ Bishop Robinson's Exhibitioners shall be or become members of the College, and shall pursue the study of some branch of learning, either in the University or in some place approved of by the Provost and Fellows as being better suited for the pursuit of a particular branch of learning. They shall have the same privileges in respect of dining at the High Table as are enjoyed by Members of the College who are Masters of Arts.”

And by Statute XIV, 4, made as above, it was further enacted as follows :—

“ 4. The provisions of these Statutes with respect to the Exhibitions of Bishop Robinson shall come into effect at such time as the Provost and Fellows shall by Bylaw determine. Until that time the regulations in force before the making of these Statutes shall continue to be observed.”

And whereas the Provost and Fellows are of opinion that in the existing circumstances of the College it is expedient to apply the Robinson Fund to the establishment of additional Scholarships of the same nature and conditions as those already existing in the College rather than to the immediate creation of such Exhibitions as by the clause hereinbefore set forth are directed to be created.

We, the said Provost and Fellows of the said College, being the Governing Body thereof, do hereby, in exercise of the powers given to us by the 54th section of the said Act, alter Statute XIV, 4, and by adding thereto after the words “ to be observed,” the following words :—

“ Provided nevertheless that it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows from time to time, if they shall think fit so to do, to apply the income of the benefaction of Bishop Robinson to the maintenance of one or more Scholarships under the same conditions and in all respects as those”
