

to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said first-recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Attleborough in the county of Norfolk; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order, viz. :—widows and widowers, sons and daughters, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(d.) In the grave space reserved for the use of the Reverend W. C. Safford and his wife at their decease, on condition that each coffin is covered by four feet of earth at least.

Privy Council Office, November 9, 1886.

THE following Amending Scheme for the adjustment of the property, rights, liabilities, &c., of the School Board of Saltash, as settled by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, is published in pursuance of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882":—

WHEREAS on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, thought fit, and did by Her Royal Charter of that date, create the Poor Law parish of Saltash, known as the township or chapelry of Saltash, a municipal borough, and incorporated the inhabitants thereof, and by the said Charter extended to that municipal borough, and the inhabitants thereof so incorporated, the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Acts. And whereas the said inhabitants are incorporated by the name of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Saltash :

"And whereas Her Majesty by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, was pleased, under and pursuant to Part XI of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, to confirm the Borough of Saltash Scheme, 1885 :

"And whereas at the dates of the said Charter and Scheme there was in existence a School Board for the said Poor Law parish, and the said School Board is a Local Authority within the meaning of the Municipal Corporation Acts, 1882 and 1885 :

"And whereas the Borough of Saltash Scheme, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, omits to deal with the said School Board for the parish of Saltash :

"And whereas the Municipal Corporation of the borough of Saltash have petitioned the Queen for an Amending Scheme :

"And whereas the said petition was referred to a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council :

"And whereas one month at least before the said petition was taken into consideration by the said Committee notice thereof, and of the time when the same was so to be taken into consideration, was duly published in the London Gazette and otherwise as directed by the said Committee, and the provisions and directions of the Municipal Corporation Acts, 1882 and 1885, have been in all respects complied with and obeyed :

"And whereas it is expedient, right, and just, that an Amending Scheme should be settled pursuant to the said Acts, containing the provisions hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, the said Committee of Council have settled an Amending Scheme containing the provisions herein, and do hereby order and declare as follows :—

"1. This Scheme may be cited for all purposes as the Borough of Saltash Scheme, 1886.

"2. This Scheme and the Borough of Saltash Scheme, 1885, shall be construed and operate as one Scheme.

"3. This Scheme shall come into operation on the date of its confirmation by Parliament or Order in Council, which date is hereinafter referred to as 'the commencement of this Scheme.'

"4. Notwithstanding the creation of the said Municipal Borough the School Board for the parish of Saltash shall be and continue to be the School Board for the Municipal Borough of Saltash, by the name of the 'School Board of the Borough of Saltash,' in all respects to the same extent, and in the same manner as if, at the time of the formation of the School Board for the parish of Saltash, by the Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council on Education (hereinafter referred to as the 'Education Department'), the said Borough of Saltash had been created a Municipal Borough, and the said School Board for the parish of Saltash had been formed and created for the said borough by the name of the School Board of the Borough of Saltash, and as if the Local Rate and the Rating Authority had been the Borough Fund or Rate, and the Council of the said borough, respectively, and everything in connection with the said Board and School District shall be done, and had accordingly, and not otherwise.

"5. All liabilities and assets attaching to and vested in the School Board for the parish of Saltash immediately before the commencement of this Scheme shall be, and continue, attached to, and vested in the School Board for the borough of Saltash, and all charges charged on the Poor Rate and School Fund of the said Poor Law Parish immediately before the commencement of this Scheme shall be a charge upon the Borough Fund or Rate and the School Fund of the School Board for the borough of Saltash, respectively, and not otherwise.

"6. Any bye-laws in force at the date of this
