

following parishes, townships, and places, all in the West Riding of the county of York, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, that is to say:—The whole of the township of Kirkheaton, in the said parish of Kirkheaton, and so much of the township of Lepton, in the said parish of Kirkheaton, as is not included within the limits of supply of the Kirkburton Gas Light Company Limited, as defined by the Kirkburton Gas Order, 1884.

8. To authorise the Company to maintain, alter, and renew, or to take up and discontinue any existing mains, pipes, pillars, and other works of the Limited Company, whether situate within or without the limits for the supply of gas as above defined, and to lay down, make, and maintain, and, from time to time renew or discontinue new or additional mains, pipes, pillars, and other works in, along, through, over, and under, and for those purposes and any other purposes in connection with their undertaking, to open and break up, cross, alter, or stop up all turnpike and other roads, highways, streets, pipes, sewers, canals, navigations, rivers, streams, bridges, railways, and tramways, within the limits above defined for the supply of gas, as well as the streets or roads known as Crossley-lane, Mill-lane, or School-lane, Waterloo-road, Albany-road, and Wakefield and Austerlands Road, in the said township of Dalton.

9. To authorise and empower the Company to manufacture, hire, let, or sell, and deal in meters, fittings, and other apparatus for supplying or measuring gas, and engines, stoves, pipes, and other apparatus for warming, lighting, cooking, and for motive power and other purposes, and to demand and take and recover rates, rents, and charges, differential or otherwise, for the supply of gas, and for the sale or hire of gas meters, fittings, stoves, engines, and other apparatus, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of any such rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

10. To authorise and empower the Company to take, purchase, hold, and use patent rights, or licenses, or authorities, under letters patent, for the use of inventions relative to the manufacture, conversion, utilisation, or distribution of gas, and of such materials and residual products as aforesaid.

11. To enable the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and arrangements for the supply of gas with any urban or rural sanitary or any highway authority, and any railway company, and any other companies, bodies, or persons, and to confer all necessary powers in that behalf upon all such authorities, companies, bodies, and persons, and to enable them to apply for the purpose of any such contract or arrangements any funds or moneys which they have raised, or may raise, under any Act of Parliament or otherwise.

12. To vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges which would interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

13. To amend, and so far as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid, to repeal the provisions, or some of the provisions, of all or any of the following local and personal Acts of Parliament, that is to say—The Huddersfield Gas Act, 1861; the Huddersfield Improvement Act, 1871; and the Huddersfield Waterworks and Improvement Act, 1876; and any other Act or Acts relating to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or to the borough of Huddersfield; Mirfield Gas Act, 1860, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Mirfield Gas Company or their undertaking.

14. Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1886.

In Parliament.—Session 1887.

Hornsey Local Board (Purchase of Churchyard Bottom Wood).

(Powers to Ecclesiastical Commissioners to convey, and to the Hornsey Local Board to acquire, a Site for a Public Park or Recreation Ground at Highgate, and for the Control and Management thereof; Bye-laws; Powers to the Corporation of City of London, Vestries and District Boards of the Metropolis, the Charity Commissioners, the Trustees of the London Parochial Charities now or hereafter to be established under the provisions of "The City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883," and other Bodies charged with the administration of the City Parochial Charities Fund under the provisions of the said Act, and other Corporate and Public Bodies; Borrowing of money charged on Rates; Application of City Cash and other Funds to purposes of intended Act; Authorising and Confirming Agreements; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Local Board for the district of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex (hereinafter called "the Board") intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill, to be subsequently passed into an Act, to effect the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (hereinafter called "the Commissioners"), and all other persons (if any) having any right, title, or interest therein or thereto, to grant and convey, and the Board to acquire or purchase by agreement (and not otherwise), and hold without license in mortmain, on and subject to such terms, conditions, and stipulations as may be contained in the intended Act, certain lands known as the Churchyard Bottom Wood, containing fifty-two acres three roods, or thereabouts, situate at Highgate, in the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, and within the district of the Board.

2. To confer upon the Board all needful powers for securing the said lands as a park or open space and place of recreation and enjoyment for the public, and to authorise the enclosure and maintenance of the same, or part or parts thereof, for the purposes aforesaid, and for the purpose, as far as possible, of preserving the natural aspect thereof.

3. To provide for laying out, planting, maintaining, controlling, using, regulating, and improving, preserving, managing, and closing the said lands, and otherwise with reference thereto.

4. To authorise the making of bye-laws and regulations with reference to all or any of the matters aforesaid, and the enforcing thereof by penalties or otherwise.

5. To declare that, for police purposes, the said lands shall be deemed places of public resort, and to confer upon the police all necessary powers in relation thereto.

6. To make provision with reference to the formation, maintenance, and lighting, by the Commissioners, or the Board, or the owners of
