

equip such hotel and refreshment rooms, and to manage and conduct the business thereof, and to employ managers and servants therein and in connection therewith, and to let the same on lease or otherwise.

To enable any authority, justice, or other person by law authorized to grant licences for the sale by retail of wines, spirits, beer, or cider, to grant a licence to any person nominated by the Company for such sale at any refreshment room managed by the Company, although the structure of the premises may not be in conformity with the provisions of any Act relating to the granting of such licences, and although the person so nominated is not the real resident owner or occupier of such refreshment room.

To enable the Company to undertake the warehousing of goods, the discharging of ballast from vessels, the supply of water for ships' use and for other purposes, and to exercise all such powers as are usual in the case of dock companies.

To authorize the Company to demand, levy, and recover tonnage and other dues, ballast charges, charges for supplying water, and rates in respect of vessels resorting to the dock works, or coming within such limits as the Bill may define, and also dues, rates, or charges in respect of goods, wares, merchandise, cattle, articles, and things shipped or unshipped at the dock works, for the hire or use of any pilot or tug vessels or boats of the Company, and in respect of watching, lighting, and any services to be rendered or performed, or conveniences provided by the Company, and to confer exemptions from, and from time to time to compound for, any such tolls, rents, rates, dues, or other payments.

To empower the Company, for such considerations, at such rents, and upon such terms and conditions as may be provided for by the Bill, from time to time to sell or lease any lands from time to time belonging to them, to let wharves or warehouses, buildings, yards, cranes, machines, shipping, staiths, tips, or other conveniences, and to make charges in respect thereof, and to exempt some or all of such lands, and the Company in respect thereof, from the operation of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the sale of superfluous lands.

To authorize the Company to make bye-laws and regulations, and to impose penalties and restrictions, and to define the manner in which penalties shall be enforced and recovered.

To levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the intended railways.

To enable the Company on the one hand and the South Eastern Railway Company and the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company, or either of them, on the other hand, to enter into, carry into effect, vary, rescind, and renew, from time to time contracts, agreements, and arrangements with respect to the construction, working, use, management, and maintenance by the contracting Companies of their respective railways, stations, and works connected therewith, or any part or parts thereof respectively, and the management, regulation, interchange, collection, transmission, and delivery of traffic of every description upon or coming from, passing over, or destined for the railways and stations of the contracting Companies, or either of them; the supply and maintenance of engines, stock, and plant; the fixing, collection, payment, appropriation, apportionment, and distribution of the tolls, rates, income, and profits arising from the railways and works connected therewith of the contracting Companies, or any part or parts thereof; the employment of officers and servants, and the appointment of Joint Committees for carrying into effect every or any such agreement as aforesaid, and to confirm any agreements which have been or may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the Bill, or with such contracts, agreements, or arrangements, as aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To amend or repeal, as far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Bill, the provisions or some of the provisions of the local and personal Acts of Parliament following, that is to say:—

6 Will. IV., cap. 75, and all other Acts relating to the South Eastern Railway Company; and 16 and 17 Vict., cap. 132, and all other Acts relating to the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company.

On or before the 30th day of November instant plans and sections of the intended works, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in that county; and on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference respectively as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place in or through which the intended works are proposed to be made, or in which any lands or houses are intended to be taken, together with a copy of this notice as published as aforesaid, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence; and as to any extra-parochial place with the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1886.
