Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, December 18, 1886.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Rio de Janeiro, enclosing the following translations of quarantine notices issued by the Brazilian Government.

Ministry of Empire.

In consequence of an official communication which the Government received relative to the cholera morbus in the River Plate, the Minister of Empire issued to the Presidents of the Maritime Provinces the following Telegram:—

"Your Excellency will issue with urgency the strictest orders for closing the ports of the Province against any arrivals from the River Plate, intimation being given to the vessels seeking the same that they shall go on to the lazaretto at Ilha Grande, communicating to me without delay should any obstacle offer to the strict observance of this deliberation of the Government."

Quarantine Regulations.

Rio de Janeiro, November 8, 1886.

It being officially reported that cholera morbus has made its appearance at Genoa and at Arenzano, the Government has resolved:—

1st. That the ports of Genoa and Arenzano, in the Gulf of Genoa, be declared infected, reckoning from the 1st instant.

2nd. That the Continental Italian ports of the Mediterranean, as well as those of the Island of Corsica, shall be declared suspicious.

3rd. That vessels coming from infected ports shall only be received in the ports of the Empire, after they shall have undergone strict quarantine at the lazaretto at Ilha Grande.

4th. That vessels coming from simply suspected ports, arriving with cases of cholera, or which may have had such during the voyage, or which may convey cargoes susceptible of transmitting contagion, shall be submitted to the said quarantine in the aforesaid lazaretto.

Sanitary Measures.

Rio de Janeiro, November 13, 1886.

THE Imperial Government have resolved:—

1st. That until further orders the national ports shall remain closed—excepting that of the lazaretto at Ilha Grande—to all vessels coming from the Argentine Republic and from any ports infected with cholera morbus.

2nd. That the said vessels shall land the passengers and cargoes which they may have brought destined for the Empire only at the aforesaid lazaretto, in order that the latter may be submitted to a complete disinfection and the former to strict quarantine.

3rd. That on the disembarcation being terminated, the vessels shall receive intimation to proceed on their voyage to the foreign ports they may choose.

4th. That vessels coming from simply suspected ports arriving with cases of cholera, or which may have had such during the voyage, shall be subjected to the same sanitary treatment.

The Government will consent to the affording of succour—all precautions indispensable to the interest of public health being taken.

Rio de Janeiro, November 13, 1886.

It being of the greatest importance to public health to adopt all the measures tending to prevent the introduction with the meat from vessels of the germs of pestilential disease, the Government has resolved:—

1st. That until further deliberation on the matter the importation to the ports of the Empire of rags, skins, hair, tanned hides, animal fibre unprepared, and salt meats in bundles or in sides coming from the Argentine or Oriental Republic shall be absolutely prohibited.

2nd. That the merchandize mentioned which shall be already on the voyage for this port or for those of the provinces, and whose owners or consignees do not prefer re-exporting it, shall be strictly disinfected, running the risk of the damage arising from the disinfection.

3rd. That from these measures exception be made in view of the measures adopted in the Republic of Uruguay relative to its communication with the Argentine territory, to the meat existing in deposit in the Oriental salting establishments, and prepared before the appearance of cholera in the Argentine Republic, which shall be received in the Empire, the declaration under the responsibility of the Brazilian Consul and Vice-Consul, which they ought to bring with them both on the manifest of the cargo and on the bill of health, intimating that such meat is Oriental, that it was prepared before the epidemic manifested itself in Buenos Ayres and other Argentine localities.

Ministry for the Affairs of War,

Rio de Janeiro, November 12, 1886.

Most Illustrious and Most Excellent Sir,

WITH the Official Letter, No. 7164, of the 10th instant, your Excellency submits, for the consideration of this Ministry, the letter which the Commandant of the Fortress of Santa Cruz of the Bar of Rio de Janeiro addressed to you, consulting you as to whether ships of war coming from suspected or infected ports are subject to the same intimations and in the same manner as are other vessels; and whether, in case of formal disobedience on the part of their commanders to the intimation to proceed to the lazaretto at Ilha Grande, or to anchor to the north-east of the aforesaid fortress, all other recourse being exhausted, a shotted gun should be employed?

In answer to the aforesaid consultation, I have to state for your knowledge, and in order that you may make it known to that commandant, that vessels of war, under the conditions cited, ought to be subject to all the measures ordered to be adopted with respect to merchant vessels, both those infected with cholera mcrbus, as well as those coming from ports infected with that disorder, as your Excellency proposes.

As to the second part of the consultation, I likewise state to your Excellency, that the procedure should be according to the form indicated in the Circular of the 20th September, 1855, which provides for the cases which may occur in like respect, and which nevertheless it is possible to avoid by a timely use of a tug and a vessel of war which are placed there for the service of the fortress alluded to, as has just been communicated by the Minister of Empire and the Director of the War Arsenal.

May God protect your Excellency.

ALFREDO RODRIGUES FERNANDEZ CHAVES.

To the Councillor the Adjutant-General.

The notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice, from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (4.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (5.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions :—
 - (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not, at the time of such correction, lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
 - (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, the sender shall pay a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

- (6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (7.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable.
- (8.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (9.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct or authorize.
- (10.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General, it becomes offensive or injurious to any Officer of the Post Office or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Charge for Re-direction.

12. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Italy is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

14. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

15. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel—

- (1.) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article whether similar to the above or not; or
- (2.) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character.
- (3.) Containing or bearing any letter or communication in the nature of a letter, or any article or thing not authorized by the Customs or other laws of Italy.
- (4.) Consisting of or containing—
 - (a.) Any explosive substance.
 - (b.) Any dangerous substance.
 - (c.) Any filth.
 - (d.) Any noxious or deleterious substance.
 - (e.) Any sharp instrument not properly protected.
 - (f.) Except with the special permission of the Postmaster-General, any living creature.
 - (g.) Any article or thing whatsoever which is likely to injure other Parcels in course of conveyance, or any receptacle in which the same are conveyed, or an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such Parcel.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

16. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel consisting of or containing two or more Parcels or other Postal Packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses, and any such Parcel if posted or tendered for conveyance by post may be detained and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

17. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the Regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

18. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

19. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

20. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

21. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

22. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

23. This Warrant shall come into operation on the day after its publication in the London Gazette.
