COPYRIGHT BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND ITALY.

Foreign Office, December 30, 1886.

THE following Declaration for prolonging the Duration of the Copyright Convention between Her Majesty and the King of Italy of the 30th November, 1860, till the International Copyright Convention, signed at Berne, September 9, 1886, comes into force, was signed at London, December 28, 1886:—

WHEREAS the Copyright Convention between Great Britain and Italy of the 30th November, 1860, would cease to be in force on the 31st December, 1886, and the two Governments having recognized the utility of prolonging its duration, the undersigned, duly authorized to this effect, have agreed to declare as follows:—

The Copyright Convention between Great Britain and Italy of the 30th November, 1860, will continue to remain in force until the Convention for the creation of an International Union for the protection of literary and artistic works, which was signed at Berne on the 9th September, 1886, by the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain, Italy, and other States, shall come into effect.

In faith of which, they have signed the present Declaration, made in duplicate, and have affixed their seals.

Done at London, on the 28th day of December, 1886.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of December, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order bearing date the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, defining a part of the Port of Portsmouth as a Foreign Animals Wharf for Naval purposes only: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.
