AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1886.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said Majesty chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the archdeaconries and rural deaneries or some of them which are within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

“Whereas there are at present three archdeaconries within the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, to wit the Archdeaconry of Gloucester, the Archdeaconry of Bristol, and the Archdeaconry of Cirencester.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said archdeaconries and rural deaneries or some of them within the said diocese are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

“And whereas the said arrangements involve the transfer in certain cases of certain parishes or cures from one archdeaconry to another archdeaconry, that is to say, they involve the transfer of one parish or cure (that is to say the parish of Kemerton) from the Archdeaconry of Cirencester to the Archdeaconry of Gloucester, and the transfer of one parish or cure (that is to say, the parish of Poulton) from the Archdeaconry of Bristol to the Archdeaconry of Cirencester; and also the transfer of certain parishes or cures from certain rural deaneries to certain other rural deaneries.

“And whereas the same arrangements also involve among other alterations of the areas of certain of the rural deaneries within the said three archdeaconries, the extinction or absorption of one rural deanery as such to wit, the Rural Deanery of Northleach (South) in the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester and they involve certain changes in the names of four of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Gloucester and of the names of six of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Bristol and of the name of one of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester.

"And whereas the two statutory schedules (prepared under the provisions of the hereinbefore lastly mentioned Act) of the rural deaneries within the said two Archdeaonries of Gloucester and of Bristol respectively are each dated the thirtieth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and since that date the Archdeaconry of Cirencester has been constituted out of the said two Archdeaonries of Gloucester and of Bristol by an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

"And whereas there exists no statutory schedule of the rural deaneries comprised within the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester.

"And whereas by virtue of 'The Bishopric of Bristol Act, 1884,' it is provided that if and when the Bishopric of Bristol shall be reconstituted as a separate bishopric the diocese shall (inter alia) consist of,—

(a) The Deanery of Bristol (City Division and Rural Division); and

(b) The following three Deaneries of North Wilts, that is to say :

Malmesbury, North,
Malmesbury, South, and Cricklade.

"And whereas the area above specified under the heading (a) is, in the said statutory schedule of rural deaneries within the archdeaconry of Bristol aforesaid, described as 'The Deanery of Bristol (City Division)' and 'The Deanery of Bristol (Rural Division).'

"And whereas it is proposed by this scheme that the names of the two last-mentioned rural deaneries and also the names of the said two Rural Deaneries of Malmesbury, North, and of Malmesbury, South, respectively shall be changed as hereinafter appears.

"And whereas it is further proposed by this scheme that the area of the said Rural Deanery of Cricklade shall be altered by the transference of the parish or cure of Poulton from that rural deanery to the Rural Deanery of Fairford in the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester as hereinbefore-mentioned and as hereinafter appears.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof he hath set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said Archdeaconry of Gloucester the said Archdeaconry of Bristol and the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester respectively shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries, the names of which are set down in order under the name of each of the said three archdeaonries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in the said schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof; and that every parish or cure, the name of which is set down in numbered order, in the first column of the said schedule, under the names of any one of the said three archdeaonries respectively and under the name of any specified rural deanery in any one of the said three archdeaonries respectively, shall belong to and be and form a part of the archdeaconry and of the rural deanery under the respective names of which it may appear as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the archdeacon of the same archdeaconry and of the rural dean of the same rural deanery and shall not belong to or be or form a part of any other archdeaconry or rural deanery nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon or rural dean, the intent of these our recommendations and proposals being, that the said schedule to this scheme annexed, shall, as to the first column thereof, be (in so far as the same legally can or may be) as from the day aforesaid, substituted for the two before-mentioned statutory schedules of rural deaneries within the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol as aforesaid; so that upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette as aforesaid, the said three Archdeaonries of Gloucester and of Bristol, and of Cirencester respectively, shall as aforesaid comprise and consist of the rural deaneries which are in that behalf set out and specified under the name of each such archdeaconry respectively in the said schedule to this scheme annexed; and so that every rural deanery in each such archdeaconry shall comprise and consist of the parishes or cures which are in that behalf set out and specified under the name of each such rural deanery in the said first column of the same schedule; the second column of the same schedule containing in the case of each of the said three archdeaonries, a statement as to the name of the rural deanery within which any parish or cure specified in the first column of the said schedule has been heretofore situate, and also as to each of the two parishes or cures hereinbefore in this behalf referred to, (that is to say, the parishes of Kemerton and Poulton,) a statement as to the name of the archdeaconry within which each of the said parishes has been heretofore situate, and from which it is to be transferred as aforesaid:—

Which recommendations and proposals in this scheme and in the said schedule thereto set forth aforesaid, will have the effect (as by the same schedule appears,) of extinguishing one rural deanery, namely, the Rural Deanery of Northleach (South) in the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester, and of absorbing it into the Rural Deanery of Northleach within the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester; and which recommendations and proposals will have the effect of making the following changes in the names of four of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Gloucester, that is to say 'The Rural Deanery of Stonehouse (North)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Bisley'; 'The Rural Deanery of Stonehouse (South)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Stonehouse'; 'The Rural Deanery of Winchcomb (North)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Winchcomb'; and 'The Rural Deanery of Winchcomb (South)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Cheltenham'; and will also have the effect of making the following changes in the names of six of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Bristol that is to say 'The Rural Deanery of Bristol (City Division)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Bristol'; 'The Rural Deanery of Bristol (Rural Division)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Stapleton'; 'The Rural Deanery of Hawkesbury (North)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Hawkesbury'; 'The Rural Deanery of Hawkesbury (South)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Bitton'; 'The Rural Deanery of Malmesbury (South)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Chippenham'; and 'The Rural Deanery of Malmesbury (North)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Malmesbury'; and will also have the effect of making the following change in the name of one of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Cirencester, that is to say, 'The Rural Deanery of Northleach (North)' will become 'The Rural Deanery of Northleach.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called the said benefice) of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham) in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham) is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Richard Mallock of Cockington Court in the said county of Devon Esquire a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Richard Mallock is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham) now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Exeter.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Henry now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham) which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish or parochial chapelry of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham).

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Richard Mallock (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tormohun (otherwise Tormoham) now vested in him the said Richard Mallock and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him and them to the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church hitherto known as Caerdeon Chapel, situate at Caerdeon, in the parish of Llanaber, in the county of Merioneth and in the diocese of Bangor.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate at Caerdeon as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Colquhoun, Bishop of the said diocese of Bangor (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llanaber which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Uwchmynydd (as the same is known for the purposes of highway rating), all which part of such parish together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Caerdeon as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Bontddu.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Colquhoun, Bishop of the said diocese of Bangor (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matri-

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bangor.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he hath to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that as from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order that rural deanery within the Archdeaconry of Saint Asaph which in the said schedule to the said scheme so ratified and gazetted as aforesaid is numbered VI. and is called 'The Rural Deanery of Llangollen' and also that rural deanery within the same archdeaconry which in the same schedule is numbered IX. and is called 'The Rural Deanery of Penllyn and Edeirnion' shall together with all the parishes or cures within each of the said two rural deaneries contained as the same parishes or cures are in the same schedule set forth be transferred from the said Archdeaconry of Saint Asaph and shall become and be and form part of the Archdeaconry of Montgomery aforesaid so that

And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from hereafter recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas, under the eighty-third section of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, notice of the said scheme has been given to the Archdeacon of Saint Asaph and to the Archdeacon of Montgomery, and no objection has been made by them or either of them to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph. *C. "And we further recommend and propose that the first payment of the said yearly sum of two pounds so hereby recommended to be made as aforesaid shall be made on the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and that every such payment as well as the said yearly payment of one hundred and eighty pounds hereinbefore mentioned shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that both of such yearly payments shall be apportionable between any archdeacon resigning or otherwise avoiding the said archdeaconry or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered :

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in so far as it affects burials in the church and churchyard of Saint Michael, Haworth, in the parish of Bradford, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the said church and churchyard, viz :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in Saint Michael's Church, Haworth, and within twenty feet of any building ; and also in the rest of the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of February next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twelfth day of February next.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning

"the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the parish churchyard of Lydiard Tregoz, in the county of Wilts, until the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Thatcham, in the county of Berks, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Crickhowel, in the county of Brecon, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Kirton, near Boston, in the county of Lincoln, to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Brinkworth, in the county of Wilts, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to direct the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the church and churchyard of New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex ; and whereas it seems fit that the operation of such Order should be further suspended until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and that the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, as affecting burials in the said church and churchyard, should again be in force until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, be suspended until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and that the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, as affecting burials in the church and churchyard of New Shoreham, be again in force until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 307.)—FRANCE—NORTH COAST.—SEINE RIVER ENTRANCE.

Havre—Red Light Experimentally Exhibited from Notre Dame Church Tower.

THE French Government has given notice, dated 7th December, 1886, that a light is now experimentally exhibited from Notre Dame Church Tower, Havre:—

The light is a fixed red light, and will enable the day mark for the S.W. pass, viz.—the Church Tower in line with North Mole Light, bearing N.E. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E., to be also available at night.

Position, lat.  $49^{\circ} 29' 20''$  N., long.  $0^{\circ} 6' 35''$  E.

NOTE.—According to the results obtained from the experiments now being carried on, this light will be shown, either all night, or only during tide hours.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation  $17\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1886.]

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
28th December, 1886.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Entrance of the Seine, No. 2680. Also, Admiralty List of Lights on the western shores of Europe, 1886, p. 10; and Channel Pilot, Part II, 1882, pages 79, 86-88.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 308.)—NEW ZEALAND—NORTH ISLAND.—WEST COAST.

Manukau Harbour—Leading Lights at Entrance.

THE Government of New Zealand has given notice, that on 15th November, 1886, the undermentioned leading lights would be exhibited from the beacons at Manukau Harbour Entrance:—

On South Head.—Two fixed red lights are shown from the leading beacons, visible in clear weather from a distance of about eight miles. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the sixth order.

On the North Shore of the Harbour Entrance.—Three fixed white lights are shown from the leading beacons, visible in clear weather from a distance of about eight miles. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses.

The red lights on South Head, kept in line bearing N.N.E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E., lead in the fairway of South Channel between Heron Spit and Treachery and Tranmere Shoals. This course should be continued until the three white lights shown from the beacons on the north shore are brought in line bearing N.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W., which course leads clear of Emma Bank and South Head Spit. When about half a mile inside South Head, the course is clear up the harbour.

NOTE.—These leading lights will be shifted from time to time, so as to indicate the channel.

From the great elevation of these lights, they may possibly be seen in clear weather from a great distance, but during fogs or thick weather the red lights may be obscured. Mariners therefore should exercise great care in approaching the bar from seaward.

CAUTION.—Unless thoroughly acquainted with Manukau Harbour, mariners should on no account attempt to cross the bar at night.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation  $13\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$  Easterly in 1886.]

Information has been received through the Board of Trade, that the south-west limit of the visibility of this light, in its full intensity, is N.  $33\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$  W.; but that a faint light is visible considerably inshore of that bearing, and that the light may even be seen from the mole of Zante Harbour, when bearing about N. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E.
