

spicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered :

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning "the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in so far as it affects burials in the church and churchyard of Saint Michael, Haworth, in the parish of Bradford, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the said church and churchyard, viz :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in Saint Michael's Church, Haworth, and within twenty feet of any building ; and also in the rest of the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of February next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twelfth day of February next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning

"the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the parish churchyard of Lydiard Tregoz, in the county of Wilts, until the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Thatcham, in the county of Berks, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Crickhowel, in the county of Brecon, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Kirton, near Boston, in the county of Lincoln, to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Brinkworth, in the county of Wilts, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to direct the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the church and churchyard of New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex ; and whereas it seems fit that the operation of such Order should be further suspended until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and that the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, as affecting burials in the said church and churchyard, should again be in force until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, be suspended until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and that the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, as affecting burials in the church and churchyard of New Shoreham, be again in force until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.
