Revocation of The Rabies Order of 1886.

5. The Rabies Order of 1886 is hereby from and after the commencement of this Order revoked : Provided that such revocation shall not invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Order hereby revoked, or affect any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder, before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order.

Existing Regulations

6.—(1.) Any Regulation made by a Local Authority under The Rabies Order of 1886 before the commencement of this Order which is not within the powers conferred on a Local Authority by this Order shall be and the same is hereby revoked.

(2.) All other Regulations made by a Local Authority under The Rabies Order of 1886, and in force at the commencement of this Order, shall, unless altered or revoked by such Local Authority, remain in force for such time and in such manner as if this Order had not been made.

Extension of Acts of 1878 to 1886.

7. Dogs shall be animals, and rabies shall be a disease, for the purposes of the following Sections of the Acts of 1878 to 1886 (namely) :

Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878 (notice of disease).

Section thirty-two of the Act of 1878 (Orders of Council).

Section fifty of the Act of 1878 (powers of police).

Section fifty-one of the Act of 1878 (powers of inspectors).

Section six of the Act of 1886 (slaughter).

Section eight of the Act of 1886 (definition of animals).

and of all other Sections of those Acts containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those Sections, including such Sections as provide for offences and procedure.

Duty of Police on Notice of Rabies.

8. The constable to whom notice of the fact of a dog or of an animal or of a horse or ass or mule being affected with rabies, or with disease supposed to be rabies, is given, under Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878, as extended by this Order, shall forthwith give information thereof to an Inspector of the Local Authority, who shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority.

Optional Notice of Disease or Illness.

9. Any person having in his possession or under his charge a dog or an animal or a horse or ass or mule affected with rabies, or with any illness, or suspected of being so affected, besides giving such notice to a constable as he is required by Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878, as extended by this Order, to give, may, if he thinks fit, give notice of the fact of the dog or animal or horse or ass or mule being so affected, or suspected, to the Inspector of the Local Authority.

Duty of Inspector to act immediately.

10. An Inspector of a Local Authority on receiving in any manner whatsoever information of the supposed existence of rabies, or having reasonable ground to suspect the existence of rabies, shall proceed with all practicable speed to the place where such rabies, according to the information received by him, exists, or is suspected to exist, and shall there and elsewhere put in force and discharge the powers and duties by or under the Acts of 1878 to 1886, and any Order of Council, conferred and imposed on him as Inspector.

Public Warning as to Existence of Rabies.

11.—(1.) The Local Authority may, if they think fit, from time to time, give public warning by placards, advertisement, or otherwise, of the existence of rabies in any kennel, stable, building, field, or other place, with or without any particular description thereof, as they think fit, and may continue to do so during the existence of the disease, and, in case of a kennel, stable, building, or other like place, until the same has been cleansed and disinfected.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person (without authority or excuse) to remove or deface any such placard.

Special Regulations of Local Authority as to Dogs.

12. Any Local Authority may make, from time to time, such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes, or any of them :

(a.) For providing for the muzzling of dogs except when securely attached to or kept within a kennel, stable, house, building, or other like place :

(b.) For providing for the keeping of dogs under control (otherwise than by muzzling) by the owner or person in charge thereof in such manner as may be prescribed by such Regulations :

(c.) For providing for the seizure and detention of stray dogs or of dogs not muzzled or of dogs not being kept under control in the manner prescribed by such Regulations, and for the recovery by the Local Authority of the expenses incurred by them in respect of the detention of any such dogs from the owners thereof :

(d.) For providing for the seizure, detention, and disposal, including slaughter, of dogs being at large and affected with or suspected of rabies, or being or having been in the same kennel, stable, house, building, or other place, or in the same pack, or otherwise in contact, with dogs affected with rabies or being or having been otherwise exposed to the infection thereof :

(e.) For prohibiting or regulating the holding of shows or exhibitions of dogs, and the exposing of dogs for exhibition or sale thereat.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement for Rabies.

13. Any Local Authority may make, from time to time, such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes, or any of them :
