PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fourth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (Regulations and Instructions for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service), and the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, payment of money allowances from the funds of Greenwich Hospital has been authorized in the case of naval pensioners who are permanent inmates of naval hospitals or infirmaries, and whereas we consider it desirable to extend such benefits to pensioners who are admitted to hospitals or infirmaries for treatment only.

"We humbly beg to recommend that Your Majesty may be pleased to authorize that for the future pensioners admitted for treatment shall receive allowances on the same scale and under the same conditions as already authorized for pensioners who are permanent inmates, provided that such allowances shall not be paid concurrently with the pensioner's naval or other pension.

"And whereas by the fourth section of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of Your Majesty's reign, chapter forty-four entitled 'The Greenwich Hospital Act 1869,' it is enacted that the Admiralty may, under regulations to be from time to time made by them, admit any non-commissioned officers and men of the Royal Navy and Marines entitled to the benefits of Greenwich Hospital to a naval hospital or infirmary to be there maintained at the expense of Greenwich Hospital.

"We beg leave to submit that Your Majesty may be pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction that payment be made from the funds of Greenwich Hospital for each non-commissioned officer or man so maintained, as follows :—

"In naval hospitals or infirmaries... 2s. 6d. a day.

"In the Seamen's Hospital Society, Greenwich (as provided for in their lease of the infirmary of Greenwich Hospital) ... 3s. a day.

"The above rates to take effect from the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

"And whereas by the twentieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled 'The Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865,' it is amongst other things enacted that the Admiralty may (subject to the approval of Your Majesty in Council), fix the salaries of officers appointed for the service of Greenwich Hospital.

"And whereas by the eighth section of an Act passed in the thirty-sixth year of Your Majesty's reign entitled 'The Greenwich Hospital Act, 1872,' it is enacted that 'the provisions of the twentieth section of 'The Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865,' as far as the same relate to salaries shall extend to pensions and pecuniary benefits of any kind.'"

"And whereas we have deemed it expedient to abolish the office of Superintendent of the Greenwich Hospital Branch at the Admiralty, the retirement of the officer holding that appointment taking effect from the seventeenth August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to authorize the grant to such officer of a pension at the rate of £566 13s. 4d. per annum to take effect from the date of retirement, and a gratuity of £1,500."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of January, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, Esquire, being the Pilotage Authority for the Port and Harbour of Leven and the Harbour of Methil within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," has, in exercise of the powers vested in him by that Act and by "The Leven Harbour Act, 1876," and "The Methil Harbour Order, 1883," made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain Bye-laws and Regulations:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the proposed Bye-laws and Regulations are proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to approve of, and signify Her consent to, the said Bye-laws and Regulations as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers.

Pilotage Regulations.

I. Mr. R. Erskine Wemyss being the Pilotage Authority within the limits of the Port and Harbour of Leven, as defined by the "Leven Harbour Act, 1876," and within the limits of Methil Harbour, as defined by the "Methil Harbour Order, 1883," appoints the following enactments and regulations to be strictly enforced within the limits of the Pilotage Authority; and all Pilots licensed as hereinafter provided for, shall be subject to these and such other Bye-laws and Regulations as may be from time to time appointed, and also the provisions of that portion of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," which relates to the Pilotage in so far as incumbent on them.

II. The limits of the Pilotage Authority under the above-named Act and Order shall be the Port and Harbour of Leven, and Harbour of Methil, and shall include that portion of the Firth of Forth bounded by an imaginary line drawn one thousand yards due south, from the point at which the boundary between the parishes of Scoonie and Largo is intersected by high-water mark of ordinary spring tides, thence westward in an oblique line, until it meets the southernmost point of an imaginary radius line six hundred yards from the southernmost point of the pier or breakwater, authorized by the said "Methil Harbour Order, 1883," and thence along the said radius line to the westmost point thereof.

III. No Ship-Master shall be bound to employ a Pilot either inward or outward.

IV. No person shall pilot or take charge of any vessel as Pilot within said limits without a License from Mr. R. Erskine Wemyss or his Factor, unless in the exceptional circumstances specified in the three hundred and sixty-second section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854." An unlicensed person assuming or continuing in the charge of any ship after a licensed Pilot has offered to take charge of her, or using a license which he is not entitled to use, for the purpose of making himself appear to be a qualified Pilot, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

V. Every person desirous of being licensed, shall lodge with Mr. Erskine Wemyss or his Factor, an application in his own hand-writing, setting forth his usual place of abode, his age, height, complexion, and any other circumstances or peculiarity descriptive of his person, and his employment during the three years preceding, and he shall also produce satisfactory certificates of character.

VI. Mr. Erskine Wemyss shall examine and inquire into the skill, ability, and character of any person who shall offer himself to be admitted as a Pilot for the harbours, and within the Pilotage limits, by such ways and means as to him shall seem proper, and if upon such inquiry the person so offering himself as a Pilot shall be approved of, a license may be granted, certifying that such person is duly qualified to act as Pilot within the Pilotage limits, which license shall be subscribed by the Factor, provided always that no person shall be appointed Pilot of the said limits unless he shall at least have been three years regularly engaged as fisherman or sailor at or frequenting the said harbours; and Mr. Erskine Wemyss, by granting such license or certificate to any Pilot, shall not be responsible for any accident, damage, or loss sustained, by any vessel, cargo, or person, by or through the inadvertence, negligence, or wilful act of the Pilot so licensed by him, provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the harbours from the provisions of any existing or future general Act of Parliament relating to Pilots.

VII. Every person shall, on his first admission as a Pilot, pay for his first license the sum of 10s. 6d. (ten shillings and sixpence), and for every renewal of the said license, 5s. (five shillings). Every license must be renewed annually, but may be recalled as aftermentioned.

VIII. Masters and Mates of vessels may be licensed by Mr. Erskine Wemyss or his Factor, in terms of sections three hundred and forty and three hundred and forty-one of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854." The fees paid by the said Masters and Mates shall be ten shillings and sixpence each upon the granting of certificates, and five shillings upon each renewal thereof, and these fees shall be applied to cover the general expenses connected therewith.

IX. The rates for Pilotage services shall be those specified in the table annexed hereto, and must be paid to the Collector of Dues at the harbour, and to no other person. These rates shall be paid over to the Licensed Pilots by the Collector of Dues, subject to deduction of five per cent. to cover expenses of collection.

X. Any qualified Pilot demanding or receiving, and also any Master offering or paying to any Pilot any other rate in respect to Pilotage services, whether greater or less than the rate for the time being demandable by law, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

XI. The Pilots are required to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the signals of the harbour, the Bye-laws and Regulations thereof, also with the harbour itself, the berths therein, the channel and fair-way thereof, the flow and ebb of the tides, and every other circumstance connected therewith, essential for the due performance of their duties with safety and despatch. They must implicitly obey the directions of the Harbour-Master, who will have power to see that all the Pilots execute their duties efficiently; and to report to the Factor all failures on their part to do so, and all breaches of these regulations.

XII. Every Pilot shall have a sufficient boat properly found to the satisfaction of Mr. Erskine Wemyss and his Harbour-Master. Every Pilot boat must be distinguished by the characteristics stated in the three hundred and forty-sixth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

XIII. The Pilots must always be readiness with their boats fully found and manned, to take charge of any vessel when required. They shall attend exclusively to the vessel under their charge, until she is berthed, if entering inwards, and so long as their services are required. No Pilot shall leave the vessel under his charge to assist other vessels, except with the consent of the Master, given in cases of great necessity and extreme danger.

XIV. Harbour Pilots, unless they are also Firth Pilots, shall not proceed in search of, or board vessels outwith the limits, as defined in Article I. hereof.

XV. All Pilots must observe strict sobriety and civility in discharge of their duties, and when a Pilot shall fail to observe or commit any breach of the Regulations, or shall discharge his duties insufficiently, or shall use improper language to any of the Harbour Officials while in discharge of their duties, or shall refuse to take the charge of any vessel upon a proper signal being made, or a gun fired by any vessel inward bound, or upon the application of the Master, Owner, or Agent of any vessel outward bound, or shall fail to attend before Mr. Erskine Wemyss or his Factor, to answer for any misconduct, such an offender shall be punished by temporary suspension or permanent deprivation of license, or by the infliction of a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, recoverable in terms of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854." Mr. Erskine Wemyss will also enforce the provisions of the three hundred and sixty-fifth, three hundred and sixty-sixth, and three hundred and sixty-seventh sections of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," against any Pilot committing any of the offences therein mentioned. Persons having cause of complaint against any Pilot, are requested to communicate the same, in writing, to the Factor or Harbour-Master.

XVI. The Master of all vessels desiring the services of a Harbour Pilot shall display and keep flying the usual signal for a Pilot, and shall, by all means consistent with safety, facilitate the getting on board of the first duly qualified Pilot who arrives at his vessel in answer to said signal.

XVII. The Master of every vessel employing a Pilot, shall sign and deliver, if so requested, to the Pilot in charge of his vessel, a certificate, stating the registered tonnage and draught of water of his vessel. In case of refusal, or making a false declaration, the Master shall incur a penalty for every such offence not exceeding double the amount of Pilotage.

XVIII. Vessels bound for the Harbour, must, if necessary, heave to in the roads until a Harbour Pilot is obtained, and vessels waiting for the tide, shall be so placed as to be ready to come in immediately on the proper signal being given.

XIX. Vessels not entering the Harbour, but merely passing through the Pilotage limits, shall not be bound to employ a Harbour Pilot. If a vessel bound to Leven or Methil for orders is brought to anchor within the Harbour limits by a Firth Pilot—not licensed as a Harbour Pilot—such Pilot shall be entitled to stay by such ship until orders are obtained when, if such ship is to proceed to another port, he shall be entitled to take her away; but if she receive orders to unload, or enter the Harbour, he shall cease to act as Pilot, and the Pilotage shall be undertaken by a Harbour Pilot.

XX. Ship Masters are directed to apply at least four hours before high-water, at the Harbour-Master's Office, for Pilots, previous to sailing.

XXI. The Harbour-Master shall have power to direct the attendance of a sufficient number of Pilots at his office four hours before high-water, so that they may be in readiness to perform the Pilotage duties required.

XXII. The Harbour-Master has power to give directions to Pilots, and to order them to take charge of any vessel when wanted.

XXIII. On arrival, vessels must be moored or berthed as ordered by the Harbour-Master or his assistants, and Pilots who may be in charge of vessels, must comply with such orders before their Pilotage is considered to be due.

XXIV. All numbers, whether of money or tonnage of vessels, shall be stated by Masters of vessels, and others in words, and not in figures.
