

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of January, 1887.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, globe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas George Howard Lord Bishop of Truro, hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the thirtieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six to the Right Honourable Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"We George Howard by Divine permission Bishop of Truro do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. That there is in the county of Cornwall and our diocese of Truro the parish of Talland which has its own parish church and is a vicarage and benefice whereof William Gundry of No. 7 Drapers'-gardens in London Esquire is the patron and the Reverend David Lloyd Thomas is the incumbent.

"2. That the said parish by the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one had a population of seven hundred and eighty persons and the gross annual income of the said vicarage is one hundred and fifty pounds or thereabouts.

"3. That adjoining the said parish of Talland is the parish of Lansallos in the same county and diocese which has its own parish church and is a rectory and benefice whereof Francis Buller Howell of Ethy in the same county Esquire is the patron and the Reverend John Edward Carthew is the incumbent.

"4. That the said parish of Lansallos by the census aforesaid had a population of seven hundred and seventeen persons and the gross annual income of the said rectory is five hundred pounds or thereabouts.

"5. That there is on the sea coast where the said two parishes adjoin a fishing village called Polperro part of which is in the parish of Talland and part in the parish of Lansallos and such village contains a population of one thousand and one hundred persons or thereabouts three hundred and fifty of whom reside in the west or Lansallos portion.

"6. That such village of Polperro is distant from the parish church of Talland about one mile and a half and from the parish church of Lansallos about two miles and a half and there is a chapel in the Lansallos part of the said village licensed for Divine service for the accommodation of the persons residing in such village and for several years past by an arrangement between the incumbents of the said two parishes such chapel has been served by the vicar of Talland.

"7. That it appears to us that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter forty-nine that portion of the parish of Lansallos which is described in the schedule hereto and which includes the portion of the village of Polperro lying within that parish may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Lansallos and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Talland to which the same may be more conveniently united.

"8. That pursuant to the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act we have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents in writing of the incumbents and patrons of the said parishes of Talland and Lansallos we hereby submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under our hand this thirtieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.
"Georg. H. Truron."

"The SCHEDULE above referred to.

"All that portion of the said parish of Lansallos which is bounded on the east partly by the parish of Talland aforesaid and partly by the English Channel on the south by the English Channel and on the west and north by an imaginary straight line drawn from a point adjoining the sea coast where the close numbered 859 on the tithe apportionment and map of the said
