Thorn, Alexander ...	Cremerne Wharf, Chelsea, and Park-holme, Elm Park-gardens, Fulham, both in Middlesex	Builder and Contractor ...	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	1159 of 1886	Feb. 8, 1887 ...	This scheme shall have effect and come into operation immediately after the approval of the Court has been given thereto, which date is herein referred to as the commencement of the scheme. The Trustee under this scheme to be Mr. Charles Lee Nichols, of No. 1, Queen Victoria-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, who is to act under the superintendence of a Committee of Inspection. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, immediately upon and from and after its commencement, all the property of the debtor shall vest in the Trustee, who shall hold the same, subject to the trusts and provisions contained in this scheme. As regards such part of the debtor's property as consists of contracts entered into by him, the Trustee and Committee of Inspection may at any time signify to the debtor that they do not consider that such contracts, or any one or more of them, ought to be assigned to or vest in the Trustee, and thereupon such contracts (herein called "the excepted contracts") shall remain vested in the debtor, but shall be held by him in trust for the benefit of the creditors, and the debtor shall, if requested so to do, execute a declaration of trust for the benefit of the creditors in respect of such contracts. If necessary a deed of assignment shall be executed by the debtor, in order to carry out the provisions of this clause of the scheme. All the property, including the excepted contracts, if any, shall be realized and converted into money, for the benefit of the creditors, in such manner, and at such times as shall be most advantageous, and all the proceeds of any property realized or arising from the completion of contracts, or otherwise obtained in respect of the property shall be
