By the King and Queen,

A PROCLAMATION.

Commanding all Papists, and Reputed Papists, forthwith to depart from the Cities of London and Westminster, and from within Ten Miles of the same.

MARIE R.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the several Acts of Parliament, whereby the Relisting of Papists in the Cities of London and Westminster, and Places thereunto adjacent, are declared to be dangerous to the Peace and Safety of this Kingdom, and the Ways and Methods Provided and Enacted, as well for Discovering as Arresting them; And notwithstanding the Manifestation of Their Majesties Privy-Council to extend Their Protection and Royal Grace to all such Persons, or Their Subjects that will leave Quietly and Peaceably in their respective Dwelling-places, being not affected to the said Popish Recusants, and of righting injuries, and every Respect to the said Cities and Places in great numbers, and thereby having opportunity to Meet, have taken great Holdings to Conspire and Proceede against Misbehaviour and Unreasonable Designs and Practices, contrary to the Duty of their Allegiance, Their Majesties have therefore thought fit (by the Advice of Their Privy-Council) to Issue out this Their Royal Proclamation, and to hereby strictly Charge and Command all Popish Recusants, and Persons reputed so to be, (Excepte Merchant Strangers, and such other Persons as in the said Acts are Excepted) on or before the Seven and twentieth Day of this instant June, to depart out of the said Cities, and from all Places within the same of Ten Miles of the same. And Their Majesties do hereby further Require and Command, That if any of the said Popish Recusants, or Persons reputed as such, or reputed to remain within any of the said Cities, or Towns adjacent, or repair or return to the same, they be proceeded against as Persons conspiring against the Peace and Welfare of the Government. And Their Majesties do hereby further Charge and Command the Lord Mayor of London, and all and every the Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other Their Majesties Officers and Ministers of Justice within the said Cities, and elsewhere of them, and within Ten Miles of the same, That they do make strict Search, and Enquiry for, and with all Vigour Proceed against all and every Person or Persons who shall be found within the said Cities of London and Westminster, and within Ten Miles of the same, contrary to the Effect of any of the said Statutes, and the Purpose of this Their Majesties Proclamation. And Their Majesties do further strictly Charge and Command, That upon or before the said Seven and twentieth Day of June, the Constables, Churchwardens, and other Officers within the said Cities and Places, do go from House to House in their several Parishes, Hamlets, Constables and Divisions respectively, and there take an Account of the Names and Surnames of all such Persons as are Popish Recusants, or reputed so to be, as well Husbands as Widows or Servants, and to carry a List of their Names to the two next Justices of the Peace, who are hereby Required and Entreated to send for, and Proceed against them (Excepting always Merchant Strangers, Settled Householders, and other Persons in the said Acts Excepted) as aforesaid; and they the said Justices are likewise Required, when they shall have received such Lists or Lists, to certify the same, together with their Proceedings thereupon, to Their Majesties most Honourably Privy-Council.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the Seventeenth Day of June, 1690. In the Second Year of Our Reign.

By the King and Queen,

A PROCLAMATION.

For the Confinement of Popish Recusants within Five Miles of their respective Dwellings.

MARIE R.

THEIR Majesties having received Information, That divers Popish Recusants having Conspired with, or Encouraged Their Majesties Enemies, do withdraw from their Habitations, Disguising and Endeavouring to Conspire and Seduce Their Majesties Subjects, and thereby Excite to Sedition and Rebellion, at this time, whilst Their Majesties with most of the Princes of Christendom, are engaged in a necessary War against the French King, for their common Security, and the particular Preservation of these Kingdoms, wherein the Interest and Safety of all and singular Their Majesties Subjects do depend; Have therefore (with the Advice of Their Privy-Council) to Issue this Their Royal Proclamation, and to hereby strictly Charge and Command all Popish Recusants, being above the Age of Sixteen Years, born within any of Their Majesties Realms or Dominions, or made Denizens, That they and every of them do (according to the Statutes in that behalf made) repair to their respective Places of Abode, and if they have no Places of Abode, then to the Places where the Father or Mother of such respective Person is, or shall be then dwelling, and do not thereafter Remove or Pass above Five Miles from thence. And Their Majesties do hereby further strictly Charge and Command all Their Justices, Justices, Magistrates, Ministers and Officers, That if such Popish Recusants, or Person reputed so to be, shall not repair to his or her Place of Abode, and there continue without Removing or Passing above Five Miles from thence, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the Statutes in that behalf made, they be proceeded against as Persons conspiring against the Peace and Welfare of the Government.
