The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

“ Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale is vested absolutely and without incumbrances as to one half part or alternate turn thereof in the vicar of the parish of Saint Helen (otherwise Church Town) Garstang in the said county and diocese, and his successors, and as to the other half part or alternate turn thereof in William Garnett of Quernmore Park Lancaster in the county of Lancaster and his heirs and assigns.

“ And whereas the present vicar of the said parish of Saint Helen (otherwise Church Town) Garstang, the Reverend Wilson Pedder Clerk in Holy Orders and the said William Garnett are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Manchester.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend James now Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas a certain benefaction has been paid to us the said Commissioners for the benefit of the said benefice upon the understanding that we shall promote the said transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale.

“ And whereas having regard to this benefaction the same transfer will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the said Wilson Pedder and with the consent of the said William Garnett (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale, now vested in them the said Wilson Pedder and William Garnett by way of moieties or alternate turns as aforesaid shall be transferred from them and each of them that is to say from the said Wilson Pedder and his successors in the incumbency of the said parish of Saint Helen (otherwise Church Town) Garstang and from the said William Garnett and his heirs and assigns to the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

“ Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary Rawtenstall of the said new parish of Saint James Waterfoot and of the said parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

“ And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district Alice Anne Rushton of Holly Bank Bowdon, in the county of Chester Widow has contributed a sum of two thousand two hundred pounds four and a half pounds per centum debenture stock of the Great Eastern Railway Company and has transferred the same into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister for the time being of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act then of the incumbent of the said new parish the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act.

“ And whereas the said Alice Anne Rushton has also contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of thirty three pounds six shillings and eight pence in further aid of the endowment of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being and we have in respect of such sum agreed and undertaken to provide and pay by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act the sum of one pound in each and every year during which the said capital sum shall continue in our hands.

“ And whereas the said sum of two thousand two hundred pounds four and a half pounds per centum debenture stock of the Great Eastern Railway aforesaid has been so provided and the said capital sum of thirty three pounds six shillings and eight pence has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly-herein named Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) when duly licensed as aforesaid the annual sum of fifty pounds sterling and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in manner hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary Rawtenstall of the said new parish of Saint James Waterfoot and of the said parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint John Clough Fold Rawtenstall.’

“ And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Alice Anne Rushton during her life and that from the day of the date of her death the whole remaining right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall in like manner be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of March, 1887.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for compensating a spiritual person whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Acts or one of them.

"Whereas under the provisions of the said Acts, the district of Rainbow Hill has been formed out of the parish of Claines in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester and the same district of Rainbow Hill became a new parish on the twenty-fifth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

"And whereas the Reverend Alfred Stephenson Porter, Clerk in Holy Orders is the vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Claines, and he was such vicar or incumbent at the date of the formation of the said district of Rainbow Hill.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees dues or other emoluments of the said Alfred Stephenson Porter as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by the formation of the said district of Rainbow Hill and we are of opinion that the annual sum of ten pounds would provide a just and reasonable compensation to the said Alfred Stephenson Porter for such diminution as aforesaid.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that in respect of the district (now a new parish as aforesaid) of Rainbow Hill, there shall be paid by us to the said Alfred Stephenson Porter so long as he shall continue to be the vicar or incumbent of the parish of Claines aforesaid, and no longer, the annual sum of ten pounds; payment of such annual sum to be made in equal half yearly portions upon the first day of May and the first day of November in each year and a proportionate payment to be also made in respect of any period being less than half a year which may elapse between the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be) in any year and the day on which from whatever cause the said Alfred Stephenson Porter shall cease to be such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of the said Alfred Stephenson Porter as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid to receive the said annual sum of ten pounds shall be held to have accrued and that payment thereof shall accordingly be made as from the twenty-fifth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five that being the day upon which as aforesaid the said district of Rainbow Hill became a new parish, and upon which day therefore the vicar or incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and become entitled to retain for his own benefit those fees, in consideration of the loss of which to the said Alfred Stephenson Porter the amount of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed has been fixed by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester. *C. A DECREE has been published under the direction of the Acting Governor-General of Porto Rico in the Official Gazette of the 3rd of this month, announcing that, in consequence of the existence of cholera in the ports of South America and Brazil, his Excellency, in conformity with the rules laid down by the Provincial Sanitary Commission, has thought fit to decree, that all vessels coming direct from these ports will be regarded as foul, and suspected if coming from St. Thomas, which island does not adopt adequate precautionary measures; and that vessels arriving from the localities indicated will be required to perform quarantine according to sanitary regulations.

It is laid down in these regulations that all vessels coming from the United States and Windward Islands, even with clean bills of health, are to be subjected to a period of from three to five days' observation, whilst those proceeding from South American ports and elsewhere with foul bills of health must undergo ten to fifteen days' quarantine if no sickness has broken out during the voyage, and for a longer period if the contrary should be the case. Irregular Posting of Parcels.

10. Any Packet transmissible by Parcel Post which, from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office Letter Box, or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or be dealt with as follows, that is to say:—

- (2.) If the said Packet is not fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage, the same may be forwarded to its destination, as a Parcel charged with the sum of one penny in addition, to all other postage payable upon such Packet as a Parcel. Provided that the postage prepaid upon any such Packet shall be allowed in part payment of any postage or other sum charged under this clause.

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

11. With regard to—

- (a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office to be called for, or to a place beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, or at Smyrna, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say:—

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the parcel, or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender, or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid; or, at the request of the sender, will be forwarded to a corrected address, or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), that the Parcel will in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender, or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice, from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not, at the time of such correction, lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
 - (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage, and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion direct or authorize.

- (11.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General, it becomes offensive or injurious to any Officer of the Post Office or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Re-direction of Parcels.

12. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom or Smyrna, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Smyrna is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom or Smyrna, as the case may be, to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

14. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

15. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel—

- (1.) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article whether similar to the above or not; or
- (2.) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character.
- (3.) Consisting of or containing—
 - (a.) Any explosive substance.
 - (b.) Any dangerous substance.
 - (c.) Any filth.
 - (d.) Any noxious or deleterious substance.
 - (e.) Any sharp instrument not properly protected.
 - (f.) Except with the special permission of the Postmaster-General, any living creature.

- (g.) Any article or thing whatsoever which is likely to injure other Parcels in course of conveyance, or any receptacle in which the same are conveyed, or an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such Parcel.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

16.—(1.) There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel consisting of or containing two or more Parcels or other Postal Packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses.

(2.) If any such Parcel be posted or tendered for conveyance by post the contents thereof, so far as the same consist of Parcels, may be forwarded to the addressees of such Parcels charged with new and distinct rates of postage according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and so far as the same consist of other Postal Packets may be treated and charged as unpaid Postal Packets, or such Parcel may be otherwise dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

17. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the Regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

18. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

19. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

20. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

21. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

22. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.
