Viscount Cross, G.C.B., in the absence of the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Secretary of State for the Home Department, was in attendance.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, respectively approach Your Majesty with the sincerest sentiments of loyalty and attachment.

We hail with rejoicing the forthcoming completion of the Fiftieth year of Your Majesty's beneficent and enlightened reign, and we gratefully remember and humbly acknowledge the countless national advantages which, under Divine Providence, have during the past half century been vouchsafed to our beloved country.

"We look forward with renewed hope and confidence to the still further development of the arts and influences of peace and civilization, fostered and encouraged as they have ever been by the wisdom and virtues of which Your Majesty is so bright an example.

"We humbly pray that the Giver of all Good may continue to Your Majesty, to Your Royal Family, and to the vast Empire beneath Your sway, those blessings which have hitherto been so mercifully and so abundantly bestowed."

Signed by the Order of the Court,

John B. Monckton, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you sincerely for your renewed assurances of loyalty and attachment to My Throne and Person.

"It gives Me great satisfaction in looking back on the past history of My Reign, to recall how much its prosperity is owing, under God, to the sound sense and good feeling of My subjects, and to the sympathy which has united the Throne and the People.

"I trust that by the Divine Blessing this cordial sympathy may continue unbroken, and that I shall always find, as heretofore, your ancient and illustrious Corporation, in common with all My other faithful subjects, zealous in every public and private effort to promote the happiness and welfare of the Realm."

Buckingham Palace, May 9, 1887.

THIS day, the Right Honourable Sir Reginald Hanson, Lord Mayor of London, Mr. J. Alldin Moore, Dr. Edwin Freshfield, and others, Her Majesty's Lieutenants for the City of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address.

Viscount Cross, G.C.B., in the absence of the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Secretary of State for the Home Department, was in attendance.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, and other Your Majesty's Lieutenants for the City of London, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our earnest congratulations on the completion of the Jubilee of Your Majesty's Reign.

The contemplation of so prolonged a period of wise and beneficent government over a happy and united people cannot but evoke in the hearts of Your Majesty's subjects a grateful recognition of the blessings which Providence has showered upon Your Majesty's realm since Your Majesty's Accession, and a sense of devout thanksgiving for the benignant care and protection which has ever been accorded to Your Majesty's Gracious Person.

Born in England, and educated in fond attachment to British institutions and interests, Your Majesty has, throughout Your illustrious reign, proved unwearied in the maintenance of the religious privileges and civil rights of all classes of Your subjects, and has ever had at heart, even when most tried by severe domestic affliction, the welfare of the varied sections of the community over which Your Majesty was called to rule.

Blessed with a continuance of national prosperity, and living amid all the privileges, liberties, and securities attendant upon a wise and judicious constitution, Your Majesty's subjects have so diligently and resolutely applied their genius, enterprise, and energy that this anniversary of Your accession to the Throne finds Your Majesty reigning, not only over an Empire of unparalleled magnitude, extent, and influence, but over a loyal and devoted people of many races and creeds, scattered over a large portion of the habitable globe, yet firmly united in loyalty and affection for Your Majesty's Person, Throne, and Family. This material development and prosperity of the British possessions, and this advance in all the arts and sciences of civilization, will ever render memorable the reign of Your Gracious Majesty.

In tendering their earnest felicitations at this auspicious period of Your Majesty's reign, it is also the devout wish and fervent prayer of Your Majesty's Lieutenants for the City of London, that Providence may long continue to this Empire the blessings which they, in common with their fellow subjects, derive under Your Majesty's beneficent sway, and that Your Majesty may always possess the hearts of Your devoted people.

By order,

H. Grose Smith, Clerk.

To which Her Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:—

"I RECEIVE with pleasure your renewed assurances of loyalty and devotion to My Person and Government.

"It is a source of great satisfaction to Me to receive these and similar warm congratulations from all parts of My Empire on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

"I rejoice in the evidence it affords that My subjects, though scattered in various parts of the world, continue closely bound together in their hearts by ties of mutual sympathy and by that steadfast loyalty to My Throne for which the City of London and its Lieutenants have always been conspicuous."

Whitehall, May 12, 1887.

THE following Addresses were presented to His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, who, as representing Her Majesty The Queen, opened the Royal Mining, Engineering, and Industrial Exhibition at Newcastle-on-Tyne, on 11th May, 1887.

To His Royal Highness the DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in Council assembled, respectfully offer to Your Royal Highness the cordial welcome of an ancient Corporation.

We desire to renew the assurance of our devoted loyalty and attachment to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, and to the Royal Family, of which Your Royal Highness is so distinguished a member; and to express our warm feelings of gratification and pleasure that Your Royal Highness, representing Her Majesty, graciously honours Newcastle with a visit in this the Jubilee Year of Her Majesty's most glorious reign, and associates an event so memorable in the history of our city, with the opening, on behalf of Her Majesty, of the Newcastle Royal Mining, Engineering, and Industrial Exhibition—an undertaking in which we are deeply concerned, and which we sincerely believe will advance the interests of the large commercial and manufacturing district of which Newcastle is the centre.

We trust that Your Royal Highness may long be spared to fulfil the duties of Your exalted station; and we earnestly pray that the blessing of God may ever rest upon our gracious and beloved Queen, on Your Royal Highness, and on all the Members of Your Royal House.

Given under our Corporate Seal this 29th day of April, 1887.

Benjamin Chapman Browne,
Mayor.
William Haswell Stephenson,
Sheriff.
Hill Motum, Town Clerk.

To which His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, on behalf of Her Majesty, gave the following Most Gracious Answer:—

"IN behalf of the Queen, whom I have the honour to represent this day, I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address on the occasion of opening the admirable Exhibition, which you have associated with the commemoration of the Fiftieth Year of Her Majesty's reign.

"Her Majesty recognizes with great satisfaction the loyalty and good feeling of this ancient Corporation, and feels confident that the zeal and energy which has organized this Exhibition, and has raised this city to its present high commercial importance, will always continue to animate their minds to the future advancement of their wealth and prosperity.

"I am much gratified with the warm manner in which you have received Me, and I heartily offer you My best wishes for the success of this Exhibition and the welfare of the City and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne."

To His Royal Highness The DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Executive Council, and Committees of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Royal Mining, Engineering, and Industrial Exhibition (International and Colonial), in this Jubilee Year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen, desire to express our most grateful acknowledgments of the deep interest which Her Majesty and Your Royal Highness have been graciously pleased to take in our undertaking, and our warm feelings of gratification and pleasure that Your Royal Highness, representing Her Majesty, graciously honours us with this visit, and by performing, on behalf of Her Majesty, the inaugural ceremony of to-day.

The undertaking which Her Majesty and Your Royal Highness have so honoured is one in which this district is deeply concerned, and to promote the success of which all classes of the community have spared no efforts.

The Exhibition is ready for your Royal Highness's inspection, and will be found to contain most important and valuable Exhibits of the Industries, Manufactures, and Products of this and other Countries. The Exhibits relating to Mining are varied and extensive, and are especially interesting, including a complete full-sized working model of a Coal Mine. The Fine Art Galleries contain a large and valuable Loan Collection of Works of Art, including two very generously lent by Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen. And there is among the rare and varied contents of the building many splendid and interesting objects selected from the possessions of Her Majesty, and of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. The reproduction of the Old Tyne Bridge of the last century is also worthy of attention.

We believe that our undertaking will be productive of the most beneficial results in extending commercial industry and developing trade and manufacture, and we shall ever remember the kindness of Her Majesty and Your Royal Highness in assisting our efforts to attain these results.

We desire to tender our dutiful expression of devoted loyalty to Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen, and we earnestly pray that every blessing may attend Your Royal Highness.

Dated this 11th day of May, 1887.

President.

To which His Royal Highness The Duke of Cambridge, on behalf of The Queen, returned the following Most Gracious Answer:—

"IT gives Me great pleasure to be permitted to represent The Queen on the opening of this interesting Exhibition, and in Her Majesty's behalf, I am to thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"The Queen has never ceased to take a deep interest in all that concerns the welfare and happiness of Her People, and Her Majesty gladly recognizes in the organization of this Exhibition conspicuous evidence of the progress of Engineering and of Industrial Skill and Science.

"It is impossible not to admire greatly the splendid collection of objects, I see this day, brought together to illustrate the Manufacturing and Mining Industries of this and other Countries, and I earnestly trust that the remarkable exhibits which relate to Mining may serve to suggest further means for the protection of those who labour in Collieries, as well as to assist in the development of that important branch of trade.

"I thank you for the cordial welcome with which you have received Me, which has given Me the greatest satisfaction, and I hope that the Exhibition may prove successful and entirely fulfil the excellent objects for which it has been designed.
