TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1887.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
June 27, 1887.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 16th of July, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, June 24, 1887.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to The Queen were presented to Her Majesty on Her return to Windsor Castle, on the 22nd day of June, 1887, after the performance in Westminster Abbey, on the 21st instant, of the Thanksgiving Service, on the occasion of the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Her Majesty's Reign :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

THE Magistrates of the County of Buckingham, in Quarter Sessions assembled, desire to approach Your Majesty, to offer their humble but heartfelt and loyal congratulations on the occasion of the Jubilee of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign.

The half century which has just elapsed has been a period of unexampled development throughout the British Empire, at Home, in the Colonies, and India.

The rapid increase of population, the development of trade, the increased facilities and great rapidity of intercommunication have wrought great changes in the requirements, the habits, and conditions of the people.

Under Your Majesty's gracious Sovereignty these varied circumstances have been met and provided for with foresight and judgment.

Laws providing for proper measures of sanitation have lessened the sufferings, and, by improving the health, added to the comfort of the working classes.

The principle has been established that education is a necessity, while the more general diffusion of knowledge, together with the more cultivated taste and the better training in artistic skill of the workmen, so much due to the Exhibition of 1851, and the fostering care of the Prince Consort, have enabled England to maintain its high place in the friendly rivalry of nations.

At the same time the great development of religious teaching, and the very large increase in the number of churches and places of Christian worship provided by voluntary munificence, have given a gratifying proof of the growth of religious feeling, which will conduce to the good of the people and the strength of the nation.

For these benefits and many others thus accrued during Your Majesty's long Reign we are ever thankful, and we pray that Your Majesty may long be blessed with health and strength to reign over us, to witness the prosperity and contentment of Your subjects, and the happiness of Your children and their families.

County Hall, Aylesbury,
June 22, 1887.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

"IT gives Me much pleasure to receive your loyal and dutiful Address of congratulation on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

"The remarkable development of the British Empire since the year when I began My reign has laid a heavy responsibility on Myself and on My subjects to meet the difficulties, to ward off the dangers, and to promote the happiness of the nation, both for the present and for future generations. So far, notwithstanding many and serious troubles and anxieties, by God's blessing a large measure of success, has attended the exertions of the nation.

"I pray that we may never slacken in our efforts to preserve the blessings we now enjoy."

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Chairman and Members of the Local Board for the District of Slough, in meeting assembled, desire humbly to approach Your Majesty with our most loyal and cordial congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's glorious Reign.

We deeply appreciate Your Majesty's most gracious permission to offer in person the assurance of our loyal and dutiful greeting, our thankful acknowledgment of the signal blessings of Your beneficent rule, and our sincere devotion to the Throne.

During half a century of the most eventful period in the history of the nation Your Majesty has exhibited the deepest concern for the true welfare and best interests of all classes of Your Majesty's subjects.

It is our humble and fervent prayer, that by the blessing of Almighty God Your Majesty's life may long be spared to rule the destinies of this Great Empire, and to reign in peace and happiness, secure in the loving allegiance of a prosperous, united, and loyal people.

Given under our Common Seal at a Meeting of the Slough Local Board, on the 22nd day of June, 1887.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

"I RECEIVE with great satisfaction your loyal and dutiful Address, on the occasion of the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

"I rejoice that the inhabitants of Slough, like the rest of My people, have taken advantage of the opportunity to express their sense of the many blessings with which it has pleased God to favour this nation since I have ascended the Throne."

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Masters of Your Royal College of Eton, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We recall the many blessings which under God's Providence we owe to Your Majesty's beneficent rule, with feelings of gratitude shared by all Your Majesty's loyal subjects, but especially due from the members of this College, which owes its foundation to one of Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and has received so many marks of Royal countenance and favour alike from them and from Your Majesty. We cannot forget that the period of Your Majesty's Reign has been marked by an unparalleled activity and progress, and the necessity of dealing with some of the most difficult problems which can try the wisdom of rulers. At no time has a like period been marked by so many scientific discoveries, such development of material resources, such a growth of new and powerful communities, and by such changes in the habits and requirements of the people. Among those requirements none have been more urgent than the need of increased facilities and improved methods of education. Few things are more characteristic of Your Majesty's Reign than the extension of popular education, and the efforts for the promotion of culture and the improvement of taste among all classes, which we owe so largely to the noble example of the lamented Prince Consort. And it will ever be one of the chief glories of this reign that, in a time of so much activity and expansion, the influence of Your Majesty's just and constitutional rule and solicitous regard for the welfare of all classes, has resulted in a peaceful and orderly progress, in a general improvement in the condition of the people, and in most cordial relations between Your Majesty's subjects in the Colonies and the Mother Country, while the example of Your Majesty's domestic life, alike in times of prosperity and times of sorrow, has drawn the hearts of Your Majesty's subjects more closely to Your Royal person, and strengthened the ties of loyalty and affection which unite the people to the Throne.

In offering to Your Majesty our earnest and respectful congratulations, we join in the hope and prayer that, under God's favour, Your Majesty may long be supported in the exercise of Your high office by the blessings of a quiet and prosperous Reign, and the assured possession of the affection and loyalty of a happy and united people.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

"I AM much gratified at your loyal and dutiful Address, on the occasion of the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

"It is an infinite satisfaction to Me to join with you in marking the great progress made since the beginning of My Reign, in bringing the means of education within the reach of all classes of My subjects, and in raising the general standard of culture and of taste.

"I am confident that this great College will never cease to distinguish itself as it has hitherto done, as a place where sound learning and healthy moral training are imparted to so many of the rising generation, amongst whom will probably be found the future leaders of the English people."

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the King's Scholars and Oppidans of Your Royal College and School of Eton, humbly ask permission to approach Your Majesty with the most loyal and dutiful utterance of our heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

We, who have the peculiar good fortune of passing our boyhood in this happy School, placed by the loving care of Your Royal ancestor, our pious founder King Henry VI, so close under the shadow and protection of the Royal residence, have received from our predecessors, and shall hand on to those that come after us, as a most pious tradition, a spirit of affection and devotion to the Crown.

And in addition to this ancient and deeply-rooted loyalty, a plant which cannot wither in this congenial soil, we feel that our generation has a peculiar cause for gratitude to Your Majesty for the gracious condescension and consideration that has been shown to us on so many occasions, and for the kindly interest that has been taken by Your Majesty in all that concerns our welfare.

We cannot forget how deeply the School is indebted to the wisdom and kindness of the lamented Prince Consort for the encouragement which he gave to the study of modern languages in the School by the foundation of prizes, which Your Majesty has, year by year, most graciously continued in His name.

With much gratitude, therefore, and with strong feelings of personal devotion to Your Majesty, we humbly offer You our congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of a Reign, which as it has no parallel for eventfulness in the progress of this nation, so has not been surpassed in beneficence by that of any Ruler.

We add to this our prayers that, by the blessing of Providence, Your Majesty may long continue in the enjoyment of health and strength and peace and happiness, to hold the sceptre of this great Kingdom and Empire, and to reign, as now, in the hearts and affections of Your people.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

"IT gives Me great pleasure to receive your congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign, and to find that the interest which I have always felt in your welfare is so fully recognized by your devoted loyalty.

"I am happy to think that during My Reign Eton Scholars and Oppidans have fully sustained the ancient reputation of their College; and I am confident that you, who show so keen an appreciation of the advantages which you enjoy in this School, will not suffer that reputation to grow dim, and that each of you, in the measure of his abilities, will strive to make Eton flourish in happy concert with the general prosperity of My realm."

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Eton Local Board of Health.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Chairman and Members of the Eton Local Board of Health, on behalf of the inhabitants of the town of Eton, venture to approach Your Majesty with every sentiment of loyal devotion, and the sincere expression of our heartfelt congratulations.

In this happy year of Your Majesty's Jubilee, it is our highest honour to assure Your Majesty of our deep sense of the inexpressible gratitude which we, in common with all Your faithful subjects throughout the United Kingdom and its mighty dependencies, feel towards Your Majesty for the unceasing care and self-sacrificing love which, through fifty years, Your Majesty has so constantly shown, in securing the welfare of all Your people.

We regard it as chiefly due to Your Majesty's high example and unfailing wisdom, sustained by the presence and the memory of one, whose profound and benevolent plans are daily yielding a richer harvest of untold good, that, under the blessing of a protecting Providence, a progress alike so unprecedented and so sure, in all branches of industry, skill, and knowledge, has throughout these years been unceasingly maintained.

We believe that the page of history can show no other Sovereign whose lot it has been to guide the destinies and increase the happiness of such a multitude of races, or on whom the peace and welfare of so many millions of mankind depend.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may long live, and continue for many years to fill the Throne of Your ancestors, and that the guiding hand of Divine Providence will ever direct all events for the promotion of Your Majesty's happiness and the welfare of your far-extended Empire.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Eton Local Board of Health, this 21st day of May, 1887.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

"I RECEIVE with sincere gratification your loyal and dutiful Address on the occasion of the completion of the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

"I am very sensible of the warmth of your devotion to My Throne and Person, and I feel deeply the universal anxiety of My subjects in their various capacities to join in the hearty congratulations which have come to Me from all parts of My Empire, in this Year of Jubilee."

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, your loyal subjects, subscribers to the Windsor and district scheme for the celebration and commemoration of the Jubilee of Queen Victoria, beg leave to offer our most respectful and dutiful congratulations on the happy completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's beneficent Reign.

We ask permission to welcome Your Majesty on Your return this day, amid the acclamations of a devoted people, to the Royal residence in the neighbourhood of which it is our privilege to dwell.

We trust that Your Majesty will look with satisfaction on the Statue now to be unveiled.

It has been placed here by the willing gifts of subscribers living in this town and in twenty parishes within a radius of five miles from this spot. We have hoped that it will be considered a not unworthy memorial of the fifty years during which, in joy and sorrow, Windsor Castle has been the home of Queen Victoria, and some acknowledgment of the many acts of personal kindness and Royal bounty which we of this town and district have received at the hands of our Sovereign.

We earnestly pray that the Reign, which has been so signally blest hitherto, may be prolonged through many years, and that the protection of the Almighty and the love of a united people may be continued to Your Majesty, even to Your life's end.

Signed on behalf of the Subscribers,

H. L. Simpson,

Mayor and Chairman of Committees of Subscribers.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:—

“I RECEIVE with great satisfaction your loyal and dutiful Address, and I accept with cordial pleasure the Statue by which you propose to commemorate the Fiftieth Year of My Reign.

“I am deeply touched at the gratifying and enduring evidence which this work of art affords of your attachment to My Throne and Person. It is particularly pleasing to Me that this memorial should have been erected by the inhabitants of this neighbourhood, among whom so much of My Reign has been spent and so many events of My life have occurred.

“I trust that Windsor may ever share in all the prosperity and happiness which it may please God to bestow on the English people.”

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of General His Serene Highness Prince William Augustus Edward of Saxe-Weimar, K.C.B., to be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the First Class, or Knights Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, instead of to the same rank in the Civil Division thereof, as stated in the Second Supplement to the London Gazette of 17th June, 1887 (dated 21st June, 1887).

ERRATA.

In the Second Supplement to the London Gazette of 17th June, 1887 (dated 21st June, 1887), Major-General G. T. Chesney, C.S.I., C.I.E., R.E., should have been described as a Lieutenant-General, and should take seniority accordingly in the appointments as an Ordinary Member of the Military Division of the Third Class, or Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

In the same Gazette the second Christian name of Major-General G. C. Hankin, Bengal Staff Corps, should be Crommelin, and not Cornelius, as therein stated.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All Treasury Warrants at any time heretofore made relating to the conveyance by post of postal packets (which term in this Warrant means and includes all letters, post cards, newspapers, packets of commercial papers, packets of printed papers, and pattern or sample packets) between the United Kingdom and Cameroons, Sette Cama, Nyanza, Majumba, and Blackpoint, and also between any British Colony or Foreign Country and the places last mentioned, are hereby annulled to the extent to which such Warrants respectively relate to the several matters comprised in this Warrant as aforesaid.

2. The rates of postage and additional sum for registration now chargeable and payable by the authority of the Treasury Warrant of the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or the schedules thereunder written, on postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to Liberia, to or from any other country or place affected by the provisions of such last-mentioned Warrant of the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and all regulations and conditions as to the posting, forwarding, conveyance, and delivery of postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post now in force and applicable thereto, shall extend and apply to all postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to Cameroons, Sette Cama, Nyanza, Majumba, and Blackpoint aforesaid, to or from any other country or place affected by the provisions of such last-mentioned Warrant of the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the same way as if the places last mentioned had been named in such last-mentioned Warrant of the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or the schedules thereunder written.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

*Sidney Herbert,
W. H. Walrond,*

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 166 of the year 1887.)

NORTH SEA.—NETHERLANDS COAST.

(1.) Texel Island—Amended Position of Wreck North-Westward of Eijerland.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 106 of 3rd May, 1887, on the existence of a sunken wreck, lying westward of Vlieland Island; and about  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles N.W. by N. from Eijerland:—

The Netherlands Government has given further notice, that the wreck lies with the following bearing and distance:—

Eijerland Lighthouse, S.E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S., distant 15 miles.

Position, lat.  $53^{\circ} 19\frac{1}{2}'$  N., long.  $4^{\circ} 32'$  E.

NOTE.—The foremast of the wreck is gone, and mizen-mast broken off 29 feet below water, the mainmast, of iron, still standing, has the topmast above water. Over the hull there is a depth of 10 fathoms.

GERMAN COAST—ELBE RIVER.

(2.) Regulations Regarding Lights.

The German Government has given notice, dated 4th June, 1887, with reference to regulations for preventing collisions at sea, of 1st September, 1880, Article 25, that vessels dropping an anchor in order to swing to the tide, off St. Pauli or in any part of Hamburg Harbour, with the intention of at once taking up their moorings, must carry the lights specified in Articles 3 and 6 of the above mentioned regulations, and in addition show a blue light from the stern, until the anchor is weighed.

Vessels remaining at anchor in the channel near Hamburg Harbour, or dropping an anchor in order to swing to the tide, in other parts of the Elbe, must carry the lights specified in Article 8 of the above mentioned regulations, until the anchor is weighed.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation  $15\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1887.]

This Notice (temporarily) affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North Sea, No. 2182a; Scheveningen to Ameland, No. 2322. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1887, pages 193, 230, 241.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 168 of the year 1887.)

COASTS OF FRANCE.

Caution Respecting Fog Signals.

THE French Government has given notice, dated 21st May, 1887, that it is not always possible to determine, at the fog signal stations on the Coasts of France, the existence of fog banks in the offing; and that always, nearly an hour may elapse from the time it is considered necessary to use the fog signal, until it is first made.

Mariners are therefore cautioned, that when approaching the land in a fog, they should not rely implicitly upon these fog signals, but should always use the lead, which, in nearly all cases, will give sufficient warning.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

17th June, 1887.

This Notice affects:—Admiralty List of Lights in the North Sea, 1887; List of Lights on the Western Shores of Europe, 1887. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1887; Channel Pilot, Part II, 1882; and Sailing Directions for the West Coasts of France, 1885.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

ENGLAND—EAST COAST.—RIVER MEDWAY.

Queenborough—Alteration in Position and Height of Leading Lights.

INFORMATION has been received, that in consequence of the enlargement of Queenborough Pier, West Swale, south side of River Medway, the following alterations have been made in the position and heights of the leading lights (red) exhibited therefrom to guide over the Lapwell Bank.

The low light is now exhibited from the northern extremity of the pier, at an elevation of 20 feet above high water, and the high light (situated 300 feet southward of the low light), at a height of 50 feet.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

22nd June, 1887.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North Foreland to Orfordness, No. 1610; North Foreland to the Nore, No. 1607; Sea Reach, Thames River, No. 1185; River Medway, sheet I, No. 1833. #### INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of East Ward, in the county of Westmorland, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county, an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the King's Head Hotel, in Appleby, on Saturday, the 2nd day of July, 1887, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes of the said division of East Ward, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Chas. Keith-Falconer.

Sidney F. Osborne.

Inland Revenue, London, June 25, 1887.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Sandwich, in the county of Kent, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the town and liberty of Sandwich, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Guildhall, Sandwich, on Wednesday, the 6th day of July, 1887, at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax for the division of Sandwich aforesaid.

Thames Conservancy.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames propose to make the following Bye-laws:—

BYE-LAWS for the Amendment of the Bye-laws for the Regulation, Management, and Improvement of the Navigation of the River Thames, allowed by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council on the 18th day of March, 1880.

THE Conservators of the River Thames in exercise of the power and authority vested in them by the Thames Acts, 1857 to 1883, and of every other authority them thereunto in anywise enabling, do order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

From and after the day when these Bye-laws shall be allowed by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, Bye-laws 17, 18, and 19 of the Bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the navigation of the River Thames, allowed by Her Majesty in Council on the 18th day of March, 1880, including the words "steam whistle signals," immediately preceding such Bye-law 17, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and the said Bye-laws of the 18th day of March, 1880, shall have effect, and be construed as if the following Bye-laws had been inserted therein in lieu of such repealed Bye-laws; and the following Bye-laws shall have effect and be construed accordingly, and shall be taken to have been numbered as the same are hereafter numbered, and the words "Bye-laws and Rules regulating the Navigation of the River between Yantlet Creek and a line drawn from Blackwall Point to Bow Creek," in the said Bye-laws of the 18th day of March, 1880, shall be thereafter read as if the same immediately preceded the words "steering and sailing rules," leading to Bye-law 20, and the following Bye-laws shall apply to the River Thames from Yantlet Creek to Teddington.

Steam Whistle Signals.

17. When two steam vessels are in sight of one another, and are approaching with risk of collision, the following steam signals shall be intimations of the course they intend to take.

When intending to pass portside to portside.

(a.) One short blast of the steam whistle of about three seconds' duration to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard, and intend to pass you portside to portside." The use of this signal shall be optional.

When intending to pass starboard side to starboard side.

(b.) Two short blasts of the steam whistle, each of about three seconds' duration to mean, "I am directing my course to port, and intend to pass you starboard side to starboard side. The latter signal shall not be used in the case provided by Rule 22 where that rule can be obeyed; but it shall be compulsory to use this signal when a departure from that rule is necessary to avoid immediate danger.

When intending to reverse engines.

(c.) Three short blasts of a steam whistle, each of about three seconds' duration, shall mean, "I am reversing my engines."

When a vessel is not under command.

18. When a steam vessel is turning round, or for any reason is not under command and cannot get out of the way of an approaching vessel, or when it is unsafe or impracticable for a steam vessel to keep out of the way of a sailing vessel, she shall signify the same by four or more blasts of the steam whistle in rapid succession, the blasts to be of about three seconds' duration.

Prolonged blast of not less than five seconds' duration.

19. The signals by whistle mentioned in the preceding rules shall not be used on any occasion or for any purpose except those mentioned in the rules, and no other signal by whistle shall be made by any steam vessel unless it be by a prolonged blast of not less than five seconds' duration.

19a. Vessels coming out of dock shall signify the same by a prolonged blast of the steam whistle of not less than five seconds' duration; and in cases where a vessel is not under steam the tug boat in attendance shall make the same signal, and no other steam whistle signal shall be made by vessels coming out of dock.

Any person desirous of making any objection to, or representation respecting, such proposed By-laws may do so, in writing or otherwise, on or before Saturday, the 13th day of August next, by sending the same to, or leaving or making the same at, the offices of the said Conservators, 41, Trinity-square, Tower-hill, London.

By order,

James H. Gough, Secretary of the Conservators of the River Thames.

Thomas Sharpe.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
WHEREAS Thomas Wilkinson the elder, late of Finchley, Middlesex, England (who died in the month of May, 1818), by his will gave, after the death of his daughter, Jane Sharpe, certain freehold and copyhold hereditaments, situate at Finchley aforesaid, to such of her children as should be living at her decease. And whereas, by the Judgment in an action Ross v. Reynolds, 1885, R., No. 826, an enquiry was directed as to who were the persons interested in the said hereditaments, and for what estates and interests, and in what shares and proportions. And whereas, it appears on prosecuting the said enquiry, that the above-named Thomas Sharpe was a son of the said Jane Sharpe, and that he left England in the month of June, 1849, for the Southern States of America, where he had settled as a Farmer, and has not since been heard of. And whereas, service of notice of the said Judgment on the said Thomas Sharpe, if alive, or, if dead, upon his devisee or heir has been dispensed with. And whereas the said hereditaments have been sold, and the proceeds have been paid into Court to the credit of the said action, and the 16th day of August, 1887, has been fixed by the Judge as the time for the distribution of the said proceeds. Pursuant to the said Judgment, and the provisions of "The Partition Act, 1876," the said Thomas Sharpe, if alive, or, if dead, his devisee or heir, is, or are, by his or their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of August, 1887, to come in and establish his or their claim to participate in the said proceeds of sale of the said hereditaments, at the chambers of Mr. Justice Kay, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof the Court will proceed to distribute the said proceeds in accordance with the rights of the parties. Tuesday, the 16th day of August, 1887, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims.—Dated this 17th day of June, 1887.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the matter of the trusts of Thomas Piper's settlement, dated 16th November, 1846, and in an action of Binney against Merley, 1886, P., No. 1435, Martin Bladen Binney (alias William or Bill Mitchell), one of the sons of the Reverend Thomas Binney, late of Upper Clapton, in the county of Middlesex, England, if living, or if dead, his legal personal representatives, and any child, children, or other issue living at the time of his decease, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 16th day of February, 1888, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Chitty, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, Middlesex, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Thursday, the 23rd day of February, 1888, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 16th day of June, 1887.

George Richard Brownjohn, Deceased.
