

twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Hallows situate in the new parish (sometime district) of Burley within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter Leeds in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Burley and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint George Leeds which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Burley and of the said new parish of Saint George Leeds should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Hallows situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon as such Bishop, and with the consents of Samuel Hey of Headingley Hill, Leeds aforesaid, Esquire, of Thomas Harrison of Wyther, Kirkstall, near Leeds aforesaid Esquire, of Richard Hale Braithwaite of Headingley, Leeds aforesaid, Esquire, of William Illingworth of Burley aforesaid Esquire and of Charles Ryder of Leeds aforesaid Esquire, the patrons of the vicarage of the new parish of Burley aforesaid, and with the consents of James Stables of Horsforth, Leeds aforesaid, Esquire, of the said Samuel Hey, of Henry Briscall of Leeds aforesaid Esquire, of James Rider of Leeds aforesaid Esquire, and of Samuel Henry Ramsbotham of Leeds aforesaid Esquire the patrons of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint George Leeds aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Burley and of the said new parish of Saint George Leeds which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Hallows situate in the new parish of Burley as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of All Hallows, Leeds.

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to Your Majesty; in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of All Hallows, Leeds, being:—

“I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district) of Burley within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter Leeds in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of Wrangthorn upon the south-east by the herein-after described portion of the new parish of Saint George, Leeds, both within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing at the point on the south-eastern side of Woodsley-road near to its junction with Hyde Park-road where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George Leeds from the new parish of Burley aforesaid joins the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Simon Leeds also within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter Leeds aforesaid and extending thence westward and in a direct line across Woodsley-road aforesaid to a point in the middle of Hyde Park-road aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Alexandra-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Queen’s-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary a little to the south of the junction of the same road with Royal Park-road which boundary divides the said new parish of Burley from the new parish of Wrangthorn aforesaid.

II. “And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint George Leeds which is bounded upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Simon Leeds aforesaid upon the north-west partly by the hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Burley aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Wrangthorn aforesaid upon the north-east by the district parish of Saint Mark Woodhouse also within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter Leeds aforesaid and upon the remaining side, that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse from the new parish of Saint George, Leeds aforesaid at a point on the north-eastern side of Moorland-road opposite to the middle of the northern end of Belle Vue-road, and extending thence south-westward for a distance of twenty-six and a half chains or thereabouts to and along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Leeds, from the new parish of Saint Simon, Leeds aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is
