C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, July 12, 1887.

THE following Statute, made by the Governing Body of Pembroke College, Oxford, on the fourteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

A STATUTE made by the Master and Fellows of Pembroke College, Oxford, in amendment of the Statutes made under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act of 1877.

Whereas by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act of 1877, 40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48, sections 54 and 55, it is enacted, that a Statute made by the Commissioners for a College shall be subject to alteration from time to time by Statute made by the College under this Act, the same being passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the College, specially summoned for this purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting; and further, that every such alteration of Statute shall be submitted to the Queen in Council, and be proceeded on and have effect as if it were a Statute made by the Commissioners.

Now, therefore, We, the Master and Fellows of Pembroke College, in the University of Oxford, being this day assembled in a General Meeting specially summoned for the purpose, after due notice given of the business to be transacted thereat, do, by unanimous vote of those present and voting, enact as follows, that is to say, in the Statute VI, clause 8, in lieu of the words “and four Scholarships on the Foundation of George Townsend, Esquire (called the Townsend Scholarships),” we substitute the following words:— “and as many Scholarships, not exceeding four, on the Foundation of George Townsend, Esquire (called the Townsend Scholarships), as the income arising from the endowment given by the will of the Founder shall from time to time suffice to maintain, without diminishing the annual sum of £80, payable as hereinafter ordained to each Scholar, or affecting the tenure of any Scholar then existing.”

Given under our Common Seal this fourteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Privy Council Office, July 12, 1887.

THE following Statute, passed on the fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, by the Governing Body of the House of Christ Church, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Christ Church Statute XXII Clause 1 altered by the Governing Body on fourth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, by omitting the words “from the Midsummer day next following” and by substituting the words “from a day to be fixed by the Governing Body, which shall not be later than the actual commencement of the Scholar’s residence.”

STATUTE XXII.

1. There shall be an election to six open scholarships in every year; they shall be tenable for two years from the day of election, if the person elected be already a Member of the University, if otherwise, from a day to be fixed by the Governing Body, which shall not be later than the actual commencement of the Scholar’s residence, and (at the expiration of such two years) shall then determine, unless the Governing Body have by resolution declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar, in which case the Scholar’s tenure shall be renewed for a further term of two years
