TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1887.

Whitehall, August 9, 1887.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.
The Humble and Loyal Address of the Mayor, Sheriff, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Norwich.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Sheriff, Aldermen, and Citizens of Norwich, in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer Your Majesty our most earnest and sincere congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's beneficent and enlightened Reign, and we gratefully acknowledge the countless national blessings and advantages which Divine Providence has vouchsafed during the past fifty years, making Your Majesty's Reign the most remarkable era in the annals of Great Britain.

We are sensible that the enjoyment of these blessings is greatly derived from the exemplary virtues of Your Majesty, which so justly endear you to all Your Subjects.

We trust that Your Majesty's life may long be spared, and our fervent prayer is, that Almighty God may continue to Your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the vast Empire beneath Your sway, those blessings which have hitherto been so richly bestowed.

Given under our Corporate Seal this 31st day of May, 1887.

*Henry Bullard, Mayor.
H. B. Miller, Town Clerk.*

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President and Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Aberdeen (Incorporated), desire to approach Your Majesty and to express our respectful congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign. In common with all Your Majesty's subjects, we feel thankful to Almighty God for having so long spared Your Majesty to rule over the destinies of this Nation, and for the innumerable blessings which have attended Your Majesty's happy Reign.

As representing the mercantile interests of this city and district, we cannot fail to recall the vast expansion of commerce and wealth, which has so largely resulted from the prevalence of peace and the increased stability of our institutions, the outcome of Your Majesty's wise and beneficent rule, and we pray God that Your Majesty may be long spared to live in the affection of an attached and loyal people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the President and Council of the Aberdeen Chamber of Commerce, and the Seal of Incorporation hereunto affixed, at Aberdeen, this 14th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1887.
*Alex. Forbes, President.
James Tytler, Secretary.*

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA,
QUEEN.

THE inhabitants of St. Kilda, in the Outer Hebrides, desire to echo from their lonely and remote Island the general rejoicing of Your Majesty's subjects upon the celebration of the Jubilee of Your Majesty's glorious and happy Reign. We beg to express our most sincere and devoted loyalty to our gracious Sovereign; and we humbly pray that Almighty God may bestow His choicest blessings upon Her person, Her Family, and Her Realm.

And we humbly beg to represent to Your Majesty that we greatly feel the need of regular communication with the mainland.

Signed at St. Kilda, on the 30th day of June, 1887, in name and by authority of the inhabitants, assembled within the Free Church.

*John McKay, Minister.
Ronald Macdonald, Teacher.
Neil McKinnon, Crofter.
Malcolm McKinnon.
Finlay McQueen.*

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Senate of the Royal University of Ireland, desire respectfully to approach Your Majesty, and to tender our loyal and dutiful congratulations upon the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your reign over Your great Empire.

We remember with gratitude that it is to Your Majesty we owe the foundation of this our University, and we gladly recognize that Your Majesty has graciously availed Yourself of the powers conferred upon You by Your Parliament to make this recent addition to the Universities of the Kingdom.

We recognize with great satisfaction the benefits likely to accrue to the people of this country from the establishment of this University; and while we feel that much has been accomplished within the few years of its existence, we will endeavour, by zealous attention to our trust, to carry out the objects which Your Majesty had in view in its creation.

It is a matter of much pleasure to us that we have the privilege of having enrolled amongst our Graduates both their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

We fervently pray that it may please Almighty God to grant to Your Majesty many further years of health and happiness, and that You may be enabled still further to promote the best interests of Your people.

Signed on behalf of the University,

John T. Ball,
pro Vice-Chancellor.

The Royal University of Ireland,
Dublin, June, 1887.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Procureur de la Reine, and the Deputies of the several parishes and cantons of Your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, on the occasion of inaugurating a portrait of Your Majesty, voted by them on the 29th of December last, to be procured for the purpose of commemorating the happy Jubilee of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne, beg leave to approach Your Majesty most humbly and respectfully, and with sincere sentiments of loyalty and affection, on the auspicious completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's glorious Reign.

Although differing in language, laws, and institutions from others of Your Majesty's subjects, the people of Guernsey yield to none in hearty attachment to the Crown of England, and they are deeply sensible of the blessings they enjoy under Your Majesty's beneficent rule. They pride themselves on the loyalty which, for near a thousand years, and during times of great trial, their ancestors have invariably shown towards Your Majesty's illustrious predecessors, the Dukes of Normandy and Kings and Queens of England, to whose protecting power and wise government they feel themselves indebted, under God, for the blessings and prosperity they now enjoy, and they call to remembrance with feelings of gratitude and affection Your Majesty's gracious visits to their shores on more than one occasion.

We humbly pray that the Almighty may be pleased to vouchsafe to Your Majesty, to the Royal Family, and to the extensive Empire over which Your Majesty bears rule, a continuance of those blessings which have hitherto accompanied Your Majesty's Reign.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble and Dutiful Address of the States of Your Majesty's Island of Alderney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Acting Lieutenant-Governor, the Judge, the Jurats, the Queen's Officers, the Minister, and Douzainiers of Your Majesty's Island of Alderney, in the States assembled, and in the name of the Inhabitants thereof, desire most humbly to approach Your Majesty, to offer the expression of our most humble and sincere congratulations on this the day of Your Majesty's Jubilee.

To-day is a day of rejoicing throughout Your Majesty's dominions. Having reigned for fifty years, how thankful we are to an All-wise Providence in having thus preserved our Queen to Her loving people, the only Queen of these realms that has ever been so blessed.

Although forming but a small portion of Your Majesty's dominions, we cede it to none in our loyalty, love, and attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and on the celebration of Your Majesty's Jubilee, we, the inhabitants of the Island of Alderney, have been impressed by Your Majesty's love and goodness to the poor, and pride ourselves that in commemoration of this happy event the poor have not been forgotten, having decided to erect a poor house, worthy of the occasion, the foundation stone of which has been laid this day, as a lasting memorial of our love and attachment to Our Most Gracious Queen.

We humbly pray, and implore the Almighty to preserve Your Majesty for many years to come to reign over a loyal and devoted people.

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, desire to offer to You our congratulations on the happy completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Reign. The period over which it has pleased Almighty God to extend Your Majesty's rule, will always be memorable in history for the extension of Your Empire, for the growth of Your people, for the achievements of Your Army and Navy, and for the discoveries and inventions which have extended the knowledge of man and have enabled him to assert his mastery over nature, but we believe that Your Majesty's Reign will hereafter be still more closely identified with the increased prosperity of all classes of Your people, with the happy decrease of pauperism and crime, and with an improvement in manners and morality.

While we are aware that many causes have contributed to the improvement to which we have referred, we have no doubt that under Providence it has been promoted by the example that Your Majesty has afforded to Your subjects, and by the efforts which Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal Family have made to secure to all classes of the people increased opportunities for education and for rational amusement.

We gladly recognize that the Isle of Man has participated in the progress which the rest of Your Majesty's Empire has made during the fifty years of Your Reign. The great industrial inventions which have characterized the period have connected it more closely with Your Majesty's other possessions, but the Island still remains, under Your Majesty's wise rule, a Kingdom, ruled by its own laws, happy in its own constitution, and yielding a loyal obedience to Your Majesty as the successor of its long line of Sovereigns.

In this Island, moreover, as in the larger countries around it, social improvement during Your Majesty's Reign has been accompanied by political progress. The House of Keys, with Your Majesty's consent, has been converted into a representative body, the Surplus Revenues of the Island, by Your Majesty's liberality, have been surrendered to insular purposes, and the system of judicature has been simplified and improved to meet the exigencies of modern civilization.

Though Your Majesty's has not been able, during Your Reign, to land on our shores, and has only on one occasion visited our seas, we desire respectively to assure You that throughout Your wide dominions Your Majesty has no more loyal subjects than the Manx people, and that in no part of Your possessions is there a deeper feeling of gratitude for the blessings which have been enjoyed under Your rule, or a more fervent prayer to Almighty God for the prolongation of Your Reign.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, August 6, 1887.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch, dated 1st instant, from the Austro-Hungarian Chargé d'Affaires in London, enclosing the following translation of a Circular respecting quarantine regulations against arrivals from Sicily and Calabria:—

Circular of the Austrian Maritime Government to all officers and harbour functionaries connected with marine sanitation.

By order of the Minister of Commerce, given in a Telegram of to-day, No. 27,241, the Maritime Government decrees:—

The duration of the reserve of observation of five days, ordered by the Government circular of the 8th instant, No. 6,145, with regard to ships coming from the island of Sicily, is increased to six days.

Vessels coming from ports in Calabria will be subjected to an equal reserve of observation.

These regulations are binding on vessels that have had a clean voyage and arrive under normal conditions.

In the case of steamers having a doctor on board, the length of the passage will be included.

Vessels subjected to the above-mentioned reserve will also undergo a process of disinfection by experts, in the manner prescribed for cases of cholera.

The sanitary treatment of vessels arriving under abnormal circumstances will be fixed, from time to time, by the Maritime Government, which will be referred to by telegram in any case of emergency.

THE PRESIDENT

Trieste, July 20, 1887.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, August 8, 1887.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch, dated 14th June, from Her Majesty's Representative at Lima, of which the following is an extract:—

The quarantine interdiction existing against all arrivals from Chilian ports, has, by a Supreme Decree of the Peruvian Government, been abolished, and vessels now arriving at Peruvian ports with clean bills of health will only be subjected to the usual sanitary precautions, and vessels arriving from a Chilian port, where thirty days have elapsed since the last case of cholera has occurred, will be submitted to a quarantine of observation. All vessels entering and leaving Peruvian ports must be provided with bills of health.

Ships of war are exempted from these rules, excepting when they come from suspicious ports.

Vessels arriving at Peruvian ports without bills of health from ports where bills of health are procurable, will be subjected to a quarantine of observation and fined, but vessels entering the port through stress of weather, in distress, or through other unavoidable circumstances, are exempted from this regulation.

(H. 5692.)

Lotery, Hyman (trading as H, Lotery and Company)	7, Saint Mary-street, Whitechapel, London	Wholesale Clothier... ..	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	397 of 1887	Aug. 4, 1887 ...	That the property of the debtor, which would become divisible among his creditors if he were adjudged a bankrupt under these proceedings, shall vest in a Trustee to be appointed by the creditors under this scheme of arrangement, and that such Trustee shall administer the property in like manner, and with the like powers and duties, and subject to the like conditions in all respects as if the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt, and such Trustee had been appointed in the bankruptcy. Provided always, that on or before the sanction of the Court being given to this arrangement, the debtor's friends shall hand such Trustee for the benefit of the creditors the sum of £300, in addition to the estate of the debtor comprised in the deed of assignment recently executed by him, or the proceeds thereof, which shall be handed over by the Trustee of such deed to the Trustee under this scheme, and which shall be dealt with in all respects as an addition to the general estate of the debtor. Preferential debts to be paid in full, and costs to be taxed and paid out of estate. From the date of the approval by the Court of this scheme of arrangement, the same shall be accepted by the creditors in full satisfaction and discharge of all debts due to them. John Folland Lovering, jun., of 77, Gresham-street, London, Chartered Accountant, is the Trustee under this scheme of arrangement, who shall within fourteen days after approval by the Court give security to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, and obtain from the Board a certificate of his appointment. Trustee to act under superintendence of a Committee of Inspection. The Receiving Order is rescinded
