FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1887.

Whitehall, August 19, 1887.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Knights of the Shire, Magistrates, Mayors, Clergy, and Inhabitants generally of the county of Hertford, humbly approach Your Majesty to offer our dutiful and loyal homage on this the Jubilee of Your Majesty's most illustrious Reign.

Although the county of Hertford is small compared with many others in England, both as to area and population, we presume, with pardonable pride, to refer to those of our shire whom Your Majesty has, from time to time, invited into Your Councils to assist You in improving the condition of Your people throughout the extended sphere of this Your great Empire, and in impressing Your Majesty's supreme authority and the influence of Your Kingdom and its dependencies among the nations of the world.

We gratefully recall the sympathy You have so tenderly shown towards suffering of every kind among Your subjects, wherever resident, while we remember with grief the irreparable loss of the revered Prince Consort and other personal sorrows that have afflicted Your Royal person. That by the blessing of the Almighty Your lengthened Reign may long be continued in the enjoyment of peace, in Your personal happiness and health, and in the gratitude of a happy people, united in loyal allegiance to Your Throne and Person, is the fervent prayer of Your most dutiful subjects who now address You.

Signed on behalf of the Inhabitants of the County of Hertford, at a County Meeting, held at Hertford, on Saturday, the 28th day of May, 1887.

H. W. Demain Saunders,
High Sheriff of the said County.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates for the County of Westmorland in Quarter Sessions assembled, humbly desire to approach Your Majesty on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Reign, to assure Your Majesty of our heartfelt loyalty to the Crown, our respectful devotion to Your Majesty's Person, and to express our thankfulness to Almighty God for the prolongation for half a century of a Reign which has been so fruitful in happiness and prosperity to Your Majesty's subjects.

We believe that in no part of these Dominions is there a truer sense of reverence for Your Majesty's Throne and Person than among Your Majesty's subjects in the loyal and law-abiding county of Westmorland, and that nowhere has the present Jubilee been celebrated with more heartfelt enthusiasm.

That Your Majesty's life and Reign may long be preserved, to Your own happiness and the good of Your people is the earnest prayer of

Madam,

Your Majesty's, &c., &c.,

W. H. Wakefield,

Chairman of Quarter Sessions.

John Bell,

Clerk of the Peace.

Kendal, 1st July, 1887.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, the Magistrates of the County of Anglesey in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the 29th day of June, 1887, at Beaumaris, in and for the said county, humbly present to Your Majesty our loyal congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and pray that Almighty God may long grant to Your Majesty a continuance of His blessing and protection.

The recollection of the residence of the Princess Victoria in this Island in the year 1832 is always warmly cherished by its inhabitants; and in no part of Your Majesty's dominions has the Jubilee Festival been more affectionately celebrated than among the ancient race of Mon Mam Cymru.

Signed on behalf of the Magistrates,

Edmund H. Verney, Chairman.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects,

the School Board of the Burgh of Glasgow, desire to express to Your Majesty our hearty congratulations on the completion of the Fiftieth Year of Your Reign.

While Your Majesty's Reign has been marked by the rapid progress made in arts, in science, and in commerce, we rejoice that it has been rendered specially memorable by the extension of the blessings of education. We cannot but recall with gratitude the part which, towards the close of last century, the Royal Family, and especially His Majesty Your illustrious grandfather King George III, took in national education when there was little general interest manifested in the question, and the warm sympathy which was accorded, at a more recent period, by the late lamented Prince Consort to every measure which had for its object the advancement of the education of the people. We rejoice all the more inasmuch as, in the reign of no other Sovereign of this or any other country, has the subject of the instruction of the young so fully occupied the attention of statesmen and of all who desire the promotion of the public welfare; and we venture to predict that future ages will look back with gratitude to these fifty years as the time when the blessings of a sound education were brought within the reach of every child within these realms, to the immense benefit of succeeding generations.

We pray that Your Most Gracious Majesty may be long spared to rule over a people not only increasing in material prosperity, but also advancing in the exhibition of all those moral qualities which constitute the true power and permanence of a nation.

Signed in name and by authority of the School Board of Glasgow,

John Neilson Cuthbertson, Chairman.

School Board Offices,

129, Bath-street, Glasgow,

7th July, 1887.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Township Commissioners of Clontarf, most respectfully offer our cordial congratulations to Your Majesty on the prolonged and prosperous period during which, under Divine Providence, Your Majesty has occupied Your exalted station on the Throne of these Realms, and in which great progress has been made in all scientific and useful branches of knowledge, and in promoting the material prosperity of Your Majesty's subjects. We earnestly desire that Your Majesty's sympathetic Reign may be extended over many future years, and that by wise administration all classes of Your Majesty's subjects may feel it their duty and their interest to unite cordially in every possible effort to maintain and strengthen the closest union between every portion of Your Majesty's extensive Empire.

We are Your Majesty's most devoted subjects.

Signed on behalf of the Township Commissioners of Clontarf, this 18th day of June, 1887.
