TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1887.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 15th day of September, 1887.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices, nine in number, of which the patronage is vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, for the patronage of certain other benefices, seven in number, of which the patronage is vested in the Bishop of the diocese of Lichfield and his successors in right of his See.

“Whereas the nine benefices aforesaid, the patronage whereof is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain as aforesaid are all of them in the diocese of Lichfield, and are as follows, that is to say: the vicarage of Baschurch with the chapelry of Little Ness in the county of Salop, the vicarage of Castlechurch, in the county of Stafford, the rectory of Drayton Bassett, in the said county of Stafford, the rectory of Fitz, in the said county of Salop, the vicarage of Loppington, in the said county of Salop, the rectory of Rodington, in the said county of Salop, the vicarage of Ruyton in the Eleven Towns in the said county of Salop, the rectory of Wrockwardine Wood, in the said county of Salop; and the rectory of Yoxall in the said county of Stafford.

“And whereas the seven benefices aforesaid the patronage whereof is vested in the Bishop of the diocese of Lichfield and his successors as aforesaid are as follows, that is to say: the rectory of Durley, the rectory of Easton, the vicarage of East Meon, the rectory of Ovington, the vicarage of Steep, the rectory of Upham, and the rectory of Wold Newton, of which seven benefices all except the last-named are situated in the county of Hants and in the diocese of Winchester, and the last-named, to wit, the rectory of Wold Newton is situate in the county and diocese of Lincoln.

“And whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the Right Reverend William Dalrymple now Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices (sixteen in number) the names of which are hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said sixteen benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, and we submit to Your Majesty the statement which we believe to be correct that eight of the said nine benefices firstly hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned are severally under the yearly value of twenty pounds in the King's books and that the ninth of the lastly-mentioned benefices being the distinct and separate parish of Wrockwardine Wood is a cure of more recent creation than the date of the King's books.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he the said Baron Halsbury has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Dalrymple, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof the said Bishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said nine benefices firstly hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned that is to say the benefice of Baschurch with Little Ness, the beneof Castlechurch, the benefice of Drayton Bassett, the benefice of Fitz, the benefice of Loppington, the benefice of Rodington, the benefice of Ruyton in the Eleven Towns the benefice of Wrockwardine Wood, and the benefice of Yoxall shall be assigned and transferred from Your Majesty Your heirs and successors to and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever, and that in exchange for the same, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said seven benefices secondly hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the benefice of Durley, the benefice of Easton, the benefice of East Meon, the benefice of Ovington, the benefice of Steep, the benefice of Upham, and the benefice of Wold Newton, shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield and from his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors, and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury, or other the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being acting on behalf of Your Majesty Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Borough of Barrow-in-Furness.

The Tramways Act, 1870, section 46.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Barrow-in-Furness, acting by the Council as the Local Authority of the said borough, with respect to the Barrow-in-Furness Tramways, under the powers conferred upon them by "The Tramways Act, 1870," have made the following Bye-laws and Regulations, that is to say:—

1. For the purpose of these Bye-laws and Regulations, the term "car" shall mean any engine or carriage using any tramway laid down within the said borough, and the terms "driver" and "conductor" shall respectively mean the driver and conductor or other person having charge of an engine or car.

2. The driver of every car shall cause the same to be driven at a speed of not less than five miles an hour on the average, and not exceeding eight miles an hour.

3. The driver of every car shall so drive the same that it shall not follow a preceding car at a less distance than 100 yards.

4. Subject to the requirements of Bye-laws Nos. 3 and 5, the driver or conductor of a car shall stop the same for the purpose of setting down or taking up passengers, when required, by any passenger desiring to leave the car, or by any person desirous of travelling by the car for whom there is room and to whose admission no valid objection can be made. Provided that nothing in this Bye-law shall require a car to be stopped on any gradient steeper than 1 in 25.

5. Except at a passing place or a terminus, no car shall be stopped at the intersection or junction of two or more streets or roads, nor within ten yards of a car on an adjoining line of rails.

6. The driver of a car, on coming in sight of a vehicle standing or travelling on any part of the road so as not to leave sufficient space for the car to pass, shall sound his bell or whistle, as a warning to the person in charge of such vehicle, and that person shall, with reasonable despatch, cause such vehicle to be removed, so as not to obstruct the car.

7. No person shall in any way wilfully impede or interfere with the traffic on the tramways, nor shall any driver or conductor needlessly cause interruption to the ordinary road traffic.

8. Every driver, conductor, or other person offending against any of these Bye-laws and Regulations, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, and not exceeding, for any continuing offence, ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.

9. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of December, 1887.
