

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1887.

(SWINE-FEVER.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of October, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The following Area (namely),—the borough of Faversham,—which was declared by Order of Council dated the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, to be an Area infected with swine-fever, is hereby declared to be free from swine-fever, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the ninth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of October, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and with reference especially to Article 96 of The Animals Order of 1886, do hereby license the Local Authority for the county of Middlesex, to dig up or cause to be dug up, within fourteen days after the date of this Licence, the carcasses of certain pigs reported to have been recently buried at the Manor Farm, Highgate, in the county of Middlesex, subject to the following conditions :

1. When dug up the Local Authority shall forthwith cause a post-mortem examination to be made of the carcasses with a view to ascertain the cause of death of such animals, and the Local Authority shall then cause the carcasses to be re-buried as soon as possible, and shall cause them to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quick lime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

2. The expenses of and incidental to the digging up, post-mortem examination, and re-burial of the carcasses shall be defrayed by the Local Authority.

3. This Licence is revocable by the Privy Council.
