

which we are assured they will be within 10 days or a fortnight. They have likewise resolved to build 13 new Men of War against next Summer.

We have an account from Flanders that Prince Maldeck was ready to march with 12000 Foot, and 8000 Horse; and that he had had a Conference with the Elector of Bran- denburg, who had promised to assist him with a Body of Horse, and to join him with his whole Army if it be thought necessary.

Edinburgh, July 13. We have an account from the North, that Major General Mitcalfe continued with 7000 Men at Sancti Spiritus, and will speedily have finished the Fortifications he is making there. That Colonel Causton with 500 Foot, and 200 Horse, had fallen down upon Perthshire, within 30 Miles of Stirling, with a design to plunder the Country; and that Colonel Bishop with the Earl of Buchan, and a party of 300 Men had made an Incursion into Aber- denshire, to surprize some Houses in that Country, which the Master of Forbes, eldest Son to the Lord For- bes, having notice of, he marched towards them with Three Troops of Horse and Dragoons, upon whose appearance the Rebels fled; our men pursued them to the Hills, killing several, and taking the Earl of Buchan, and Captain John Ramsay, Brother to Colonel Ramsay, and several others Prisoners.

From His Majesties Camp at Inchiquin, July 14. His Majesty is now encamp'd about 22 Miles from Dublin, in the way to Kilkenny, where we shall be on Thursday, within 20 Miles of Waterford; which it's believed will be Surrendered upon our appearing before it; His Majesty as he advances, settles the Sheriffs and Justices in the Counties, and many poor Papists come in for Protections. Cavan and Slegg are abandoned by the Enemy. Athlone holds out as yet, but Lieutenant General Douglas will be before that place on Wednesday, with 10 Regiments of Foot, and 4 of Horse. The late King James is certainly gone for France with the Lord Powis, and divers others. But we hear, that the Earl of Tyrconnel is retired towards Limerick, where he endeavours to draw together, their scattered Troops. Brigadier Trelawney remains at Dublin, (not which he is made Governor) with 5 Regiments of Foot, and one of Horse.

By the King and Queen's most Excellent Majesties,

HAVING taken into Our Consideration the great Oppressions and Abuses committed by Our Enemies in this Our Kingdom of Ireland, by Coyning and Making Current Brass Money of Copper or mixt Metal, and raising the Value thereof to an extravagant height, thereby to enable them to continue the War against Us, and to Impoverish Our Loving Subjects in Our said Kingdom: We have therefore thought it necessary to put stop thereto, and to the end that such part of the said Copper or mixt Metal Money, which remains in the hands of Our said Subjects, may not be wholly lost, We have thought fit to reduce the former Value of the said Copper Money, to the Value or Standard of the like Copper Money formerly Current in this Our Kingdom, and accordingly We do hereby Will and Require all Our Subjects, within Our said Kingdom of Ireland, to take and receive all such Copper or mixt Metal Money, lately Coyned in the Mint erected in Our City of Dublin, at the several and respective Valuations following, and that the same do pass Current in Exchange of Money, and for all manner of Goods and Provisions whatsoever, and shall be received by all the Officers and Collectors of Our Customs, Excise, or other Branches of Our Revenue accordingly, viz.

The large Half-Crown of Copper Money, together with Crown Pieces of like Metal and Weight, lately Stamp'd, shall pass at One Penny Sterl.

The small Half-Crown of Copper, lately Stamp'd, shall pass at Three Farthings.

The large Copper Shilling shall pass at a Half-Penny Sterl. The small Shilling, lately Stamp'd, and Six-Pence, shall pass each at One Farthing.

And Our Will and Pleasure is, that all such Pewter Pence as have been lately Coyned in the said Mint, shall pass for Half-Pence, and all the Half-Pence of the like Metal, stamp'd in the said Mint, shall pass Current for Farthings.

Which several sorts of Coin shall be deemed as Current Money at the Rates before-mentioned, in all Payments whatsoever within this Our Kingdom.

Given at Our Camp by Dublin, this Tenth Day of July, 1690. In the second Year of Our Reign.

Their Majesties having by Their Proclamation of the 15th instant, Nominate certain Places to which all Steam taken up by Virtue of the said Proclamation shall be sent, as a 1st 2d 3d 4th and several Persons, who may pay, as subjected to be Steam or Intention. The hereby further Declare, for the greater ease of the said to taken up, and of their Conductors. That Wells, Lynn, Bottom, Scarbrough, Sunderland, Whitby, Southampton, Cow, Pool, Weymouth, Lyme, Topham, Dartmouth, Plymouth, Palmouth, Loose, and Bow, are also Places appointed Receipt of Steam, and that the Collectors of the Customs in each of these Ports, or any of them, shall, Hall, and Great Yarmouth, have Power to receive the said Steam, and to pay forthwith to the Conductors the Import and Conduct Money due upon that Service.
