

Douglas John Kennier Macdonald, of the Priory, Salisbury, in the county of Wilts, Esquire, and James Patrick Hadow of number twenty-five Cambridge-square, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, on the nomination of Elizabeth Macdonald of Calstone Wellington aforesaid for the first and every alternate turn and the Reverend George Randolph Hadow is the present incumbent of the said united benefice. The patronage of the said benefice of Heddington belongs to the Reverend Francis Houssemayne du Boulay who is also the present incumbent of the said benefice.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six, the portions of the said parish of Calne that are shown on the said maps marked B and C hereunto annexed by the colours pink blue and red may be advantageously separated from the said benefice and parish church of Calne and that the said portions shown by the colour pink may be united and conveniently annexed to the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland; that the said portions shown by the colour blue may be united and conveniently annexed to the said parish of Blackland and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland; and that the said portion coloured red may be united and conveniently annexed to the said parish of Heddington. That it also appears to me that the said detached portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington which lies between the said parish of Calne and the said parish of Heddington and is shown on the said map marked C hereunto annexed by the colour yellow may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone and Blackland, and be united and advantageously annexed to the said parish of Heddington; and that the detached portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington which lies in the middle of the said parish of Calne may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone and Blackland, and be united and advantageously annexed to the said parish of Calne.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act of Parliament I have drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which the proposed alterations may be best effected which scheme together with the consents thereto of the before mentioned patrons and incumbents I do submit to your Grace, to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME above referred to.

"That the portions of the said parish of Calne, that are described in the first schedule hereunder written shall be separated from the said parish of Calne, and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes, to the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland.

"That the portions of the said parish of Calne, that are described in the second schedule hereunder written, shall be separated from the said parish of Calne, and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes, to the said parish of Blackland and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland.

"That the portions of the said parish of Calne that shall be annexed to the said parishes of Calstone Wellington and Blackland respectively, shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland.

"That the portions of the said parish of Calne, that are described in the third schedule hereunder written shall be separated from the said parish of Calne, and be annexed, for ecclesiastical purposes, to the said parish of Heddington.

"That the said detached portion of the said parish of Calne, that lies between a portion of the said parish of Calne, and the said parish of Heddington, shall be separated from the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Heddington.

"That the portion of the said parish of Calne, that shall be annexed to the said parish of Heddington, and the said detached portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington, that shall also be annexed to the said parish of Heddington, shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Heddington.

"That the said detached portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington, which lies in the middle of the parish of Calne shall be separated from the said parish of Calstone Wellington and united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Calne.

"That the portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington that shall be annexed to the said parish of Calne shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Calne.

"That all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for churchings, marriages, burials and other ecclesiastical offices and all such other ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments, usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice or shall arise or be payable for or in respect of the said separated portions of the said parish of Calne that shall be annexed to the said parishes of Calstone Wellington and Blackland respectively shall belong to the incumbent of the said united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland; and that all such fees and other ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments as shall arise or be payable for or in respect of the said separated portion of the said parish of Calne, and the said separated portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington, that shall be annexed to the said parish of Heddington, shall belong to the incumbent of the benefice of Heddington.

"That all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for churchings, marriages, burials and other ecclesiastical offices and all such other ecclesiastical dues, offerings and emoluments usually paid to the incumbent of a parish or benefice or shall arise or be paid for or in respect of the said separated portion of the said parish of Calstone Wellington that shall be annexed to the parish of Calne shall belong to the incumbent of the said benefice of Calne.

"That all that portion of the tithe rent-charge belonging to the said benefice of Calne that is specified in the fourth schedule hereunder written and which is an extract from the tithe rent-charge apportionment of the said parish of Calne shall be annexed to the said united benefice of Calstone Wellington and Blackland, and belong to the incumbent thereof.
