Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Dover House, Whitehall, December 2, 1887.

ADDRESSES of Congratulation to The Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty having completed the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Most Honourable the Marquis of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, by:—

The General Council of the University of Glasgow, and

The Representative Church Council of the Episcopal Church in Scotland,— have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the four hundred and tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas by the said Act "buoys and beacons" include all other marks and signs of the sea:

And whereas by "The Merchant Shipping (Miscellaneous) Act, 1887," it is enacted, that—

"In the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, the expression 'lighthouses' shall, in addition to the meaning assigned to it by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, include sirens, and all other descriptions of fog signals, and the expression 'new lighthouse' shall include the addition to any existing lighthouse of any improved light, or any siren, or any description of fog signal."

And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond have greatly improved the light heretofore exhibited from the lighthouse on the Bishop Rock, Scilly Islands, and such improved light will shortly be exhibited:

And whereas the said Corporation are also about to establish in conjunction with the said light, a sign of the sea, that is to say, a fog signal:

And whereas it is fit and proper that, in respect of the said improvements and conveniences, and by reason of the expenditure involved, dues should be levied as hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the exhibition of the said improved light, or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of such exhibition by the officers authorized to collect light dues, the toll of four-sixteenths of a penny per ton over sea, and sixpence per vessel coasting, now leviable in respect of the existing light shall cease, and in lieu thereof, there shall be paid in respect of the said improved light and fog signal for every ship, whether British or foreign, the toll of eight-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit from the said lighthouse if on an over sea voyage, and one shilling per vessel if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Table of Light Duties, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum, mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the four hundred and tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas by the said Act "buoys and beacons" include all other marks and signs of the sea:

And whereas by "The Merchant Shipping (Miscellaneous) Act, 1887," it is enacted, that—

"In the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, the expression 'lighthouses' shall, in addition to the meaning assigned to it by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, include sirens, and all other descriptions of fog signals, and the expression 'new lighthouse' shall include the addition to any existing lighthouse of any improved light; or any siren, or any description of fog signal."

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights have greatly improved the light heretofore exhibited from the lighthouse on Tory Island, off the coast of the County Donegal, and such improved light has been exhibited:

And whereas the said Commissioners have also erected and established in the said island, near to and in conjunction with the said light, a sign of the sea, that is to say, a siren or fog signal:

And whereas it is fit and proper that in respect of the said improvements and conveniences, and by reason of the expenditure involved, dues should be levied as hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of this Order in Council or from and after the time of the receipt of a copy of this Order by the officers authorized to collect light dues, there shall be paid for every ship, whether British or foreign, the toll of three-eighths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit from the said lighthouse if on an over sea voyage, and one-eighth of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Table of Light Duties, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of seventy per centum, mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

The Order in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, relating to the lighthouse on Tory Island is hereby rescinded as from the date of this Order.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael situate within the chapelry of Rampside in the parish of Dalton-in-Furness in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said chapelry of Rampside and of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid and of the chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such chapelries and parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said chapelry of Rampside and of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness and of the said chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael situate within the chapelry of Rampside as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness with the consent of the Reverend James Morrison Morgan, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Rampside with the consent of the Right Honourable William Henry Smith the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron in right of the Crown of the rectory of the said parish of Aldingham and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Hayman Doctor in Divinity the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Aldingham and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the chapelry of Dendron aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said chapelry of Rampside and of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid and of the said chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham aforesaid which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael situate within the chapelry of Rampside as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael Rampside.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Rampside, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle, comprising the chapelry of Rampside and also comprising Roa Island with its approaches, that is to say, Piel Pier, and the line of railway on Roa Ridge which connects such island with the mainland, all which said portions of such parish are bounded upon all sides as follows upon the north-west partly by the new parish of Saint John Barrow-in-Furness and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke Barrow-in-Furness both in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the north-east by the chapelry of Dendron in the parish of Aldingham in the same county and diocese upon the south-east partly by the last-named chapelry and parish and partly by the ordinary high water mark upon the sea shore, and upon the south-west by the said high water mark.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Aldingham which is comprised within that part of the chapelry of Dendron aforesaid which is bounded upon the south-east by the said ordinary high water mark upon the sea shore, upon the west and upon the north-west by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid, and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the last-mentioned parish from the parish of Aldingham aforesaid diverges from the course of the stream called or known as Sarah Beck and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the north-western end of the culvert through which the same stream is discharged into the sea and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line to the said ordinary high water mark upon the sea shore as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared; and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate at Lower Streatham in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Emmanuel Streatham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew situate at Lower Streatham as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Emmanuel Streatham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew situate at Lower Streatham as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew Lower Streatham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew situate at Lower Streatham as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, being :—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Emmanuel Streatham in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the new parish of All Saints Norwood, partly by the new parish of Saint Paul Thornton Heath, and partly by the new parish of Christ Church Broad Green, the three last-mentioned cures being in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury upon the south-west by the parish of Mitcham, in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the north-west and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Mitcham from the new parish of Emmanuel Streatham aforesaid at a point in the middle of Greyhound-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of thirty-seven and one-half chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway, to the point near the Streatham Common Railway Station where the same lane joins Ellison-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Kempshott-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Croydon-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Baldry-gardens, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its present north-eastern end, and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of twenty-one and one-half chains or thereabouts in a course parallel to, and distant eleven chains from the middle of Croydon-road aforesaid, to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Emmanuel Streatham from the new parish of All Saints Norwood aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parish of Ilstington in the county of Devon now vested in us :—

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and made between the Reverend Thomas Hale, vicar of the vicarage of the said parish of Ilstington of the first part us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the second part, the Dean and Canons of the King's Free Chapel of Saint George within His Castle of Windsor, patrons of the said vicarage of the third part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the said parish of Ilstington and containing one acre two roods and thirty-one perches more or less, being the fields numbered 1366 and 1366A in the schedule to the confirmed apportionment of tithe rent-charge for the said parish of Ilstington became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the said pieces or parcels of land are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in possession, but on account of their character and situation the same are unsuitable and inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said pieces or parcels of land or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in the same or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, the said pieces or parcels of land so vested in us as aforesaid or any part or parts thereof with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes, rent-charges tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Eaton in the then collegiate church of Southwell and now vested in us.

"Whereas at the date of the passing of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the said prebend was vacant, and all the lands and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of and on the passing of the said Act absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but are now in our possession but some portions thereof are on account of their character or situation unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said prebend and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Southwell.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of Nether Heyford, in the county of Northampton, until the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

In the parish churchyard of Barham, in the county of Kent, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

In the parish churchyard of Llangattock, in the county of Brecon, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

In the parish churchyard of Wath-juxta-Ripon, in the county of York, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

In the parish churchyard of Wincanton, in the county of Somerset, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS Alfred Chichele Plowden, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Reading Corporation Act, 1887, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the wards of the borough of Reading as extended in pursuance of that Act, and of apportioning the aldermen, councillors, and returning officers thereto, transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his determination and apportionment in the following terms:—

"BOROUGH OF READING.

"THE READING CORPORATION ACT, 1887.

"New Wards Scheme.

"Election of Councillors and Aldermen, 1887.

"WHEREAS by the Reading Corporation Act, 1887, it was provided that the extended borough of Reading should be divided into wards, and the number, names or distinguishing numbers, and boundaries of such wards should be fixed and determined by a scheme to be made by a Commissioner to be for that purpose appointed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department. And whereas on the twelfth day of August last, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, and Secretary of State for the Home Department, did duly appoint me, Alfred Chichele Plowden, Barrister-at-Law, to act as such Commissioner aforesaid, and did, on the thirtieth day of August last, fix the fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, as the day for the completion of the said scheme.

"Now, I, the said Alfred Chichele Plowden, in pursuance of the powers given me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act, do hereby fix and determine that the borough of Reading, as extended, shall be divided into ten wards, the names and boundaries of which shall be as follows:—

"Names.

"Abbey Ward, Battle Ward, West Ward, Castle Ward, Minster Ward, Katesgrove Ward, Church Ward, Victoria Ward, Redlands Ward, East Ward.

"Boundaries.

"And I do hereby determine that Abbey Ward shall comprise the whole of the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Battle Ward shall comprise so much of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, as is bounded on the east, north, and west sides thereof by the boundary of the said parish, and on the south side thereof, by the middle of so much of Oxford-road, in the said parish, as lies between the boundary of the parish of Tilehurst, and the boundaries of Saint Lawrence, Reading, where such boundaries meet at a point opposite the middle of the road, in Thorn-street.

"And I do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Tilehurst which is described in the Second Schedule to the Reading Corporation Act, 1887; the whole of the tithing of Southcot, in the parish of Saint Mary, Reading; and so much of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, as is bounded on the north by the middle of Oxford-road from a point in the middle of the said road at the eastern end of the Great Western Railway Bridge over such road to a point where such road crosses the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary Reading and the parish of Tilehurst, from such point in southerly, westerly, and easterly directions by such boundary and by the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, and the tithing of Southcot, to the point in the last-mentioned boundary which is in the middle of the Holy Brook (being the easternmost point of the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, and the tithing of Southcot), and from thence eastwards by the middle of the Holy Brook as far as to the middle of the bridge which carries the road from Coley-avenue over the Holy Brook near to and on the western side of Coley Farm, and which said ward is bounded on the south-east and east by the middle of the last-mentioned road and by the middle of the road in Coley-avenue to a point in the middle of the road called Bath-road at the eastern end thereof, on further part of the north and on the north-east by the middle of Tilehurst-road as far as to the eastern side of the railroad of the Great Western Railway Company, and on the remaining part of the east by the eastern side of the said railroad to the point first-mentioned in this description of West Ward.

"And I hereby do determine that Castle Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, which is bounded on the north from a point on the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, opposite the middle of the northern end of Saint Mary's Butts to the eastern side of the railway bridge carrying the railroad of the Great Western Railway Company over Oxford-road by the middle of Oxford-road, on the west by the eastern side of the said railroad, on the south and south-west by the middle of Tilehurst-road to the aforesaid point in the middle of the road called Bath-road at the eastern end thereof, on the south-east from the last-mentioned point by the middle of Castle-street to a point opposite the middle of Bridge-street, and on the east from the last-mentioned point northwards along the road in Saint

"And I do hereby determine that Minster Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, which is bounded on the north by the parish boundary along the middle of Broad-street from a point opposite the middle of the road in Saint Mary's Butts at the northern end thereof to the eastern end of Broad-street, and is also bounded by the parish boundary from the point where such boundary leaves the eastern end of Broad-street to the easternmost point of the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary, Reading and the tithing of Southcot in the middle of the Holy Brook, and from the last-mentioned point eastwards by the middle of the Holy Brook to the middle of the bridge which carries the road from Coley-avenue over the Holy Brook near to and on the western side of Coley Farm, and is bounded on the westerly and north-westerly sides by the middle of the same road and by the middle of the road in Coley-avenue to a point in the middle of the road called Bath-road at the eastern end thereof, and from that point on the north and north-west by the middle of the road in Castle-street to a point opposite the middle of the road in Bridge-street, and on the west by the eastern boundary of Castle Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that Katesgrove Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, which is bounded on part of the east by the middle of Bridge-street, Southampton-street, Whitley-street, and Basingstoke-road to the point on the eastern side of Basingstoke-road where the boundary between the said parish and the hamlet of Whitley begins to run along the eastern side of the said Basingstoke-road, thence on further part of the east and on the south by the said boundary between the said parish and the hamlet of Whitley, and on the west, north-west, and north by the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Mary, Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Church Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, which is bounded on part of the north by the River Kennet and the Kennet Navigation Cut from a point on the said river in the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, opposite to the eastern end of Crane Wharf, along the middle of the said river and the middle of the Kennet Navigation Cut to a point in the said cut opposite the middle of the north end of Sidmouth-street, on the east side from the last-mentioned point by a straight line to the middle of Sidmouth-street and by the middle of such street to a point in the middle of London-road, on a further part of the north by the middle of London-road as far as to a point opposite the middle of Redlands-road, on further part of the east from the point last aforesaid by the middle of Redlands-road to the point where the boundary between the said parish of Saint Giles Reading and the hamlet of Whitley crosses Redlands-road, and from that point by the same boundary as far as to the point on the east side of Basingstoke-road where such boundary begins to run along the eastern side of the same road, and on the west from the last-named point partly by a line drawn to the middle of the road in Whitley-street, Southampton-street, and Bridge-street respectively as far as to the point where the boundary of the said parish of Saint Giles, Reading, joins the boundary of the parish of Saint Mary, Reading, on further part of the north by the boundary between those parishes, and on the remaining part of the north by the boundary between the parishes of Saint Giles, Reading, and Saint Lawrence, Reading, to the point first-mentioned in this description of the boundaries of the said Church Ward: All that part of the hamlet of Whitley in the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, which lies west of the middle of the roads called respectively Redlands-road and Shinfield-road: And all those parts of the parishes of Burghfield and Shinfield which are respectively described in the second schedule to the Reading Corporation Act, 1887.

"And I do hereby determine that Victoria Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, which is bounded on the east from a point in the middle of London-road by the parish or liberty of Earley, on the south from the point aforesaid by the middle of London-road to a point opposite the middle of Sidmouth-street, on part of the west by the middle of Sidmouth-street to the north end of that street, and by a straight line extending therefrom to a point in the middle of the Kennet Navigation Cut, on part of the south on south-west from the last-mentioned point along the middle of the said cut and the middle of the River Kennet to a point on the said river in the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence, Reading, opposite the eastern end of Crane Wharf, on the remaining part of the west and on the north by the boundary between the said parishes of Saint Giles, Reading, and Saint Lawrence, Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Redlands Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles, Reading, which is bounded on the east by the parish or liberty of Earley from a point in the middle of London-road to the boundary of the hamlet of Whitley, on the south by the boundary of the hamlet of Whitley as far as to the middle of the road called Redlands-road, from thence on the west side by the middle of the said road to a point in the middle of London-road, and on the north by the middle of London-road: And all that part of the hamlet of Whitley, in the parish of St. Giles, Reading, which lies east of the middle of the roads called respectively Redlands-road and Shinfield-road, and which is not comprised within the boundaries of Church Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish or liberty of Earley, which is described in the second schedule to the Reading Corporation Act, 1887.

"And I do hereby declare that the wards hereinbefore determined are shown upon the plan hereunto annexed and signed by me, and their boundaries set forth as appears thereon.

"And I do hereby determine that the number of Aldermen of the said borough as so extended shall be ten, and that the number of Councillors of the said borough as so extended shall be thirty.

"And I do hereby apportion all the existing Councillors among the new wards of the extended borough as follows:—

"To Abbey Ward—Councillors; Frank Attwells, Blackall Simonds, and Stephen Gould.

"To Battle Ward—Councillors; John Forrest Ewerty, John Thomas Dodd; and John Weightman.

"To West Ward—Councillor; Owen Ridley.

"To Castle Ward—Councillors; James King and Charles Gynningham Field.

"To Minster Ward—Councillors; John Wesley Martin, William Berkeley Monck, and Daniel Heelas.

"To Katesgrove Ward—Councillors; Isiah Birt Nicholson and George Philbrick.

"To Church Ward—Councillor; James Dymore Brown.

"To Victoria Ward—Councillors; John Messer and Arthur Hill.

"To Redlands Ward—Councillor; George William Palmer.

"And I do hereby determine as a provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alterations of wards and of the number of councillors, that on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, being the ordinary day of elections of councillors in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1-82, there shall be elected, in addition to the councillors to be elected in place of those whose term of office expires on that day, councillors for the undermentioned seven wards, as follows:—

"For West Ward—Two councillors.

"For Castle Ward—One councillor.

"For Katesgrove Ward—One councillor.

"For Church Ward—Two councillors.

"For Victoria Ward—One councillor.

"For Redlands Ward—Two councillors.

"For East Ward—Three councillors.

"And I do hereby declare that the councillors to be elected for the said seven wards on the said first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, including the councillors to be elected in place of those who go out of office on that day, shall respectively retire, or go out of office, as follows, that is to say:—

"As respects West Ward, Victoria Ward, and Redlands Ward, the councillor who shall be elected by the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the councillor who shall be elected by the larger number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"As respects Castle Ward, Katesgrove Ward, and Church Ward, the councillor who shall be elected by the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and the councillor who shall be elected by the larger number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"As respects East Ward, the councillor who shall be elected by the smallest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the councillor who shall be elected by the next smallest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the councillor who shall be elected by the largest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"And I do hereby declare that if at any election of councillors for any of the said seven wards to be held on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, there shall not be a contest, or if in the event of there being a contest the number of votes given for any of the councillors elected shall be equal, the order in which the councillors shall go out of office in any such case shall be determined by the Council of the borough.

"And I do hereby determine that the undermentioned persons, viz.:—Charles James Andrews, John Wells Hounslow, and William Silver Darter, being the three aldermen assigned by the Council on the ninth of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, to act as returning officers, shall act as returning officers respectively for the following new wards, viz:—

"For Abbey Ward—Charles James Andrews.

"For Castle Ward—John Wells Hounslow.

"For Church Ward—William Silver Darter.

"And I also declare that the undermentioned aldermen of the borough, namely:—Alexander Beale, Henry Bilson Blandy and George William Colebrook shall act as returning officers respectively for the following new wards, viz.:—

"For Victoria Ward—Alexander Beale.

"For Redlands Ward—Henry Bilson Blandy.

"For Katesgrove Ward—George William Colebrook.

"And as a provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alteration of wards and of the number of councillors and aldermen, I do hereby declare that at the elections on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the returning officer for each of the four remaining new wards, viz., Battle Ward, West Ward, Minster Ward, and East Ward shall be the mayor of the borough, or a person to be by him appointed.

"And as a further provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alterations of the numbers of councillors and aldermen, I do hereby declare that on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the Council of the borough immediately after the election of the mayor shall elect in the manner provided by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, four fit persons to be aldermen of the said borough as extended by the Reading Corporation Act, 1887.

"And I do hereby declare that two of the aldermen to be so elected shall go out of office on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, together with the three existing aldermen who go out of office on that day by rotation, and that the other two aldermen to be so elected shall go out of office on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, together with the three existing aldermen who go out of office on that day by rotation.

"And I do hereby declare that of the four aldermen so to be elected as aforesaid the two who shall receive the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"And I do hereby declare that if the said four aldermen shall be elected by an equal number of votes the Council of the borough shall determine which two of the said four aldermen shall go out of office on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and that if for any other reason in consequence of an equality of the number of votes given for the said four aldermen, or for any three or two of them, any doubt shall arise as to any alderman who shall go out of office on the ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, any such doubt shall be determined by the Council of the borough.

"Dated this thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

"(Signed) Alfred Chichele Plowden."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said determination of the said Commissioner of the Boundaries of the said Wards, and of the said apportionment by him of aldermen, councillors, and returning officers amongst the said wards, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Peter, within the Parish of Hersham, for the Old Church of The Holy Trinity, in the County of Surrey, and Diocese of Winchester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England
send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Hersham, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Peter.

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, acting as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said new parish of Hersham, and the Reverend William Feltrim Fagan, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Incumbent of the vicarage of the same new parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the thirty-first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Hersham that the said new church of Saint Peter, situate within such new parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to the Holy Trinity) of the same new parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the said William Feltrim Fagan hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Peter, situate within the said new parish of Hersham, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to the Holy Trinity as aforesaid) of the same new parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said new parish of Hersham, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same new parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Peter so hereby substituted had been originally the parish church of the same new parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to the Holy Trinity as aforesaid), of the said new parish of Hersham, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Peter (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said new parish of Hersham), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we,
the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said William Feltrim Fagan has set his hand and affixed his seal this seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 1st day of December, 1887, suspended for three months the Registry of the Good Samaritan Friendly Society, Register No.
3265, held at the Free Library, Long-street, Middleton, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, on the ground that the Society has wilfully and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the No. 1
Lodge of the Golden Fleece Society,
Register No. 3288, held at the Fox and Hounds Inn, Odsall Moor, Bradford, in the county of York, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 30th day of November, 1887, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

28, Abingdon-street, Westminster, the 30th day of November, 1887.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Boughton Friendly Society, Registrar No. 243, held at the School, Boughton, in the county of Northampton, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 1st day of December, 1887, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the Society to set aside such dissolution, and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

J. C. STODDON, 18, Clement's-inn, London, W.C., Plaintiff's Solicitor.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of John Priestley, deceased, Hood v. Priestley, 1886, P., No. 748, with the approbation of Mr. Justice North, by Mr. William Suddards, of the firm of Suddards and Stanfield, at Leuchter's Restaurant, Bradford, Yorkshire, on Thursday, the 5th January, 1888, at six for seven o'clock in the evening, in three lots:—

Lot 1. Leasehold property at Smithy Hill, Wibsey, near Bradford, in the county of York, consisting of (a) two dwelling-houses fronting to c (b), four cottages at the rear of the above (c), field or building ground adjoining, and comprising an area of 6,218 square yards, or thereabouts, together with the freehold and leasehold outhouses, situate opposite the north-east end of (a), and separated from it by the roadway to (a) and (c). The outhouses are to be pulled down by the purchaser thereof, in order to leave a road, five yards wide, on the north-easterly side of a and b, and the purchaser is to make the road. The leases are for terms of 1,000, 893, 893, and 891 years, respectively, and are subject to the annual ground rents of £1 6s. 8d., and 1d., and 1d.

Lot 2. 16 freehold dwelling-houses, situate in Darton-street, Little Horton, Bradford, in the county of York, and numbered 27, 29, 31, 33, 35, 37, 39, 41, 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, 53, 55, and 57.

Lot 3. 12 freehold dwelling-houses, situate in Royd-street, Little Horton, Bradford, in the county of York, and numbered 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. If not sold in one lot, they will be offered in blocks of four.

Particulars and conditions of sale, with lithographed plans of the property, may be had (gratis) in Bradford, of Messrs. Watson, Dickons, and Watson, Mr. Arthur Morris, and Mr. James Wharton Moore, Solicitors, Bradford; of Mr. W. B. Woodhead, Surveyor, Market-street, Bradford; and in London, of Mr. John W. Sykes, 39, Old Broad-street, E.C.; of Messrs. Jaques, Leyton, and Jaques, 8, Ely-place, E.C.; and of Messrs. Pitman and Sons, 11, Queen Victoria-street, E.C.; also, of the Auctioneer; and at the place of sale.

TO be sold, by private tender, pursuant to an Order of his Lordship Mr. Justice North, made in the matter of the Howe Machine Company Limited, and in the matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, in one lot:—

The property of the above-mentioned Company as a going concern, consisting of the heritable land, factory, buildings, machinery, fixed and moveable plant, tools, patterns, gauges, office furniture, and fittings on the premises of the Company at Glasgow, together with the leases, furniture, fixtures, and fittings at the branch sale Establishments of the Company situate at London, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Belfast, Chatham, Leeds, Leicester, Newcastle, Nottingham, Coventry, and Sheffield, and also the rents payable in respect of sewing machines, and the rights and interests of the Company in and to such machines.

The Company's manufactory is situate in Avenue-street, Fielden-street, and Barrowfield-street, Mile End, Glasgow, and consists of a very spacious and substantial block of buildings standing on a plot of ground measuring 6,138 square yards, subject to a feu duty of £104 11s. 3d. The buildings are comparatively new, most substantially built, and in remarkably good order. The machinery includes a pair of powerful steam engines, on substantial foundations, and driven by a range of three Lancashire steam boilers. There are numerous annealing furnaces, forging hammers, lathes, punch presses, milling, planing, buffing, shaping, drilling, edging, plating, and polishing machines, together with all the necessary apparatus for carrying on the manufacture of sewing machines and cycles, and the parts thereof. The furniture and fittings at Glasgow and the branch establishments comprise the usual office furniture and fittings, and also fittings to the stable at Glasgow. The benefit of the leases and tenancies of the branch establishments held by the Company, and also the goodwill of the business heretofore carried on by, and the trade marks belonging to, the Company will be included in the purchase. The purchaser will be required to purchase the stock in trade at the factory and branch sale establishments, which comprises great numbers of sewing machines and cycles, finished and partly finished, together with covers, woodwork, parts of machines and cycles, needles, cottons, and sundry materials and merchandise at the moderate sum of £7,000, or, at his option, at a valuation to be made in the ordinary way. The purchaser will have the option of buying the outstanding debts of the Company on terms to be agreed upon between the Official Liquidator and the purchaser, or by valuation.

Tenders are to be sent (in a sealed cover, marked "Tender for Howe Machine Company's Assets") to Mr. Samuel Lovelock, the Official Liquidator of the Company, at his offices, No. 19, Coleman-street, in the city of London, not later than the 20th December, 1887. Particulars and conditions of sale and forms of tender may be obtained gratis of Mr. Samuel Lovelock, of 19, Coleman-street aforesaid, the Official Liquidator of the Company; of Messrs. Fisher, Wall, and Hayes, of No. 183, St. Vincent-street, Glasgow, North Britain, Writers; of Messrs. Wainwright and Baillie, Solicitors, Staple-inn, in the county of Middlesex; and of Mr. Jackson Wyman Smart, of No. 9, Old Jewry-chambers, Old Jewry, London, E.C., Solicitor to the Official Liquidator. The premises may be viewed, and an inventory of the machinery, fixed and moveable plant, tools, &c., an approximate inventory of the stock in trade, and particulars of the rents payable in respect of sewing machines, may be seen on application to the said Mr. Samuel Lovelock, Messrs. Fisher, Watt, and Hayes, and Mr. Jackson Wyman Smart.

Taylor, Herbert (trading as David Taylor and Sons)	61, Mark-lane, London, and residing at 173, Piccadilly, Middlesex	Merchant	High Court of Justice in Bankruptcy	817 of 1887	Nov. 22, 1887 ...	The property of the debtor, which would have become divisible amongst his creditors had the debtor been adjudged bankrupt under these proceedings, to vest in a Trustee, who, subject to the provisions of this scheme, is to administer such property as though the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt. In particular, Part III of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, shall, so far as the nature of the case admits, apply to this scheme. Mr. Alfred Good, of Moorgate-street, London, Chartered Accountant, the Trustee, to administer the property under this scheme within fourteen days after the date of approval, to give security to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, and obtain from the Board a certificate of his appointment. The Trustee is to act under the superintendence of a Committee of Inspection, who will also determine his remuneration. Preferential debts, and costs, charges, fees, and expenses to be paid. The Trustee shall sell to the debtor, and the debtor shall purchase from the Trustee, all the property vested in the Trustee (with the exception of the debtor's claim against Messrs. Winthrop, Cunningham, and Sons, of Philadelphia, U.S.A.) for the sum of £7,500, to be paid to the Trustee in the following manner, viz., the amount now held by the Official Receiver after satisfaction of his fees, costs, and charges, to be handed by him to the Trustee, and the balance of the said sum of £7,500, namely, £3,019 to be paid to the Trustee by the debtor within thirty days from the date of the approval by the Court of this scheme, and upon payment of such purchase money the estate, except as aforesaid, shall vest in the debtor. Until such sales as aforesaid be carried out, the Trustee shall carry on the business of the debtor under the superintendence of the Committee of Inspection. From the date of the approval by the Court, this scheme of arrangement shall be accepted by the creditors of the debtor in full satisfaction and discharge of all the debts due to them from the debtor, which would be released by an absolute Order of Discharge in Bankruptcy. The Receiving Order is rescinded
