

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1888.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Sir Augustus Paget.
Mr. Ritchie.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that Her Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council declare that the second part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any British possession which in Her Majesty's opinion affords to the medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said British possession as to Her Majesty may seem just, and from and after the day named in such Order in Council, such British possession shall be deemed to be a British possession to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the second part thereof, and that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any British possession the said second part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such possession.

And whereas Ceylon is a British possession within the meaning of the said Act, and affords, in Her Majesty's opinion, to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in Ceylon as to Her Majesty seems just.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order, direct, and declare that, on and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the second part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed to apply to Ceylon.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Sir Augustus Paget.
Mr. Ritchie.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power when within Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of the Republic of Paraguay will be given under a Treaty between the Governments of Great Britain and Paraguay signed at Assumption on the 16th October 1884.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that, from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves (and not being British subjects), who desert from merchant ships belonging to the Republic of Paraguay within Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships; provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect:

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
