

from the district parish of Leytonstone aforesaid at the point where Queen's-road is crossed by the old course of Philli Brook, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said Queen's-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Phillibrook-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-western end of the wall forming the south-western boundary of the house and garden known as Ash Villa, and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of three chains or thereabouts along the same wall to its south-eastern end on the north-western side of the line of the Great Eastern Railway and continuing thence still south-eastward and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the said line of railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same line of railway for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said district parish of Leytonstone from the parish of Wanstead aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen situate at Upton Park in the parish of East Ham in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of East Ham, of the parish of West Ham in the said county and diocese and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Mary Plaistow in the same county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and of such new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of East Ham, of the said parish of West Ham, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen situate at Upton Park as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose in the University of Oxford as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of East Ham, with the consent of the Right Honourable William Henry Smith, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron in right of the Crown, of the vicarage of the said parish of West Ham, and with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Scott Clerk in Holy Orders the vicar or incumbent of the last-mentioned vicarage and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of East Ham and of the said parish of West Ham, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Stephen situate at Upton Park as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Upton Park.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Upton Park, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of East Ham, of the parish of West Ham, and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Mary Plaistow all in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, wherein the present incumbents of such parishes and of such new parish still respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls, all which said contiguous portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of East Ham from the new parish of Saint Andrew Plaistow in the county and diocese aforesaid at the junction of Green-street with the Barking-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath which leads into Wakefield-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of eleven and a half
