

London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bishop Burton now vested in them the said Dean and Chapter of York and their successors as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them and their successors to the said Ernest Richard Bradley Hall Watt and his heirs and assigns, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Ernest Richard Bradley Hall Watt and his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, Bingfield, situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary Bingfield situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary Bingfield situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary Bingfield.'

"And with the like consent of the said Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mary Bingfield situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary Bingfield, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle, which comprises the three townships of Bingfield, of Hallington and of Portgate and the greater portion of the township of Cocklaw, all which part of the said new parish is bounded upon the north-west by the parish of Chollerton, upon the north by the parish or parochial chapelry of Thockington, upon the east partly by the chapelry of Kirkheaton, partly by the new parish of Trinity Matten, and partly by the parish of Corbridge, and upon the greater part of the south partly by the last-named parish and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John Lee, all the said abutting cures being in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say upon the remaining part of the south and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John Lee from the new parish of Saint Oswald-in-Lee with Saint Mary Bingfield aforesaid at the point upon the southern side of the Newcastle and Carlisle military road, where the boundaries of the said township of Cocklaw, of the township of Wall, and of the township of Standhoe, all meet, the said point being about five chains to the east of the milestone indicating a distance of eighteen miles from Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and extending thence westward along the southern side of the said high road for a distance of fifty chains or
