C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Wallsend in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Luke, Wallsend, which said last named benefice is situate in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Wallsend, and also of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend, is at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said benefice of Wallsend has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments the said benefice of Wallsend will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Wallsend which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the said benefice of Wallsend is now full of a Clerk and the rector or Incumbent thereof, the Reverend James Henderson, Clerk in Holy Orders, is willing that the said apportionment shall be made accordingly, and has executed this scheme in token of such his willingness.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate, and with the consent of the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle acting as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid, and with the consent of the said James Henderson acting as such rector or incumbent as aforesaid of the said benefice of Wallsend (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day on which any such Order of Your Majesty in Council shall be published in the London Gazette all the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall on that day belong or which may thereafter belong to the said benefice of Wallsend, shall be charged and for ever thereafter be chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend, with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say:—A clear annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend, and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend, or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year.

“And we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Wallsend, shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power, if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent-charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof; and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof, and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same, as may be statutablely exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Wallsend shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him grant convey and annex to the said benefice of Saint Luke Wallsend any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Wallsend which shall, in the opinion of the Bishop of the diocese for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of fifty
