PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Hart in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham the yearly value of which said benefice in the King's Book, is as we believe less than twenty pounds, and the patronage thereof belongs to the Crown (and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being in virtue of his office) for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Satley in the said county and diocese of Durham, the patronage of which said lastly-named benefice belongs to the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham for the time being in right of his See.

“Whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the Right Reverend Joseph Barber, now Bishop of the said diocese of Durham have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Hart and Satley may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting as such Lord High Chancellor on behalf of Your Majesty (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and seal) and with the consent of the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to the said benefice of Hart and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever and that in exchange for the same, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Satley and the church thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and from his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury or other the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.
