

thirty-ninth, in the forty-sixth, and in the forty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, to order that the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, should be holden at Southend as well as at Rochford :

And whereas it hath been found that it is inexpedient that the said County Court should continue to be held at Rochford as well as at Southend :

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford and Southend, shall cease to be holden at Rochford, and shall be holden at Southend, under the name of the County Court of Essex, holden at Southend.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things in that behalf specified in the said section :

And whereas the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage Authority for the Port of Hartlepool within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain Bye-laws and Regulations with respect to Pilots, Pilotage, and Pilotage dues in the Hartlepool district, which were approved by an Order in Council, dated twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six :

And whereas it has been deemed expedient by the said Commissioners to repeal one of the said Bye-laws, and to make a new Bye-law in lieu thereof as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said new Bye-law is reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said new Bye-law.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE referred to in the above Order.

BYE-LAW made by the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners under and by virtue of the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," such Bye-law being in lieu of or in substitution for Bye-law number thirty-seven made by the said Commissioners and approved by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council at the Court at Windsor on the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"If after the expiration of his said apprenticeship and performance as a seaman the applicant should on examination by the Commissioners be approved the latter will grant him an acting order for two years to pilot vessels not exceeding two hundred and fifty tons register into and out of the harbours in the Ports of Hartlepool and West Hartlepool and any pilot possessing only an acting order shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds if he take charge as pilot of any vessel whose tonnage shall exceed two hundred and fifty tons."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke situate at Dunham-on-the-Hill in the parish of Thornton-le-Moors in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Dunham-on-the-Hill as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Thornton-le-Moors which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the two townships of Dunham-on-the-Hill and of Hapsford all which part, together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Dunham-on-the-Hill as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke Dunham-on-the-Hill.' And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke situate at Dunham-on-the-Hill as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or perfor-
