FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1888.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
January 27, 1888.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 24th of February next, and on Friday, the 9th of March next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars on the 24th of February, it being a Collar-day (St. Matthias).

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Rooms, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
January 27, 1888.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 7th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 17, 1888.

THE following Address and Resolution of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Majesty having completed the Fiftieth Year of Her Reign, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Protestant Inhabitants of various parts of England.

Trillick, county Tyrone, Ireland, "True Blues" Society.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and con-

"sent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We Edward White by Divine Providence Archbishop of Canterbury do hereby in pursuance of the Act of Parliament made and passed in the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106 certify to Your Majesty in Council that it having appeared to us that the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Margaret and the united benefice consisting of the rectory of Saint Andrew with the rectory of Saint Mary Bredman all in the city of Canterbury within our diocese and province of Canterbury might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice for ecclesiastical purposes we enquired into the circumstances of the case and on such enquiry there appeared as follows (that is to say):—

"That the benefices are contiguous and the union will not be of inconvenient extent.

"That the aggregate population of the parishes of Saint Margaret Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament does not exceed one thousand two hundred and twenty-six persons—the population of the said parish of Saint Margaret being five hundred and thirty-nine the population of the said parish of Saint Andrew being four hundred and twenty and the population of the said parish of Saint Mary Bredman being two hundred and sixty-seven.

"That there is a church belonging to the benefice of Saint Margaret. There is also a church situate in the parish of Saint Mary Bredman for the united benefice of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary Bredman. The churches are distant about one hundred yards from each other.

"That there is a house of residence belonging to the benefice of Saint Margaret. It is situate in a very close and unhealthy place.

"That there is a house of residence belonging to the benefice of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary Bredman. It is an excellent and nearly new house but remote from the parishes.

"That the net yearly value of the said benefice of Saint Margaret is forty-five pounds or thereabouts and the net yearly value of the said united benefice of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary Bredman is one hundred and eighty-two pounds or thereabouts.

"That the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Margaret belongs to the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Dover Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Canterbury in right of his Archdeaconry and the patronage of the said united benefice of Saint Andrew with Saint Mary Bredman belongs to us the said Archbishop in right of our Archbishoprick.

" We and the said Lord Bishop of Dover consent to the union of the said two benefices for ecclesiastical purposes only and that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall collate present or nominate to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being shall be entitled to the first and second turns in every three turns and the Archdeacon of Canterbury for the time being shall be entitled to every third turn.

" That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consents to Your Majesty in Council we caused a statement in writing of the aforesaid facts to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish churches of Saint Margaret and Saint Mary Bredman and in a public and conspicuous place namely in a place where parish notices are usually affixed in the parish of Saint Andrew there being no church in that parish with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

" The copies of the statement of facts and notice before referred to and the consent of the patrons before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

" And we do hereby certify the enquiry consents and matters aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall collate present or nominate to the said benefices after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being shall be entitled to the first and second turns in every three turns and the Archdeacon of Canterbury for the time being shall be entitled to every third turn. As witness our hand this fifth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight. " Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Saint Margaret situate in the city and diocese of Canterbury, and the rectory of Saint Andrew with the rectory of Saint Mary Bredman, situate in the same city and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is further pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall collate, present, or nominate to the said benefices, after the same shall be united into one benefice, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows that is to say—the Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, shall be entitled to the first and second turns in every three turns, and the Archdeacon of Canterbury, for the time being, shall be entitled to every third turn.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited

"without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, it is, amongst other things, further enacted that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the twenty-fourth day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight the Right Honourable and Most-Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, certified to Her Majesty in Council as follows that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the rectory of All Saints the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and the rectory of Saint Mildred all in the city of Canterbury and our diocese of Canterbury having been united into one benefice and it having appeared to us that the benefice of All Saints being one of the benefices of which such united benefice consists might be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion we inquired into the circumstances of the case and on such inquiry it appeared to us—

"That such union might be usefully dissolved so far as respects such benefice of All Saints.

"That according to the latest returns of population made under the authority of Parliament the population of the parish of All Saints aforesaid is 349 the population of the parish of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle is 65 and the population of the parish of Saint Mildred aforesaid is 2,364.

"That there is a church situate within the said parish of All Saints. There is also a church situate in the said parish of Saint Mildred. The churches are distant about half a mile from each other. There is no church situate in the said parish of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle.

"That there is a house of residence situate within the parish of Saint Mildred suitable for an incumbent of that benefice.

"That the net yearly value of the said united benefice is two hundred and seventy-four pounds or thereabouts of which the annual sum of three pounds arises and is payable in respect of the benefice of All Saints.

"That the patronage of the said united benefice belongs to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain in right of the Crown and he consents to the union of the said benefice being dissolved so far as respects the benefice of All Saints.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a statement in writing of the facts to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of All Saints and Saint Mildred and on the Old Castle door being a public and conspicuous place in the parish of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The copies of the statement of facts and notice before mentioned together with the consent in writing of the patron are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said rectory of All Saints from the united benefice of the rectory of All Saints the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and the rectory of Saint Mildred and in accordance with the terms of the consent of the patron above referred to we recommend that after the said disunion shall have been carried into effect each benefice shall retain its own original endowments and emoluments and bear its own charges and outgoings.

"As witness our hand this twenty-fourth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice consisting of the rectory of All Saints, the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, and the rectory of Saint Mildred, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of All Saints from the united benefice of the rectory of All Saints, the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, and the rectory of Saint Mildred.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, and with the consent of the patron, to assign and attach to each of the said benefices its own original endowments and emoluments, and to direct that each benefice shall bear its own charges and outgoings.

C. L. Peel.

[The following Order is published in substitution for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 6th December, 1887.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Alfred Chichele Plowden, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Reading Corporation Act, 1887, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the wards of the borough of Reading, as extended in pursuance of that Act, and of apportioning the aldermen, councillors, and returning officers thereto, transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his determination and apportionment in the following terms:—

"BOROUGH OF READING.
"THE READING CORPORATION ACT,
1887.

"New Wards Scheme.

"Election of Councillors and Aldermen, 1887.

"WHEREAS by the Reading Corporation Act, 1887, it was provided that the extended borough of Reading should be divided into wards, and the number, names or distinguishing numbers, and boundaries of such wards should be fixed and determined by a scheme to be made by a Commissioner to be for that purpose appointed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department. And whereas on the twelfth day of August last the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, and Secretary of State for the Home Department, did duly appoint me, Alfred Chichele Plowden, Barrister-at-Law, to act as such Commissioner aforesaid, and did, on the thirtieth day of August last fix the fourteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven as the day for the completion of the said scheme.

"Now, I, the said Alfred Chichele Plowden, in pursuance of the powers given me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act, do hereby fix and determine that the borough of Reading as extended shall be divided into ten wards, the names and boundaries of which shall be as follows:—

"Names.

"Abbey Ward, Battle Ward, West Ward, Castle Ward, Minster Ward, Katesgrove Ward, Church Ward, Victoria Ward, Redlands Ward, East Ward.

"Boundaries.

"And I do hereby determine that Abbey Ward shall comprise the whole of the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Battle Ward shall comprise so much of the parish of Saint Mary Reading, as is bounded on the east north and west sides thereof by the boundary of the said parish, and on the south side thereof, by the middle of so much of Oxford-road in the said parish, as lies between the boundary of the parish of Tilehurst, and the boundaries of the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading, where such boundaries meet at a point opposite the middle of the road in Thorn-street.

"And I do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Tilehurst which is described in the Second Schedule to the Reading Corporation Act, 1887; the whole of the tithing of Southcot in the parish of Saint Mary Reading; and so much of the parish of Saint Mary Reading, as is bounded on the north by the middle of Oxford-road from a point in the middle of the said road at the eastern end of the Great Western Railway Bridge over such road to a point where such road crosses the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary Reading and the parish of Tilehurst from such point in southerly westerly and easterly directions by such boundary, and by the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary Reading and the tithing of Southcot to the point in the last-mentioned boundary which is in the middle of the Holy Brook (being the easternmost point of the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary Reading and the tithing of Southcot) and from thence eastwards by the middle of the Holy Brook as far as to the middle of the bridge which carries the road from Coley-avenue over the Holy Brook near to and on the western side of Coley

Farm, and which said ward is bounded on the south-east, and east by the middle of the last-mentioned road, and by the middle of the road in Coley-avenue to a point in the middle of the road called Bath-road, at the eastern end thereof, on further part of the north and on the north-east by the middle of Tilehurst-road as far as to the eastern side of the railroad of the Great Western Railway Company, and on the remaining part of the east by the eastern side of the said railroad to the point first-mentioned in this description of West Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that Castle Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Mary Reading which is bounded on the north from a point on the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading opposite the middle of the northern end of Saint Mary's Butt's to the eastern side of the railway bridge carrying the railroad of the Great Western Railway Company over Oxford-road by the middle of Oxford-road, on the west by the eastern side of the said railroad, on the south and south-west by the middle of Tilehurst-road to the aforesaid point in the middle of the road called Bath-road at the eastern end thereof, on the south-east from the last-mentioned point by the middle of Castle-street to a point opposite the middle of Bridge-street, and on the east from the last-mentioned point northwards along the road in Saint Mary's Butt's to the point first-mentioned in this description of Castle Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that Minster Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Mary Reading which is bounded on the north by the parish boundary along the middle of Broad-street, from a point opposite the middle of the road in Saint Mary's Butt's at the northern end thereof to the eastern end of Broad-street, and is also bounded by the parish boundary from the point where such boundary leaves the eastern end of Broad-street to the easternmost point of the boundary between the parish of Saint Mary Reading and the tithing of Southcot in the middle of the Holy Brook and from the last-mentioned point eastwards by the middle of the Holy Brook to the middle of the bridge which carries the road from Coley-avenue over the Holy Brook, near to and on the western side of Coley Farm, and is bounded on the westerly and north-westerly sides by the middle of the same road, and by the middle of the road in Coley-avenue, to a point in the middle of the road called Bath-road, at the eastern end thereof, and from that point on the north and north-west by the middle of the road in Castle-street, to a point opposite the middle of the road in Bridge-street, and on the west by the eastern boundary of Castle Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that Katesgrove Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles Reading, which is bounded on part of the east by the middle of Bridge-street, Southampton-street, Whitley-street and Basingstoke-road, to the point on the eastern side of Basingstoke-road where the boundary between the said parish and the hamlet of Whitley begins to run along the eastern side of the said Basingstoke-road, thence on further part of the east and on the south by the said boundary between the said parish and the hamlet of Whitley, and on the west north-west and north by the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Mary Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Church Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles Reading which is bounded on part of the north by the River Kennet and the Kennet

Navigation Cut, from a point on the said river in the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading opposite to the eastern end of Crane Wharf, along the middle of the said river and the middle of the Kennet Navigation Cut to a point in the said cut opposite the middle of the north end of Sidmouth-street, on the east side from the last-mentioned point by a straight line to the middle of Sidmouth-street and by the middle of such street to a point in the middle of London-road, on a further part of the north by the middle of London-road as far as to a point opposite the middle of Redlands-road, on further part of the east from the point last aforesaid by the middle of Redlands-road to the point where the boundary between the said parish of Saint Giles Reading and the hamlet of Whitley crosses Redlands-road, and from that point by the same boundary as far as to the point on the east side of Basingstoke-road where such boundary begins to run along the eastern side of the same road, and on the west from the last-named point partly by a line drawn to the middle of the road in Whitley-street and partly by the middle of the roads in Whitley-street, Southampton-street, and Bridge-street respectively, as far as to the point where the boundary of the said parish of Saint Giles Reading joins the boundary of the parish of Saint Mary Reading, on further part of the north by the boundary between those parishes, and on the remaining part of the north by the boundary between the parishes of Saint Giles Reading and Saint Lawrence Reading to the point first-mentioned in this description of the boundaries of the said Church Ward. All that part of the hamlet of Whitley in the parish of Saint Giles Reading which lies west of the middle of the roads called respectively Redlands-road and Shinfield-road. And all those parts of the parishes of Burghfield and Shinfield which are respectively described in the second schedule to the Reading Corporation Act, 1887.

"And I do hereby determine that Victoria Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles Reading, which is bounded on the east from a point in the middle of London-road by the parish or liberty of Earley. On the south, from the point aforesaid by the middle of London-road to a point opposite the middle of Sidmouth-street, on part of the west by the middle of Sidmouth-street to the north end of that street, and by a straight line extending therefrom to a point in the middle of the Kennet Navigation Cut, on part of the south or south-west from the last-mentioned point along the middle of the said cut and the middle of the River Kennet to a point on the said river in the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading opposite the eastern end of Crane Wharf, on the remaining part of the west and on the north by the boundary between the said parishes of Saint Giles Reading and Saint Lawrence Reading.

"And I do hereby determine that Redlands Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish of Saint Giles Reading, which is bounded on the east by the parish or liberty of Earley from a point in the middle of London-road to the boundary of the hamlet of Whitley, on the south by the boundary of the hamlet of Whitley, as far as to the middle of the road called Redlands-road, from thence on the west side by the middle of the said road to a point in the middle of London-road, and on the north by the middle of London-road; and all that part of the hamlet of Whitley in the parish of Saint Giles Reading which lies east of the middle of the roads called respectively Redlands-road and Shinfield-road and which is not comprised within the boundaries of Church Ward.

"And I do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise all that part of the parish or liberty of Earley which is described in the second schedule to the Reading Corporation Act 1887.

"And I do hereby declare that the wards herebefore determined are shown upon the plan hereunto annexed and signed by me, and their boundaries set forth as appears thereon.

"And I do hereby determine that the number of Aldermen of the said borough as so extended shall be ten, and that the number of Councillors of the said borough as so extended shall be thirty.

"And I do hereby apportion all the existing Councillors among the new wards of the extended borough as follows:—

"To Abbey Ward:—Councillors: Frank Attwells, Blackall Simonds, and Stephen Gould.

"To Battle Ward:—Councillors: John Forrest Euerby, John Thomas Dodd, and John Weightman.

"To West Ward:—Councillor: Owen Ridley.

"To Castle Ward:—Councillors: James King and Charles Gyningham Field.

"To Minster Ward:—Councillors: John Wesley Martin, William Berkeley Monck, and Daniel Heelas.

"To Katesgrove Ward:—Councillors: Isaiah Birt Nicholson and George Philbrick.

"To Church Ward:—Councillor: James Dymore Brown.

"To Victoria Ward:—Councillors: John Messer and Arthur Hill.

"To Redlands Ward:—Councillor: George William Palmer.

"And I do hereby determine as a provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alterations of wards and of the number of councillors that on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven being the ordinary day of elections of councillors in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act 1882, there shall be elected in addition to the councillors to be elected in place of those whose term of office expires on that day councillors for the undermentioned seven wards as follows:—

"For West Ward—Two councillors.

"For Castle Ward—One councillor.

"For Katesgrove Ward—One councillor.

"For Church Ward—Two councillors.

"For Victoria Ward—One councillor.

"For Redlands Ward—Two councillors.

"For East Ward—Three councillors.

"And I do hereby declare that the councillors to be elected for the said seven wards on the said first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven including the councillors to be elected in place of those who go out of office on that day shall respectively retire or go out of office as follows, that is to say:—

"As respects West Ward, Victoria Ward, and Redlands Ward, the councillor who shall be elected by the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and the councillor who shall be elected by the larger number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"As respects Castle Ward, Katesgrove Ward and Church Ward, the councillor who shall be elected by the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

and the councillor who shall be elected by the larger number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"As respects East Ward the councillor who shall be elected by the smallest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the councillor who shall be elected by the next smallest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and the councillor who shall be elected by the largest number of votes shall go out of office on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"And I do hereby declare that if at any election of councillors for any of the said seven wards to be held on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, there shall not be a contest, or if in the event of there being a contest the number of votes given for any of the councillors elected, shall be equal, the order in which the councillors shall go out of office in any such case shall be determined by the Council of the borough.

"And I do hereby determine that the under-mentioned persons, namely:—Charles James Andrewes, John Wells Hounslow, and William Silver Darter being the three aldermen assigned by the Council on the ninth of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six to act as returning officers, shall act as returning officers respectively for the following new wards, namely:—

"For Abbey Ward—Charles James Andrewes.

"For Castle Ward—John Wells Hounslow.

"For Church Ward—William Silver Darter.

"And I also declare that the undermentioned aldermen of the borough, namely:—Alexander Beale, Henry Bilson Blandy, and George William Colebrook shall act as returning officers respectively for the following new wards, namely:—

"For Victoria Ward—Alexander Beale.

"For Redlands Ward—Henry Bilson Blandy.

"For Katesgrove Ward—George William Colebrook.

"And as a provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alteration of wards and of the number of councillors and aldermen, I do hereby declare that at the elections on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the returning officer for each of the four remaining new wards namely:—Battle Ward, West Ward, Minster Ward and East Ward shall be the mayor of the borough or a person to be by him appointed.

"And as a further provision necessary in consequence of the extension of the borough and of the alterations of the numbers of councillors and aldermen, I do hereby declare that on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven the Council of the borough immediately after the election of the mayor shall elect in the manner provided by the Municipal Corporations Act 1882 four fit persons to be aldermen of the said borough as extended by the Reading Corporation Act 1887.

"And I do hereby declare that two of the aldermen to be so elected shall go out of office on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine together with the three existing aldermen who go out of office on that day by rotation, and that the other two aldermen to be so elected shall go out of office on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, together with the three existing aldermen who go out of office on that day by rotation. And I do hereby declare that of the four aldermen so to be elected as aforesaid the two who shall receive the smaller number of votes shall go out of office on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"And I do hereby declare that if the said four aldermen shall be elected by an equal number of votes the Council of the borough shall determine which two of the said four aldermen shall go out of office on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and that if for any other reason in consequence of an equality of the number of votes given for the said four aldermen or for any three or two of them any doubt shall arise as to any alderman who shall go out of office on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, any such doubt shall be determined by the Council of the borough.

"Dated this thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

"Alfred Chichele Plowden."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said determination of the said Commissioner of the Boundaries of the said Wards, and of the said apportionment by him of aldermen, councillors, and returning officers, amongst the said wards, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the parish churchyard of Wolston, in the county of Warwick, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

In the parish churchyard of Crickhowel, in the county of Brecon, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

ORDER of the Local Government Board altering General Consolidated Order as to Minutes of Proceedings of Guardians :—

Saint Olave's Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Saint Olave's Union, in the county of Surrey ;—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order dated the 24th day of July, 1847, addressed, amongst others, to the Guardians of the Poor of the said Saint Olave's Union, the Poor Law Commissioners prescribed Rules and Regulations as to the Meetings and Proceedings of the said Guardians, and by Article 41 (Firstly), and Article 202 (No. 1.) of the said Order provision is made with regard to keeping Minutes of the proceedings at the Meetings of the said Guardians, entering the said Minutes in a book, submitting the same so entered for authentication by the signature of the presiding Chairman, and as to reading such Minutes; and it is expedient that, so far as regards the said Saint Olave's Union, further provision should be made as herein-after mentioned:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby, so far as regards the said Saint Olave's Union, alter the said Order, and direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—If the said Guardians direct the Minutes of the proceedings at their Meetings to be printed, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to the Guardians to prepare the same for printing, and, before every ordinary Meeting, to attach the printed Minutes of the preceding ordinary Meeting, and of any Extraordinary Meeting which may have been held since such ordinary Meeting, to those which have already been confirmed, and at every ordinary Meeting to submit the Minutes of the preceding ordinary Meeting, and of any such Extraordinary Meeting, to be authenticated by the signature of the presiding Chairman.

ARTICLE II.—If the said Guardians shall so direct, it shall also be the duty of the Clerk to the Guardians to send to each Guardian, by post or otherwise, forty-eight hours at least before each ordinary Meeting of the Guardians, a printed copy of the Minutes of the last ordinary Meeting and of every other Meeting of the Guardians held since the last ordinary Meeting; and if, in pursuance of any such direction, a printed copy of such Minutes shall have been so sent to each Guardian it shall not be necessary that the Minutes so sent shall be read at the next ordinary Meeting if at such Meeting the Guardians resolve that such Minutes be taken as read. Any such Resolution shall be entered upon the Minutes in lieu of an entry to the effect that the Minutes have been read.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

AFRICA—EAST COAST.—ZANZIBAR HARBOUR.

Beacons indicating Prohibited Anchorage near Telegraph Cables, and withdrawal of Buoy.

INFORMATION has been received from Captain A. B. Jenkins, Her Majesty's Ship "Gannet," that the limits of the prohibited anchorage near the shore ends of two of the telegraph cables landed at Ras Shangani, Zanzibar Harbour, are now indicated by three beacons on the roof of the cable house:—

The northern black beacon in line with the red beacon, bearing S. 76° E., indicates the northern limit of the area within which anchorage is prohibited near the two northern cables.

The southern black beacon in line with the red beacon, bearing N. 82° E., indicates the southern limit of the area within which anchorage is prohibited near the two northern cables.

The beacons are posts surmounted by globes, two painted black, and one painted red.

Also, that a third cable has recently been laid between Zanzibar Island and Bawi, southward of the limit indicated by the above beacons. It is laid from Ras Shangani, S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., for a distance of four and a-half cables, then W. by N., nearly two miles northward of Fungu Chawanba, thence around the reef south-west of Bawi to the cable house on Bawi. Anchorage is prohibited near this cable, to avoid which the clock tower should be kept southward of the telegraph house at Zanzibar, at least half the width of the latter.

Also that the buoy, surmounted by a pole and basket, hitherto marking the direction of a submarine telegraph cable off Ras Shangani has been withdrawn.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Peter, within the Parish of Much Woolton, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Lancaster, and Diocese of Liverpool.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Much Woolton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Peter.

And whereas the Right Reverend John Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool, and the Reverend George Winter Warr, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar of the parish of Childwall, in the said county and diocese, and as such Vicar, the patron of the said new parish of Much Woolton, and the Reverend George Hardwicke Spooner, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Incumbent of the same new parish, have, by an instrument, under their hands, bearing date on or about the third day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Much Woolton, that the said new church of Saint Peter, situate within such new parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Peter) of the same new parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said John Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool, and of the said George Winter Warr and of the said George Hardwicke Spooner, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Peter, situate within the said new parish of Much Woolton, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Peter as aforesaid) of the same new parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said new parish of Much Woolton, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Peter so hereby substituted had been originally the parish church of the same new parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Peter as aforesaid), of the said new parish of Much Woolton, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Peter (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said new parish of Much Woolton), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said John Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said George Winter Warr and George Hardwicke Spooner have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (L.S.)
